Question: We live in a country that upholds the separation of Church and state. What is the role of Catholics in society?

Answer:

The role of the Church in the world has taken different forms over time, but the theme is the same. Be disciples in it! As the lay faithful — that is, not vowed priest or religious — we are called to live and love in the circumstances of our daily lives. St. John Paul II wrote a document about the laity. In it he wrote, “In their situation in the world God manifests His plan and communicates to them their particular vocation of seeking the Kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs and by ordering them according to the plan of God” (On the Lay Members of Christ’s Faithful, 15).

God wants us in the hospitals, the board rooms, the law offices, the food pantries, and the little league games! We are to engage in the affairs of the world. But when we’re there, we should live the plan of God. We need to respect those around us, engage in just business and legal practices, and love our children. We should care for the earth, use our money wisely, and get to know our neighbors. We must advocate for social policies that respect human dignity and human freedom. No matter our state in life, we are invited to build the kingdom of God!

HAPPY 53rd WEDDING ANNIVERSARY
Chuck and Sherri Bender

Blessings on your marriage!
Thanks for letting us share in your joy.

Thanks for your work on Saturday, August 14th, to beautify the campus. These young people were joined by many other parishioners, the Knights of Columbus, and the Men’s Club.

DIVINE MERCY SAID: "Write this: before I come as the Just Judge, I am coming first as the King of Mercy. Before the day of justice arrives, there will be given to people a sign in the heavens of this sort:

All light in the heavens will be extinguished, and there will be great darkness over the whole earth. Then the sign of the cross will be seen in the sky, and from the openings where the hands and the feet of the savior were nailed will come forth great lights which will light up the earth for a period of time. This will take place shortly before the last day." (St. Faustina Diary, 83)"Used with permission of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the B.V.M."

MAINTENANCE POSITION OPEN

St. Anthony Catholic Church is accepting applications for a full-time maintenance position.

Job responsibilities include performing a wide variety of maintenance tasks associated with the care of parish facilities. Duties include custodial work, minor electrical and plumbing repairs, heating and air conditioning systems maintenance, and general assistance with setting up for events. Please stop by the office for an application or request one via email from andrea.foyle@saintanthony.com.

GOSPEL MEDITATION -

“Far be it from us to forsake the Lord for the service of other gods.” We struggle with our gods. They appear in the forms of things like money, power, prestige, popularity, privilege, and self-fulfillment. We like these “gods” because they make us feel good and ask very little of us in return. When we worship them, we worship ourselves. How can you go wrong with that? We buy into the illusion that if something can give us a comfortable life, free of want and need, then it is worth setting other things aside to pursue it. In essence, we sell our souls. Our struggle with “who is God” and to whom do we belong is a real one and one that can easily find us empty and experiencing disillusionment.

The devil tempted Jesus in the desert and promised him more. We are promised “more.” But in pursuing the more and the satisfying we lose track of the cost, and the cost is great. We sacrifice our very life in pursuit of something disguised as life. We sacrifice truth for something that only “feels” true. While the true and real God certainly promises us many things, many things are also required. It is not about the warm and secure feelings and self-absorption the world wants to provide, but of giving back. There can be no lukewarm stance with regard to faith. If we are in, then faith in Jesus Christ asks us to do some difficult things: work in service of God’s kingdom (not our own), love our enemies, offer no resistance to injury, that we must die to ourselves in order to find ourselves, and trust that Jesus truly gives us his flesh and blood to eat and drink. These are hard things to accept and even harder to put into practice. It is no wonder that many, who may be attracted to Jesus at first, walk away in pursuit of the more self-satisfying gods.

But truth is truth. If we cannot accept it from the lips of Jesus Christ, then where else will we find it? To whom can we go? There is only one source of truth and life, Jesus Christ. Jesus has the words of eternal life and if we do not go to him, then where else will we find this gift? But we must be faithful and buy into the whole package deal that requires sacrifice and fidelity. When we do, we find ourselves, through the Body and Blood of Christ, connected to the Source of all life and then intimately bound with our brothers and sisters. We all have to decide whether we want to stay or go and if we can accept what Jesus has to say. It’s a choice we all have to make.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO – ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

Lo que pasó en tiempos de Jesús, sigue pasando hoy día. Muchos le abandonan por cualquier bagatela, se dejan engañar fácilmente y hablan en contra de él y de su Evangelio. Inclusive algunos piensan que seguirle es de tontos. Pues, deja decirte Señor, que yo también reacciono como Pedro ante la pregunta: “¿Quiéren marcharse también ustedes?” (Juan 60:67). El lenguaje duro utilizado por Jesús los desconcertaba. Seguirte no es fácil; el camino de tus enseñanzas provoca un cambio radical con referencia a la justicia y al amor. Solo el que entienda tu lenguaje puede responder como Pedro: “Señor, ¿A quién iríamos? Tú tienes palabras de vida eterna. Nosotros creemos y sabemos que tú eres el Santo de Dios” (Juan 60:67-69). Ahora bien, con tantas experiencias vividas en este año pasado (2020), muchas personas se han dado cuenta que vacía y sin sentido es la vida llevada a la ligera. Nos hemos dado cuenta que la ambición de tener y vivir corriendo no vale la pena. Lo que cuenta es tener una vida unida a Ti, por la oración y la entrega a los demás, y es una gran bendición el comprenderlo y ponerlo a prueba. El ser humano se ha dado cuenta que lo que sí vale la pena es la salud para poder trabajar y llevar la comida a la mesa familiar. El Papa Francisco nos lleva aún más allá: “Qué difícil es perdonar siempre a quienes nos hieren. Qué desafiante es acoger siempre al inmigrante y al extranjero. Qué doloroso es soportar la desilusión, el rechazo, la traición” (8/26/18). Mantra para esta semana: ¡Tú tienes palabras de vida eterna!

Papel de los católicos en la Sociedad

Vivimos en un país que defiende la separación entre Iglesia y Estado. ¿Cuál es el papel de los católicos en la sociedad?

El papel de la Iglesia en el mundo ha tomado diferentes formas a lo largo del tiempo, pero el tema es el mismo. ¡Sed discípulos en ella! Como fieles laicos, es decir, no sacerdotes o religiosos con votos, estamos llamados a vivir y amar en las circunstancias de nuestra vida diaria. San Juan Pablo II escribió un documento sobre los laicos. En él escribió: "En su situación en el mundo, Dios manifiesta su plan y les comunica su vocación particular de buscar el Reino de Dios comprometiéndose en los asuntos temporales y ordenándolos según el plan de Dios" (Sobre los miembros laicos de los fieles de Cristo, 15). ¡Dios quiere que estemos en los hospitales, las salas de juntas, los despachos de abogados, las despensas de alimentos y los juegos de las ligas menores! Debemos involucrarnos en los asuntos del mundo. Pero cuando estemos allí, debemos vivir el plan de Dios. Necesitamos respetar a quienes nos rodean, participar en prácticas comerciales y legales justas y amar a nuestros hijos. Debemos cuidar la tierra, usar nuestro dinero sabiamente y conocer a nuestros vecinos. Debemos abogar por políticas sociales que respeten la dignidad humana y la libertad humana. No importa nuestro estado en la vida, ¡estamos invitados a construir el reino de Dios! © LPI
