Seeing God in the Everyday – Praying the Examen

Dear Parishioners,

As we enter the 33rd Sunday of the liturgical year, we are reminded that we are nearing the end of the Church year—a time that invites us to reflect on Christ's second coming. We have experienced Him as a merciful Savior, but are we prepared to encounter Him as our Judge? How can we prepare ourselves to meet Him? One practical way to grow in our relationship with God is by learning to notice His presence in our daily lives. Father Mike Schmitz, in his short YouTube video, "How to See God in Everything, Every Day (and How to Respond)," emphasizes the importance of being attentive to God's presence. He suggests focusing on three key actions: Notice it, Note it, and Declare it.

Here are a few questions for reflection:

- How often do you think about God throughout the day?
- How frequently do you give credit to God for the blessings in your life?
- How often do you thank God?

One powerful practice that can help us cultivate a habit of recognizing God's presence is the Ignatian Examen, a simple but profound prayer exercise to review our day with gratitude and discernment.

How to Pray the Daily Examen:

1. Become Aware of God's Presence

o Begin with the Sign of the Cross, acknowledging that you are in the presence of your Creator. Slow your breathing, quiet your mind, and invite the Holy Spirit to be with you.

2. Review Your Day with Gratitude

o Reflect on your day from the moment you woke up. Notice anything you enjoyed or appreciated. Linger on these moments and express gratitude to God, no matter how small the blessings—whether it was a friendly greeting, a good meal, or the warmth of the sun.

3. Be Aware of Your Emotions

o As you review your day, pay attention to the emotions that arise. Strong reactions, whether positive or negative, might be God trying to speak to you. Consider how God may be prompting you to respond to these feelings.

4. Choose One Part of the Day and Pray into It

o Focus on a particular experience that stands out. Ask God what He wants you to learn from it. Is He calling you to take action? Perhaps to reach out to someone, practice patience, or simply grow in gratitude.

5. Look Forward to Tomorrow

o Think about the day ahead. If you anticipate challenges, ask God to guide you through them. If you've been moved to make a change or take a new step, pray for the strength to follow through. Conclude with a resolution if you feel led.

Finally, end your Examen with the Sign of the Cross, and perhaps the Our Father, entrusting your intentions to God.

This week, let us challenge ourselves to incorporate this prayer into our daily routine, noticing how God speaks to us in the ordinary moments. As we prepare for the end of the liturgical year, may we deepen our awareness of God's presence and align our hearts to His will.

God bless you in your journey of faith!

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO*“MIRAD, VELAD Y ORAD”

Estamos ya en el penúltimo domingo del año litúrgico y las lecturas nos narran temas escatológicos, es decir de los últimos tiempos. Dicho de otra manera, lo que ocurrirá cuando llegue el fin del mundo. Aunque estos temas a veces nos asustan y preocupan, el mensaje del Evangelio está lleno de esperanza. Porque el mal no prevalecerá sobre el bien. Cristo volverá glorioso a poner todo en orden y bajo sus pies: “Y verán venir al Hijo del Hombre en medio de las nubes con gran poder y gloria” (Marcos 13:26). Por ahora, debemos de hacer un plan de salvación, de buscar lo que nos acerque a Dios, lo que nos lleve a ser compasivos y misericordiosos, de orar más en familia, de protegernos y cuidarnos los unos a los otros. Ya basta de odios y malos tratos, de ansias de poder que acaban aparentemente con la buena semilla que hay en el mundo. Dios nos quiere libres y llenos de esperanza: “Les quiero dar paz y no desgracia y un porvenir lleno de esperanza. Cuando me invoquen y vengan a suplicarme, yo los escucharé; y cuando me busquen me encontrarán, siempre que me imploren con todo su corazón” (Jeremías 29:11-13). Hoy, también se nos pide que miremos al cielo, de donde vendrá el Hijo del Hombre el día indicado por Dios. No sabemos cuándo, pero mientras tanto, oremos sin cesar por la paz en nuestros hogares, en la sociedad y en el mundo.

PRESENTACION DE LA BIENAVENTURADA VIRGEN MARIA

Celebramos el 21 de noviembre junto con toda la Iglesia, la Presentación en el Templo de la niña Santa María. Es en una antigua y piadosa tradición que encontramos los orígenes de esta fiesta mariana que surge en el escrito apócrifo llamado "Protoevangelio de Santiago". Este relato cuenta que cuando la Virgen María era muy niña sus padres San Joaquín y Santa Ana la llevaron al templo de Jerusalén y allí la dejaron por un tiempo, junto con otro grupo de niñas, para ser instruida muy cuidadosamente respecto a la religión y a todos los deberes para con Dios. Históricamente, el inicio de esta celebración fue la dedicación de la Iglesia de Santa María la Nueva en Jerusalén en el año 543. Estas fiestas se vienen conmemorando en Oriente desde el siglo VI, inclusive el emperador Miguel Comeno cuenta sobre esto en una Constitución de 1166. Más adelante, en 1372, el canciller en la corte del Rey de Chipre, habiendo sido enviado a Aviñón, en calidad de embajador ante el Papa Gregorio XI, le contó la magnificencia con que en Grecia celebraban esta fiesta el 21 de noviembre. El Papa entonces la introdujo en Aviñón, y Sixto V la impuso a toda la Iglesia. www.aciprensa.com/
