Deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me; so shall I never, never part from thee.*

Organ Postlude

“Trumpet Voluntary”

Gordon Young, 1919-1998

“Joshua Fit de Battle” is one of the best known examples of an African American Spiritual, likely created by the Gullah people of the Georgia Sea Islands. The term “created” is used rather than “composed” since slaves were forbidden to read or write, meaning that the song endured through oral tradition. Check out this amazing performance by the Nathaniel Dett

Chorale with introduction by composer/arranger Moses Hogan:

A House Divided

One of the heaviest burdens people are forced to carry is the distress of “a house divided.” When Abraham Lincoln said “a house divided against itself cannot stand,” he was referring to the division within the country during the Civil War. We experience a similar, though not as lethal, separation when our two-party system of government engenders obstinate division—not merely acceptable political diversity. Perhaps the most heartbreaking example of a house divided is a family in which members are alienated from each other.

There are as many reasons for family division as there are families. Reasons include the betrayal of one member by another, inheritance disparity, parental favoritism, sibling rivalry, to name a few. One might think that those involved should be able to resolve such differences—after all, isn't blood thicker than water? On the other hand, how are serious family rifts to be repaired if the reason for division is one's faith or commitment to God? That is the situation that Jesus describes today.

We might wonder how faith in God can tear families apart. It often happens when someone leaves the religion of one's family and converts to another tradition. This might be judged as a betrayal of the family's values. This may be what many of Jesus' Jewish followers faced when they claimed that Jesus fulfilled their religious expectations while other family members did not share their belief. That was a terrible price to have to pay for fidelity to their faith, but they paid it.

We pray for all those who are facing sickness in mind or body. We ask that you restore their health, soothe their pain and ease their worry. Give them your peace and comfort. In Jesus' name, Amen!

PROPHETS

We reflect upon the voice of the prophet in this Sunday's readings. We hear of the suffering and the rescue of Jeremiah. We hear how Jesus anticipates his suffering and death. As with Jeremiah and Jesus, the prophets were sent by God to the leaders and people of Israel. A prophet is one who speaks truth to the powerful, exposing their darker hidden motives and injustices. The prophet presents a way forward that aligns with God's purposes. A prophet can force people away from a comfortable neutrality or indifference. The prophet creates an urgency to make a choice: Are we content with the status quo, or are we to change our ways and pursue a new and better path? Today, we may also ask, how do we identify and respond to prophets of our time? How might we provide a prophetic voice in our Church and in our world?

Padre Pedro

Feliz Aniversario Sacerdotal

"Un buen pastor, un pastor según el Corazón de Dios, es el tesoro más grande que el buen Dios puede conceder a una parroquia, y uno de los dones más preciosos de la misericordia divina."
-San Juan Maria Vianney

Damos infinitas gracias a Dios por la vida Sacerdotal de Padre Pedro quien esta cumpliendo 23 años de haber sido ordenado!! Sin duda alguna ha sido un buen pastor, un gran tesoro guiando a sus ovejas con un corazón humilde y lleno de amor. La Humildad es una de sus mas grandes virtudes. Oramos por el para que siga siendo ese instrumento de Dios en nuestras vidas y lleve paz donde haya odio, lleve amor donde haya injuria, perdón donde haya duda y sobre todo mucha fe en el Señor.

Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

LOS PROFETAS

En las lecturas de este domingo reflexionamos sobre la voz del profeta. Escuchamos del sufrimiento y rescate de Jeremías. Oímos cómo Jesús anticipa su sufrimiento y muerte. Al igual que Jeremías y Jesús, los profetas fueron enviados por Dios a los líderes y al pueblo de Israel. Un profeta es alguien que habla la verdad a los poderosos, exhibiendo sus motivos ocultos más oscuros e injusticias. El profeta presenta una dirección hacia delante que se alinea con los propósitos de Dios. Un profeta puede obligar a la gente a salir de una comodidad neutral o de la indiferencia. El profeta crea una urgencia para tomar una decisión: ¿nos contentamos con la situación de cómo están ciertas cosas, o vamos a cambiar nuestros métodos y seguir un camino nuevo y mejor? Hoy también podemos preguntar ¿cómo identificamos y respondemos a los profetas de nuestro tiempo? ¿Cómo podemos proporcionar una voz profética en nuestra Iglesia y en nuestro mundo?

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El profeta del Señor sufre peligros y deshonra para proclamar el no grato mensaje de Dios para la ciudad (Jeremías 38:4-6, 8-10).

Salmo — Señor, date prisa en socorrerme (Salmo 40[39])

Segunda lectura — No te desanimes. Persevera en la lucha igual que Cristo soportó la cruz (Hebreos 12:1-4).

Evangelio — Jesús vino a purificar la tierra con su santo fuego y a sembrar división y no paz (Lucas 12:49-53).

Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Señor Dios, que has preparado bienes invisibles para los que te aman, infunde en nuestros corazones el anhelo de amarte, para que, amándote en todo y sobre todo, consigamos tus promesas, que superan todo deseo. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

Pregunta de reflexión:

¿Qué es lo que me promete Dios?
