Dear Parishioners,

This week marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week, a time to reflect on our collective responsibility to prepare the future generation to be strong in faith and well-informed about our Catholic tradition through the invaluable gift of Catholic education. Let us continue to support our schools as they form children in both knowledge and virtue, shaping them to be witnesses of Christ in the world.

In the liturgical year, we are now in Year C, focusing on the Gospel of Luke. Following Vatican II, the Church introduced a three-year cycle of Gospel readings: Year A for Matthew, Year B for Mark, and Year C for Luke. The Gospel of John is interwoven during specific liturgical seasons, such as Easter.

Each Gospel writer highlights a distinct aspect of the mystery of Christ:

- Matthew reveals the Christ of majesty, emphasizing His divine authority and kingship.
- Mark portrays the Christ of might, demonstrating His power and authority through miraculous acts.
- Luke emphasizes the Christ of mercy, highlighting His compassion for the poor, outcasts, foreigners, and women.

John presents the Christ of mystery, unveiling the eternal Word of God who reveals divine truth and life.

Today, we begin reading from Luke's Gospel. In his introduction (Luke 1:1–4), Luke addresses Theophilus, explaining that his account seeks to illuminate the Christian faith, focusing on God's love and mercy rather than punishment. This message is powerfully encapsulated in today's Gospel reading (Luke 4:18–19), where Jesus announces His mission, often referred to as His "Manifesto": "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."

With these words, Jesus declares a revolution of mercy and love—a call to serve the whole person, body and soul. As Christians, our mission mirrors His: to bring the Good News to every person, addressing not only spiritual needs but also physical and material ones.

Let us reflect on how we, inspired by Christ's example, can bring hope, healing, and freedom to those in need, living out the Gospel in both word and deed.

May this week inspire us to deepen our commitment to forming young minds and hearts, while also renewing our dedication to the mission of mercy and love that Jesus proclaimed.

May God bless you,
Fr. JohnBosco Duraisamy, Pastor

A Note from Fr. John Bosco

Here I am to let you know that I will be away from the Parish on my annual vacation for a month starting this week. I will return on February 28, 2025. During this time, I will be occupied with the ongoing project of building a Community Hall in my hometown parish—a mission close to my heart. As St. John Bosco beautifully said, "Vacation means change of occupation."

Please keep me in your prayers as I work on this important initiative.

In my absence, our beloved Parochial Vicar, Fr. Sylvere Baloza, will oversee parish responsibilities. Additionally, Fr. David Phan will be covering the Sunday Masses at 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM at St. Anthony Church for the next four Sundays. And on Saturday, vigil Masses will be covered by a visiting priest as available.

Thank you for your continued support and prayers. May the Lord bless you abundantly in all your endeavors this week.

In Christ,
Fr. Johnbosco Duraisamy, Pastor

Devotions, Explained!

Examination of Conscience, Explained!

In Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, the apostle writes that it is imperative for a Christian to reflect on his conscience before he partakes of Holy Eucharist:

"Let a man

examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup" (1 Corinthians 11:28). The practice of examining one's conscience before seeking the Sacrament of Reconciliation thus dates to the very beginning of the Christian faith and was encouraged as a regular practice by many saints and founders of religious orders as a means of growing in virtue. An examination of conscience, when it relates to the sacrament, simply means reflecting on one's actions (and particularly the intentions behind those actions) since the penitent's last absolution, making note of lapses in judgment that should be confessed. A good basis for this reflection can be the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes and the seven deadly sins.

MEDITACION DEL EVANGELIO“EL ESPÍRITU DEL SEÑOR ESTA SOBRE MI”

Tenemos tantas cosas atrayentes y entretenidas que nos distraen grandemente. La televisión, la computadora, y sobre todo nuestro teléfono; podemos pasar el día entero viendo y buscando cosas que no nos llevan a ningún lado. Cabe pues, que nos preguntemos lo siguiente: ¿Dónde ponemos nuestros ojos, nuestro pensamiento? Jesús, no tenía nada de estos instrumentos para anunciar el Reino de Dios. A Él se le entregó el rollo del Profeta Isaías, y leyó lo siguiente: “El Espíritu del Señor está sobre mí” (Lucas 4:18). Y ese mismo Espíritu de Dios está en nosotros, esperando que llegue un momento del día para estar juntos y mirarnos. Toda la sinagoga estaba atenta con los ojos clavados en él. Y les dijo: “Hoy se cumplen estas palabras proféticas y a ustedes les llegan noticias de ello” (Lucas 4:21). “Cristo es el autor y guía de toda actividad evangélica que está expuesta. También la profecía predice que después de él sus propios discípulos serán los ministros de esta tarea cuando dice: “¡Qué hermosos son los pies del mensajero cuando anuncia la paz!” (Isaías 52:7). Se refiere a los pies hermosos de los mensajeros de Cristo. ¿Cómo no iban a ser hermosos, si en breve tiempo iban a recorrer el mundo e iban a llenar cada rincón de la tierra con esa santa doctrina del Salvador?” (Eusebio de Cesarea (260-340 La Demostración evangélica). Recordemos siempre, que la Palabra de Dios es espíritu y vida.

¿Saben por qué van a una escuela católica? Permítanme darles un poco de información.

Sus padres y abuelos son quienes construyeron el sistema educativo de las escuelas católicas en su ciudad, estado y nación. Sus padres y abuelos vieron la importancia de una buena educación y vieron la conexión entre su fe en Dios y su Iglesia y la educación para ayudar a la comunidad en general a convertirse en algo más que un ciudadano promedio de la sociedad y creyente en Cristo.

La educación en una escuela católica es ahora más cara de lo que solía ser. En décadas anteriores, las hermanas y hermanos religiosos que trabajaban por casi nada formaban parte del personal de nuestras escuelas católicas. Dedicaban largas horas a asegurarse de que las enseñanzas de la Iglesia y la educación de la próxima generación fueran excelentes. Ahora nuestros maestros son en su mayoría mujeres y hombres laicos. Y merecen un salario digno y mantener a sus propias familias.

Al acercarse la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas, recordemos dónde estaban nuestras escuelas católicas y hacia dónde van.
