World Day of Prayer for Vocations

In our politically charged society, I imagine many have heard the quote, "It takes a village..." Whether or not one likes the politics of the author of that quote, in the words are truth. It takes many people to create and sustain a community.

For those of us who are Catholic, we believe in the power of vocations to help spread the Gospel message. And vocations are an important part of the community. The vocations to priesthood, or the diaconate, or religious life are at the center of our efforts to spread the good news. However, we need to also speak about the vocation of married life as service to the church; and furthermore, the vocation of single life. It is at our baptism that we are given the mandate to spread the Gospel through our vocation in the church.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will enter his house and dine with him, and he with me" (Rv 3:20).

We hear in Scripture that Jesus stands at the door of our heart and knocks. He only invites and never demands or breaks into our lives without our acceptance. He knocks, we open the door, and the invitation and welcome are complete.

Let us pray...

God of the invitation,

you knock upon the door of everyone's heart.

We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes.

We humbly ask you for your wisdom to serve your church with compassion and acceptance.

We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead.

Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your church.

Also give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the church in their secular lives.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord and brother, who live and reign with you and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

"How long has Jesus been knocking at the door of your heart, waiting to enter?"

-St. John Baptist de la Salle

Dear Parishioners,

On this Fourth Sunday of Easter, also known as Good Shepherd Sunday, we reflect upon the profound image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, diligently caring for his flock. St. John Paul II exemplified the qualities of the Good Shepherd in his life and ministry. Renowned televangelist Billy Graham aptly remarked that Pope John Paul II lived and died like his Master, the Good Shepherd.

In the Gospel, Jesus declares himself as the Good Shepherd, elucidating his profound love and care for his sheep. This Sunday is also designated as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations, emphasizing the importance of vocations to priestly and religious life.

In the readings, we are reminded of the responsibilities of shepherds, both spiritual and earthly. From parish priests to parents, teachers to government officials, each entrusted with the care of others is called to be a shepherd. This duty demands dedication, sacrifice, and vigilance, mirroring the love and protection of Christ, the ultimate Shepherd. Let us strive to emulate the Good Shepherd by loving, praying for, and nurturing those under our care. Parents, in particular, are urged to be role models, guiding their children through exemplary lives.

On this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let us fervently pray for an increase in holy and Spirit-filled shepherds to lead and protect our Catholic community. May we encourage and support young men discerning the call to serve as ordained ministers, recognizing the importance of their vocation in continuing the ministerial priesthood of Jesus Christ.

In Christ Our Shepherd,
Fr. JOHNBOSCO DURAISAMY
Pastor

Saint Anthony School Walk-a-Thon

Students will be participating in a Walk-a-thon on April 25. We will be raising money to help cover costs associated with Off Campus Field Trips to extend our learning outside of the classrooms. Pledge forms will be sent home in the Tuesday Folder.

Students will walk with their House Buddies during our regularly scheduled House Meeting time. Students should wear their House T-shirt, comfortable tennis shoes and school appropriate shorts (Check the Uniform Policy for any questions).

The virtue of charity requires us to speak, act, and think with love. Our photo collage represents our students volunteering at Help 4 Kids to help combat child hunger in Florence County; preschool students practicing mindfulness; and students participating in Court for the Cure with proceeds donated to breast cancer research.

BULLETIN DEADLINE

Please send blurbs to office@saintanthony.com before noon on the Wednesday ten days prior to the intended Sunday publication. Thank you.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Families of Service

What are Families of Service? Families of Service is a new opportunity for families to serve the parish. These families will spend 30 minutes before Sunday Mass greeting parishioners and handing out orders of worship. Your family will bring the gifts at the offertory. After Mass, the service family will hand out Bulletins, and neaten the pews. Typically, the family will be recognized by the Celebrant or the Deacon.

Ministers of Hospitality

What is a Minister of Hospitality? A Minister of Hospitality may greet people before Mass; assists parishioners with seating or concerns; take up the collection; assist the Family of Service, and other functions as trained or requested by the Church before, during, and after Mass.

We welcome all parishioners to this ministry. In addition, we give a special invitation to those who are in security, law enforcement, and the medical profession to join this ministry in this much needed vocation.

Kindly Contact Steve Strutkowski whose contact information is in the bulletin or contact Deacon Mike Woodall at the Church office with your intent.

There will be an introductory meeting scheduled to explain expectations and requirements of being a Minister of Hospitality.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIOReconozcamos y sigamos la voz del Buen Pastor

¿Quiénes son nuestros pastores hoy en día? ¿Qué voces escuchamos? ¿A quién seguimos o hacemos caso? En una parte de la sociedad tan materializada, que busca el poder personal olvidándose de los que lo rodean y envuelta en la tecnología tan avanzada, es casi imposible distinguir al buen Pastor. Ensimismada en sí misma y en sus caprichos egoístas se aleja fácilmente de la verdad y la justicia tan necesarias para el acercamiento al pastoreo de Jesús por medio de su Palabra. Sin embargo, si ponemos atención en medio de la vida cotidiana, nos daremos cuenta que sí existen pastores que arriesgan la vida por sus ovejas. Como ejemplo vivo, tenemos al Obispo de la Diócesis de Matagalpa, Nicaragua, Monseñor Rolando Álvarez condenado a 26 años de cárcel por decir la verdad y buscar la justicia para su comunidad. El Papa Francisco como nuestro máximo Pastor nos invita a ir hacia nosotros mismos

y reflexionar en lo siguiente: “Queridos hermanos y hermanas: en este tiempo, muchos pensamientos y preocupaciones nos llevan a volver y a adentrarnos en nosotros mismos. Prestemos atención a las voces que llegan a nuestros corazones. Preguntémonos de dónde vienen. Pidamos la gracia de reconocer y seguir la voz del buen Pastor, que nos saca del redil del egoísmo y nos guía hacia los pastos de la verdadera libertad (05-03-2020). En este domingo hagamos nuestras las palabras de Jesús y sigamos su ejemplo de guiar a los que amamos por el buen camino. “El buen Pastor da su vida por las ovejas” (Juan 10:11). ©LPi

“JESUS EL BUEN PASTOR”

¡Qué bonito y consolador es saber que Jesús nos conoce a cada uno, que no somos anónimos para Él, que nuestro nombre le es conocido! Para Él no somos “masa”, “multitud”, no. Somos personas únicas, cada uno con la propia historia, [y Él] nos conoce a cada uno con la propia historia, cada uno con el propio valor, tanto como criatura cuanto como redimido por Cristo. Cada uno de nosotros puede decir: ¡Jesús me conoce! Es verdad, es así: Él nos conoce como nadie más. Solo Él sabe qué hay en nuestro corazón, las intenciones, los sentimientos más escondidos. Jesús conoce nuestras fortalezas y nuestras debilidades, y está siempre preparado para cuidar de nosotros, para sanar las llagas de nuestros errores con la abundancia de su misericordia. (...) Por tanto, Jesús Buen Pastor defiende, conoce, y sobre todo ama a sus ovejas. Y por esto da la vida por ellas (cfr. Jn 10,15). (Regina Caeli, 25 de abril de 2021)

Oración del Buen Pastor

Querido señor,
Tú eres mi Pastor, un Buen Pastor, que guías por caminos que escapan a mi comprensión. Guíame por los caminos que quieres que vaya. Amén.
