Mission Sunday

"I have no other plan." S.D. Gordon shares a touching story about Jesus' ascension into heaven. After a grand welcome, the angel Gabriel asked Jesus, "Only a few in Palestine know about your great work of salvation through your suffering, death, and resurrection. What is your plan to ensure the whole world knows and becomes your disciples?" Jesus replied, "I have told my apostles to tell others about me and preach through their lives. That's all." Gabriel then asked, "What if they don't do that? What's your Plan B?" Jesus answered, "I have no other plan; I am counting on them."

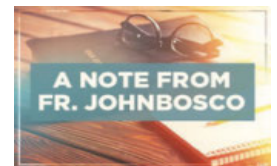

On this Mission Sunday, the Church reminds us that Jesus is counting on each one of us to make Him known, loved, and accepted by others. The most powerful way to do this is by living a truly Christian life – a life filled with love, mercy, kindness, compassion, and forgiveness.

Mahatma Gandhi once said, "My life is my message." He challenged Christian missionaries to practice the "apostolate of the rose." A rose doesn't preach, but its beauty and fragrance attract others. In the same way, our lives should draw others to Christ. The early Christians evangelized through the way they lived, prompting their Gentile neighbors to say, "See how these Christians love one another."

By living an exemplary Christian life, praying fervently, and offering financial support, we can spread Christ's message. Jesus said, "Without me, you can do nothing." Therefore, prayer is essential for anyone who wishes to embrace Jesus as Lord and Savior. Likewise, missionary efforts often require financial support because we can share God's love with the poor by providing for their basic needs.

As we celebrate Mission Sunday, let us remember our missionary obligation. We are called to lead lives of transparency, prayer, and service, and to support the Church's missionary activities with our prayers and generous donations. Let us answer Jesus' call, for He is counting on us.

May God bless you,
Fr. JohnBosco Duraisamy, Pastor

As we approach the 2024-2025 school year, I want to take a moment to express my heartfelt gratitude for your continued support of St. Anthony Catholic School. Your commitment makes a significant difference in our community and the education we provide to our students.

The school finance committee has prepared a financial summary from last year, along with a brief overview of the proposed budget for the upcoming year. We believe it's important to keep everyone informed about our financial health and planning as we strive to enhance our programs and resources.

Thank you once again for your ongoing support. Together, we are shaping a bright future for our students.

Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate seeks to ensure one holy hour a day is prayed for our priests. At St. Anthony, two teams of seven women make sure that every day of the week, a holy hour is prayed for Fr. John and Fr. Baloza. At this time, there are openings on Sunday. If you are interested, please contact Suzanna Linton at 843-496-5089 for more information.

CATHOLIC TRIVIA

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO"EL QUE QUIERA SER GRANDE"

Ciertamente que en el evangelio de hoy se pasaron de listos los discípulos Santiago y Juan. Ya que le pidieron a Jesús algo que causó enojo en el resto del grupo de los doce. Y no pedían poca cosa, nada más y nada menos que sentarse a la derecha de Jesús, cuando estuviera en su gloria. De hecho, no sabían lo que pedían, ni siquiera imaginaban que para ello se tiene que servir y trabajar duro en cuestión del discipulado. Sin embargo, hay que entenderlos desde un punto de vista muy humano, pretender grandezas y buenos puestos nos gusta a todos. Y más si no implica sacrificio alguno. Jesús deja muy claro lo que significa seguirlo y desear estar en primer lugar: "El que quiera ser el más importante entre ustedes, debe hacerse el servidor de todos. Y el que quiera ser el primero, se hará esclavo de todos" (Marcos 10: 43-44). Es decir, no oprimir a los demás como si fuesen sus dueños, no imponer sus ideas, ni sus condiciones de opresión. Para que quede más claro aún, la ley del Reino de Dios es el sufrimiento y el servicio a los que nos rodean. ¿Crees esto? ¿Te atreverías pedirle a Jesús sentarte a su lado sin hacer nada por los demás? Reflexiona en tu vida actualmente, no corras el riesgo de extraviarte en bagatelas por los caminos de la vida. Si escuchas los consejos de Jesús a sus discípulos de aquel entonces, verás que son los mismos para nosotros ahora. Servir y amar sin condiciones, dar la vida en el día a día con alegría, dejando el perfume de Cristo a nuestro paso.

¿QUE HAY EN ESTO PARA MI?

Hay situaciones en que nos preguntamos qué hay en ella para nosotros. No importa si se trata de una tarea de trabajo en particular, si alguien en la parroquia pide ayuda con la venta de pasteles del viaje misionero o si tu cónyuge te pregunta si te harás cargo de las compras de comestibles esta semana. Y el pensamiento que llega a nuestra mente es: "Si hago esto, ¿qué obtendré?".

A veces nos sorprende darnos cuenta de que los Apóstoles no eran diferentes. Tendemos a idolatrar a estos contemporáneos de Cristo como gigantes que caminaron con el Salvador. Pero en realidad, estos individuos eran simplemente seres humanos que luchaban por comprometerse con la tarea de la administración diaria.

En los Evangelios, vemos destellos de ellos anhelando elogios y afirmación. Los vemos compitiendo por posiciones de poder dentro del grupo de los doce. Los vemos esperar recompensas terrenales como honor y admiración. Los vemos actuar de manera muy similar a nosotros. Pero al final, los vemos transformados por la gracia de Dios. Como todos los santos, su santidad surge de su compromiso con su llamado. Ellos tropiezan y, mientras tropiezan, siguen confiando en Dios. Siguen recurriendo a Él. Siguen pidiendo ayuda. No se dan por vencidos solo porque siguen fracasando en su intento.

Nos define lo que damos cuando no tenemos esperanza de ser reembolsados, recompensados o reconocidos. Los apóstoles finalmente entendieron esto y dieron en consecuencia. La mayoría de ellos dieron su propia vida. Recuerden, ellos son como nosotros. Si ellos pueden hacerlo, nosotros también podemos.
