Dear Parishioners,

As we gather for worship this 30th Sunday of the year, we are reminded that the Synod on Synodality, now in its final session in Rome (October 2-27, 2024), continues to inspire the global Church. Pope Francis has called us to embrace a Church that is more inclusive, mission-oriented, and participatory. This is not about promoting personal agendas, but about listening deeply to the Holy Spirit as we discern how to cooperate more fully with each other as laypeople and clergy. Key discussions in the synod include how we can decentralize certain aspects of Church governance, increase lay involvement, and explore new roles for women in the Church. This mirrors the vision of our own parish community, as we strive to be a place where all are welcome to hear God's Word, grow in faith, and actively share the Good News with others.

The Gospel this week tells the story of Bartimaeus, the blind man whose sight Jesus restored. But more than just giving him physical sight, Jesus restored Bartimaeus' dignity, showing him that he was worthy of love and inclusion. In a way, this parallels our own call as a Church—to open our eyes, not only to our personal needs, but also to the needs of those who feel sidelined or overlooked in our communities. Just as Bartimaeus refused to be silenced when others tried to discourage him, we too must persevere in faith, trusting that Jesus is passing by, ready to heal and transform us into active participants in His mission. Let us not be passive bystanders in our faith journey but take the first step toward bringing new life and energy into our Church and the world.

I am deeply grateful for your ongoing commitment to evangelization here at St. Anthony Catholic Church. Your cooperation and support in making this parish a more welcoming place to celebrate the presence of God and His love, fills me with pride. As we continue to grow and strengthen our community, I'm excited to announce the possible establishment of a Facility Advisory Board to guide our future developments.

Our first meeting took place on September 5, 2024, with a wonderful turnout of parishioners eager to engage in open discussion. A key outcome of this meeting was the recommendation to conduct a parish-wide survey. On September 30, we held a follow-up meeting with volunteers, during which we reviewed the survey model. By October 21, the survey draft was finalized, and I'm happy to share that it will be available for the parish in early December in digital form and in print.

Now, we need your cooperation to make this initiative a success. The survey will help us understand the priorities of our community in terms of maintenance and future developments. Your participation is crucial in shaping the next steps for our parish's growth. Thank you for your dedication. Let us continue to walk together as a community, bearing fruit, and rejoicing in the Lord's love and guidance.

God bless you all!

La clase de CCD, CE1 y 2, aprendió la historia de las Bodas de Caná a través de un divertido e interactivo juego de mesa. Para recolectar seis jarras de agua de piedra, necesitaban responder preguntas y tener un poco de suerte al lanzar el dado. ¡Gracias, Sra. Krista y Srta. Allison, por compartir su tiempo y talento!

CATHOLIC TRIVIA

Last Week's Question: In Italy, where can you find the painting of the crucifixion that, according to tradition, spoke to Saint Thomas Aquinas?

Answer: The Church of San Domenico in Naples.

This Week's Question: What is the sleeveless outer garment that priests wear at Mass called?

Seven Sisters Apostolate

The Seven Sisters Apostolate seeks to ensure one holy hour a day is prayed for our priests. At St. Anthony, two teams of seven women make sure that every day of the week, a holy hour is prayed for Fr. John and Fr. Baloza. At this time, there are openings on Sunday. If you are interested, please contact Suzanna Linton at 843-496-5089 for more information.

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO

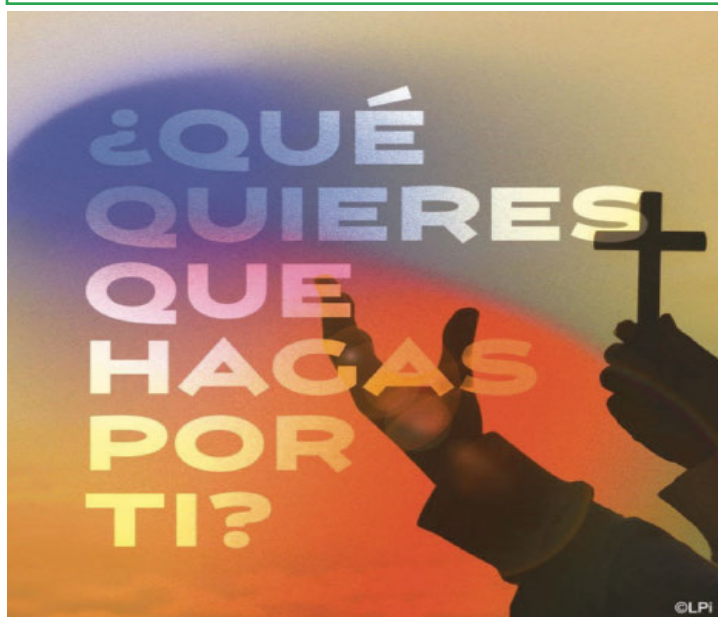

“HIJO DE DAVID, TEN COMPASION DE MI”

“Están todos, ciegos y cojos, mujeres en cinta y con hijos, y forman una multitud, que vuelve para acá. Partieron en medio de lágrimas, pero los hago regresar contentos; los voy a llevar a los arroyos por un camino plano para que nadie se caiga” (Jeremías 30:8-9). Qué bien nos conoce Dios a lo largo de los siglos, ya que se presentan las mismas situaciones en la humanidad. Ciegos, enfermos, ansiosos de poder personal, de aplastar al más débil y vulnerable. El mundo llora, el mundo sufre, familias sin patria, sin hogar, guerras sin sentido nos llevan a la destrucción total. Sin embargo, la respuesta de Dios es la misma: ¡Alégrese, yo estoy siempre con ustedes, en sus penas y alegrías!

Esto la sabía muy bien el ciego del camino de Jericó. Que animado por sí mismo, clamaba a Jesús con gritos de esperanza: “¡Hijo de David, ten compasión de mí! (Marcos 10:48). ¿Qué quieres que haga por ti?” (Marcos 10:50). Jesús también nos pregunta lo mismo a ti y a mí. Pidámosle que nos libre de la ceguera espiritual y de todas las cosas que nos atormentan. Es el perfecto momento de clamar a Él como el ciego Bartimeo. ¿Qué dices, lo harás? Hoy existe alguien que te llama para que no lo busques. Para que no asistas a la Eucaristía dominical. Para no cumplir los sacramentos y mandamientos. La fe salvó al ciego, y al instante pudo ver físicamente y siguió a Jesús por el camino, nos dice el Evangelio de hoy.

Su participación, ayuda
y servicio es muy
importante.

SIN USTEDES NO SERIA POSIBLE

DAR COMO LO HACE DIOS

Hazte esta pregunta: ¿qué pedirías en oración si realmente creyeras que Dios puede y haría cualquier cosa por ti? En mi experiencia, todos tenemos algo. Todos tenemos ese milagro que tememos pedir, tememos ser decepcionados.

¿Dudamos de la disposición de Dios a dar porque nosotros mismos tenemos una comprensión tan imperfecta de la caridad y el amor? Tal vez si tuviéramos más fe en Dios estaríamos más dispuestos a dar de nosotros mismos, y tal vez si estuviéramos más dispuestos a dar de nosotros mismos, entenderíamos más claramente los caminos de Dios.

Porque en realidad no tememos que Dios no pueda hacer algo. Sabemos que Él puede hacer cualquier cosa. Lo que tememos es que Él haga lo que siempre hace: darnos lo que necesitamos, no lo que queremos.

¿Alguna vez tuviste un amigo en necesidad y solo querías darle algo: una comida, una llamada telefónica, un mensaje de texto? No porque supieras que lo ayudaría, sino simplemente porque querías ayudar. ¿Y alguna vez te han dicho: “No fue tanto lo que diste, sino el hecho de que lo hiciste. Les diste lo que necesitaban, incluso si no era lo que pidieron específicamente”?

Cuando damos de esta manera, estamos dando como lo hace Dios. A veces tenemos miedo de pedir porque no queremos decepcionarnos. Pero recuerda, el ciego del camino recibió lo que pidió, pero habría obtenido lo que necesitaba incluso si su respuesta hubiera sido la contraria. La generosidad de Dios siempre es imprudente y siempre es perfecta.
