SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Families of Service

What are Families of Service? Families of Service is a new opportunity for families to serve the parish. These families will spend 30 minutes before Sunday Mass greeting parishioners and handing out orders of worship. Your family will bring the gifts at the offertory. After Mass, the service family will hand out Bulletins, and neaten the pews. Typically, the family will be recognized by the Celebrant or the Deacon.

Ministers of Hospitality

What is a Minister of Hospitality? A Minister of Hospitality may greet people before Mass; assists parishioners with seating or concerns; take up the collection; assist the Family of Service, and other functions as trained or requested by the Church before, during, and after Mass.

We welcome all parishioners to this ministry. In addition, we give a special invitation to those who are in security, law enforcement, and the medical profession to join this ministry in this much needed vocation.

Kindly Contact Steve Strutkowski whose contact information is in the bulletin or contact Deacon Mike Woodall at the Church office with your intent.

There will be an introductory meeting in April to explain expectations and requirements of being a Minister of Hospitality.

From the Pastor's Desk

The Greek philosopher Socrates is regarded as one of the wisest men of all time. This man who lived between 470 and 399 BC devoted his life to exposing ignorance, hypocrisy and conceit among his fellow Athenians and calling them to a radical re-examination of life. "The unexamined life," he said, "is not worth living." He challenged popular opinions regarding religion and politics as he sought to bring people to a better understanding of virtue, justice, piety and right conduct. He attracted many followers, especially among the youth. But those in power arrested him, tried him and sentenced him to death. He was charged with false teaching regarding the gods of the state, propagating revolutionary ideas and corrupting the youth of Athens. His family and friends wanted to intervene to overturn the sentence but he would not let them. He had the option to go into exile from Athens but he would not take it. Instead, he accepted to drink the poison hemlock and die. Subsequent generations of Greeks came to regard Socrates as a martyr for truth. They resolved never again to persecute anyone on account of their beliefs.

In today's gospel we see that Jesus flatly refuses to seek any help, human or divine, to prolong his earthly life beyond his Father's will. The voice from heaven confirms that this decision is indeed God's will and that for Jesus, the faithful servant of God, death and glory are indeed two sides of the same coin.

This must have been a powerful story of encouragement in the faith for the persecuted early Christians to whom John wrote. It shows that it is only through Jesus' submission to an undeserved death that they now have the benefit of faith and salvation. But then it goes on to remind them of the words of Jesus that his followers must follow in his steps even unto death. "Those who love their life lose it, and those who hate their life in this world will keep it for eternal life. Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also." (John 12:25-26). Where is Jesus? Jesus is in glory. But to get there he had to pass through the gates of death in faithfulness to God's will. That is his story. That also should be our story.

-from sermons by Fr. Munachi

Please Note: Next week marks the beginning of Holy Week with Palm Sunday. On March 19, we observe the feast of St. Joseph, which is celebrated as a solemnity this year, including the recitation of the Gloria and the Creed in the Mass. However, March 17, the feast of St. Patrick, is suppressed this year as it falls on a Sunday during Lent. Additionally, March 25, the feast of the Annunciation, also is not celebrated this year, as the solemnity of Holy Week takes precedence over it.

May we have a blessed Holy Week celebration leading us into Easter Joy.

Fr. JOHNBOSCO DURAISAMY

Pastor

Friday Stations of the Cross
Begin at 6:30pm in English and 7:00pm in Spanish. The school will lead the Friday Stations of the Cross at 2:15pm on March 22nd.

Save These Dates! See You There!

Fran Taggart, owner of the Peace of Heaven Christian Gift Shop, will be holding a pop-up gift store at St. Anthony's the weekend of April 13th and 14th. She will be bringing a variety of items for First Communion including First Communion veils, rosaries, First Communion picture frames, plaques, First Communion missals and many other gifts. She will also bring rosaries, statues, books, and much more. If you see a veil, special gift, rosary, etc. for your First Communicant and that item needs to be ordered, there will be plenty of time to place an order that weekend and have the merchandise delivered back to St. Anthony's in time for First Communion. The gift store at St. Anthony's will be open on Saturday, April 13th at 4:00 PM for shopping prior to the 5:00 PM mass. All sales will suspend 15 minutes prior to the beginning of each mass and will resume after the recessional hymn. Sunday hours will begin at 8:00 AM and conclude at 2:30 PM. Stop by during these hours and check out what Fran has to offer. If you forget something or have a need that arises after this shopping weekend, her shop is only 30 minutes away in Hartsville. She would love to see you there too.

LENTEN CHARITABLE COLLECTION PROJECT

The Women's Guild of St. Anthony will be collecting items to benefit Lighthouse Ministries and House of Hope. All parishioners are invited to participate! Lighthouse Ministries and House of Hope are both Florence faith based ministries and work closely together. Lighthouse Ministries focuses on basic needs and preventing homelessness. House of Hope focuses on homelessness and addiction.

Items needed are toilet paper, tissues, paper towels, paper plates, paper napkins and disposable knives, forks, and spoons. Any monetary donations may be made payable to Women's Guild of St. Anthony. Collection boxes will be in the gathering area and in the church office February 17th thru March 29th. Thank you for your generosity.

LENTEN DISCIPLINES OF FASTING & ABSTINENCE

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

UBICACION DEL SANTISIMO SACRAMENTO

Pregunta: ¿Por qué las parroquias tienen el Santísimo Sacramento en un salón separado?

Respuesta: Si bien muchos católicos de cierta edad tienen recuerdos del Santísimo Sacramento alojado en el tabernáculo del altar mayor de la iglesia, muchas parroquias en las décadas posteriores al Concilio Vaticano Segundo han optado por construir un espacio separado, una capilla de reserva, donde se guarda el Santísimo Sacramento. Aunque esta práctica no es universal, está en consonancia con las orientaciones ofrecidas por los obispos estadounidenses en su documento Construido con piedras vivas (véanse los números 77 y 78). El objetivo es crear un espacio separado de la nave y el santuario, pero que esté "integralmente conectado con la iglesia" y que pueda fomentar "la reverencia y proporcionar la tranquilidad y la concentración necesarias para la oración personal". Esto puede ser especialmente importante para las comunidades que tienen adoración eucarística continua, permitiendo a las personas venir y orar en un espacio separado de las actividades normales de la vida parroquial. La práctica de reservar la Eucaristía en un espacio separado o en un lugar digno lejos del altar donde se celebra la Misa es que enfatiza la importancia de la liturgia misma, que es la "fuente y cumbre" de la vida de la Iglesia. Como ocurre con muchas cosas en la Iglesia, la práctica de colocar el tabernáculo en el santuario o en una capilla separada no es universal (como se puede ver en las visitas a iglesias históricas en Roma y otros lugares). Lo importante es que a medida que las comunidades se preguntan dónde colocar el tabernáculo, escuchen la voz de la Iglesia, exploren la antigua y variada tradición litúrgica de la Iglesia, consideren las necesidades y la vida de la comunidad, y también tengan en cuenta la arquitectura y límites de los espacios que ya podrían tener. ©LPI

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

Todos, sin duda, durante nuestra vida, llevamos sobre nuestras espaldas diferentes clases de cruces. Enfermedades, problemas económicos, falta de vivienda, status migratorio, por mencionar algunas situaciones. Hoy, la Liturgia nos lleva a ver que Dios no está solamente para resolver problemas inmediatos o de emergencia. Él está presente siempre en cada circunstancia que estemos viviendo. Nuestro deber es buscarlo todos los días. "Ven, Señor, en nuestra ayuda, para que podamos vivir y actuar siempre con aquel amor que impulsó a tu Hijo a entregarse por nosotros" (Oración colecta). Algunas veces tenemos miedo en lo que vivimos, nos sentimos solos y hasta desesperados, no sabemos a quién acudir. ¿Qué hacer? Jesús nos da prueba de ello en este V Domingo de Cuaresma. «Ahora mi alma está turbada. ¿Y qué diré? "¿Padre, líbrame de esta hora"? ¿Si precisamente he llegado a esta hora para enfrentarme con todo esto! Padre, ¡da gloria a tu Nombre! Entonces se oyó una voz que venía del cielo: "Lo he glorificado y lo volveré a glorificar"» (Juan 12, 27-28). ¿De qué forma damos gloria a Dios? ¿Cómo nos libramos de los momentos de soledad e incertidumbre? Es bueno tener un plan para afrontar con valentía como Jesús lo hizo en su tiempo. ¡Acudí a su Padre del cielo! Con su Muerte y Resurrección, Jesús afirma el Reino del amor. Llevando nuestra cruz diaria con dignidad, también afirmamos ese reino de unidad y paz que tanto necesitamos. ¡Que nadie Señor haga callar la victoria de tu Cruz, que es mi victoria!
