Doctors Say Evidence Shows Mass is Safe When Guidelines Are Followed

(the evidence does not suggest that Church attendance – following the current guidelines - is any more risky than shopping for groceries.)

WASHINGTON, AUGUST 25, 2020, CAN (Catholic News Agency) — Evidence suggests that church services following public health guidelines do not present a greater risk of spreading the novel coronavirus than other similar activities, doctors said last week.

Washing hands, social distancing, and mask requirements have helped prevent the spread of COVID-19, even in cases when contagious, pre-symptomatic parishioners took part in church events, three members of the Thomistic Institute Working Group on Infectious Disease Protocols for Sacraments & Pastoral Care concluded. Doctors Thomas McGovern, Deacon Timothy Flanigan, and Paul Cieslak authored an article for Real Clear Science on Mass attendance and COVID-19 August 19.

“For Catholic churches following the guidelines, no outbreaks of COVID-19 have been linked to church attendance, even though we have examples ... of asymptomatic, unknowingly infected individuals attending Mass and other parish functions,” they wrote. “Their attendance could have led to an outbreak if appropriate precautions were not followed, yet in each case, we found no evidence of viral transmission.”

“This encouraging news should inspire confidence that the guidelines in place - based on CDC recommendations - are working to decrease COVID-19 transmission,” the doctors continued. “While nothing during a pandemic is risk-free, these guidelines mean that Catholics (and public officials) may be confident that it’s reasonably safe to come to Church for Mass and the sacraments.”

Over the last 14 weeks, they said, approximately 17,000 parishes have held three or more Masses each weekend, as well as daily services, combining to equal more than 1 million public Masses celebrated across the United States since shelter-in-place orders were lifted.

By following public health guidelines, these Masses have largely avoided viral spread, the authors suggested. Nick Schoen, an employee of the Archdiocese of Seattle, has initiated a contact-tracing protocol for Mass-goers in the area. Tracking individuals who have participated in church events shortly before testing positive for COVID-19, he found that none of these individuals launched outbreaks at churches.

The authors pointed to at least four examples of infected individuals attending Mass while pre-symptomatic, as well as three “Anointings” of sick individuals by priests in poorly-ventilated rooms. In each case, they said, the sick individuals avoided infecting other people.

“During a July 3 Funeral Mass (45 attendees, capacity 885), two members of one household notified the parish that they had tested positive for COVID-19 and were infected and pre-symptomatic during the Mass,” they said.

“During a July 11 Wedding (200 attendees, capacity 908), fresh air circulated from multiple open windows with the aid of fans. The following day, an attendee developed symptoms of COVID and on July 13 tested positive. The attendee was almost certainly contagious with pre-symptomatic infection during the wedding.”

In April, the Thomistic Institute’s Working Group on Infectious Disease Protocols for Sacraments & Pastoral Care released guidelines for reopening churches for Mass and other sacraments. These guidelines were incorporated by numerous dioceses into their protocols for reopening. The guidelines were built on a multi-phase proposal for resumption and expansion of public Masses while remaining in conformity with public health guidelines in force in different places.

In “Phase I” of the proposal, the institute encouraged the “Sunday obligation” to be dispensed, the elderly and those at high risk of COVID-19 to stay home, and those with symptoms to stay home from Mass. The institute also promoted social distancing, masks requirements, and the regular use of hand sanitizer.

The few churches that have reported a COVID-19 outbreak did not follow these regulations and in some cases engaged in discouraged actions such as congregational singing. In some cases, these isolated incidents have led local government officials to restrict church services more than activities in restaurants, movie theaters, and casinos. This has prompted lawsuits alleging religious discrimination, which have often been successful.

The doctors said in their article that there is NO EVIDENCE that church services are higher risk than similar activities when guidelines are followed. “To date, the evidence does not suggest that Church attendance - following the current guidelines - is any more risky than shopping for groceries.

And the spiritual good for believers in coming to Church is immeasurably important for their well-being,” they said. “Indeed, for Catholics, the Mass and above all the Eucharist are central to the Christian life. In a time like this, it is even more important that the faithful be able to come to Church and receive Holy Communion.”

Welcome Visitors!

Father Farrell, the staff and parishioners of Holy Family Catholic Church welcome you!

Whether you are here for a few days, weeks, or months - we are happy that you have chosen us to be your parish away from home. Those of us who reside here permanently are few in number - perhaps fifteen percent of those who attend our weekend liturgies.

We are inspired by the many thousands who join us in celebrating Mass, both on Sunday and during the week. The beautiful example of faith you give us by your presence strengthens our commitment to serve your spiritual needs. We especially invite you to worship Our Lord in our Eucharistic Adoration Chapel located to the right of the Church as you leave.

We hope your stay on our lovely island is enjoyable, we pray that your journey home is safe and we look forward to your return visit to us - your parish away from home.

The Collection for the Church in Latin America will be taken up next week. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support to the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ. PRAY THE ROSARY EVERY DAY!

At all times and especially in this time of great distress and uncertainty Our Blessed Mother Mary is a wonderful safe haven. Father Gabriel Amorth, chief exorcist of the Vatican writes: One day a colleague of mine heard the devil say during an exorcism:

"Every Hail Mary is like a blow on my head. If Christians knew how powerful the Rosary was, it would be my end."

What makes this prayer so effective is that the Rosary is both prayer and meditation. It is addressed to the Father, to the Blessed Virgin, and to the Holy Trinity, and is a meditation centered on Christ. Beg Our Mother Mary's intercession for peace for yourself, your family, your community, your state, our nation, and the entire world!

Holy Family Ladies Guild

I invite and encourage all ladies of Holy Family Catholic Church to join our Ladies Guild. We meet monthly on the Third Wednesday at 10:15am in the Parish Hall through April. We begin with a short business meeting, enjoy interesting presentations from a variety of speakers from our community and elsewhere, followed by a delicious luncheon prepared by some of our members. Safety protocols remain in place. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to become involved in your parish and make some new friends! The annual donation of $20 helps to defray meeting expenses. Please complete the registration form below (along with your check made payable to Holy Family Ladies Guild) and drop it off at the Religious Articles Shop after Mass, the Reception Desk in the parish office, or mail it to: Ladies Guild, 24 Pope Ave, HHI, SC 29928.

YOUR VOICE!

Prayer for America (from the Novena for America)

O Blessed Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit:

We praise You for Your Goodness.

We thank You for Your mercy.

We ask forgiveness for our offenses against You.

We seek Your loving care for all our needs and requests.

You have blessed our nation, and given us countless gifts.

Our freedom and the ability to seek Your will everyday are among our dearest possessions.

But in turning away from You, we not only risk the loss of all our country has stood for, but, [and more seriously,] we offend You - who are all good and deserving of all our love.

We ask that You hear us and, through Your fathomless mercy, convert the hearts of our people and bring them back to You.

May our land once more ring out with praise of You and the most Blessed and loving Virgin Mary,

to whom we have entrusted the petitions in this [prayer].

Most Holy God, we thank You for hearing us. May our hearts praise You forevermore. Amen.
