SPIRITUAL LIFE

El Evangelio de hoy

La palabra amor está muy trillada, es usada con mucha facilidad en nuestro lenguaje. Al decirla, quizá no pensamos en lo profundo de esta palabra. Hacemos tantas promesas de amor falsas. A la esposa, al esposo, a los hijos, a los amigos y a tanta gente le decimos que la amamos cuando en realidad no es cierto. En este Domingo de Pascua, Jesús nuevamente lanza su invitación al amor, a dar la vida por el ser amado. "Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros. Ustedes deben amarse unos a otros como yo los he amado" (Juan 13:34). Y agrega una frase más para que quede bien cimentado en nuestros corazones el significado de la palabra amor: "En esto reconocerán todos que son mis discípulos: en que se aman unos a otros" (Juan 13:35).

Esto es el amor evangélico; esto distingue mucho el significado de decir simplemente la palabra amor. El amor evangélico se vive en las dificultades más difíciles de la vida. Cuando los percances nos obligan a hacer cosas, aunque no queramos. Para así glorificarte en el sufrimiento de cualquier índole. Esta es la entrega que sublima tu Evangelio. Así es como se va aprendiendo a amar: la vida nos enseña a girar el corazón al amor. Reflexiona en lo siguiente: ¿En qué área de tu vida has experimentado el amor de Jesús? Si Jesús te dijera: "ama como yo te he amado", ¿cuál sería tu respuesta? En concreto, solo Jesús puede ayudarnos a renovar nuestra forma de amar a los demás.

Parents of Children with Special Needs

Have you ever wondered if your child with special needs will be able to receive the sacraments? Have you felt alone in the Church because your child doesn't quite "fit in" or your family looks "different" from the rest? Friend, you are not alone! The Little Margaret Program, adaptive catechesis for children with special needs, attempts to serve this hidden community of children and their families.

We strive to provide catechesis through accessible learning, while supporting their parents' growth in their faith through group coaching. If your child cannot attend a typical catechesis program due to his/her unique learning needs and you are interested in becoming part of a supportive community of people who understand your struggle, come find out more!

On Sunday, June 1, at 10 a.m. in Room 106 in the Parish Life Building, there will be an informational session for both potential volunteers and parents who wish to enroll their children in our program.

If you are unable to attend but would like more information, please email Formation@smmcc.org.

Volunteers Needed for The Little Margaret Program

The Little Margaret Program, adaptive catechesis for children with special needs or disabilities, is looking for volunteers to make a monthly commitment to teach these special children about the sacraments, the life of the Church, and prepare them to receive the sacraments. Children with disabilities have unique challenges that make participation in traditional catechesis programs impossible, which then excludes them from receiving the sacraments.

This program seeks to address these challenges and help children with special needs become full participants in the life and liturgy of the Body of Christ. If you are a special educator, an occupational therapist, a speech therapist, or are interested in working with children with special needs, we need your help!

Come to an informational session for potential volunteers, and parents on Sunday, June 1, at 10 a.m. in Room 106 in the Parish Life Building.

If you are unable to attend but would like more information, please email Formation@smmcc.org.

FORMATION

Catholic Life Explained

Question:

If God is good, why is there evil in the world?

Answer:

The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn't He stop bad things from happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He's not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love.

One small decision of selfishness, jealously, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision — good or bad — is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us!

¿Estás llamado a fortalecer matrimonios? ¡Te necesitamos!

Nuestra diócesis ha sido bendecida con parejas jóvenes que desean que su matrimonio tenga una base sólida y centrada en Dios.

Estamos preparando el lanzamiento de encuentros para comprometidos en español para el año 2026. Es por eso que estamos buscando matrimonios católicos con al menos un año de casados, que hablen español y deseen ser parte de este hermoso ministerio.

Formar parte del encuentro de comprometidos no solo transforma la vida de quienes se preparan para el sacramento del matrimonio, sino que también fortalece y renueva la relación de las parejas servidoras, al integrarse a una comunidad que valora, acompaña y celebra el don del matrimonio.

Si tú y tu cónyuge desean compartir su testimonio y poner su amor al servicio de Dios y de otras parejas, los invitamos a contactarnos.

Para mas información, pueden contactar a Juan y Vicky Ospina al teléfono 407-334-3752 o por correo electrónico a ospinav76@gmail.com.

PARISH LIFE

Be Part of Something Big!

Our parish will sponsor a service day to pack 200,000 meals to feed the hungry.

Once again, we have partnered with Servants with a Heart, a non-profit organization in Waxhaw, NC. They will take care of ordering and delivering the goods, training our volunteers and shipping the completed pallets.

The cost for each meal is $0.19. It will cost $38,000 to provide 200,000 meals.

How will we do this?

We are appealing to the servant heart of our parishioners to offer monetary donations, knowing that our fruitful stewardship will let those who receive these meals be physically nourished and feel loved.

The meal packing event will be on Saturday, August 2. We are asking you to volunteer to pack meals.

Each box of food is $40 and brings the food items needed to assemble many meals. We need 950 food box donations.

Last year, your gift of time and financial support allowed us to provide 150,000 meal kits for the poor in Nicaragua.

Please scan the QR code to donate a food box and/or volunteer for a meal-packing shift.
