“Seek and you will find.” -Matthew 7:7

A Word of appreciation:

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all who attended the Lenten Mission led by Rev. Sr. Pamela Smith, SS.C.M., Ph.D. Your presence and participation made this spiritual journey meaningful. The Church continually reminds us that we are a pilgrim people, journeying together toward the heavenly Jerusalem. May the grace received during this mission strengthen us in our faith and deepen our commitment to Christ. Please prepare also for the Easter duty of going for a good confession. Lenten penance service is arranged to be held on the 8th of April 2025 at St. Anthony Church. Please make use of this opportunity.

A Call to Repentance and Fruitfulness

Once, in a village, heavy rains poured relentlessly for days, forcing the people to take shelter in a small community hall. As their food supply dwindled, fear took hold. They believed that God was punishing them for their sins. In desperation, they decided to identify the greatest sinner among them, believing that if this person was struck down by lightning, the rest would be spared. One by one, they stepped out into the storm to touch a tree and returned unharmed. The last man trembled with fear, convinced he was the guilty one. When he finally touched the tree, lightning struck—not him, but the community hall, claiming the lives of all inside.

Was this man the only holy one? Were all the others sinners?

This story challenges a common but mistaken belief: that suffering and misfortune are direct punishments for sin. Jesus reminds us in today's Gospel that disasters should not be occasions for judging others but calls to personal repentance: "Unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did" (Luke 13:5).

Like the barren fig tree in the parable, we are given extra time—not because we deserve it, but because of God's mercy. This time is a gift, a chance to bear fruit. When we see tragedies in the world—earthquakes, accidents, or personal hardships—we must recognize that we, too, are in need of conversion.

This Lent, let us thank God for the "gardeners" in our lives—those who intercede for us, guide us, and help us grow: parents, teachers, pastors, friends, and even those who challenge us with criticism. Above all, we are grateful to Jesus, the Divine Gardener, who nurtures us with grace and calls us to repentance.

May this holy season be a time of renewal, reflection, and fruitful transformation.

Lord, grant us the grace to turn back to You and bear the fruits of love, mercy, and holiness. Amen.

In Christ,

Fr. JohnBosco Duraisamy, Pastor

Devotions, Explained!

Anima Christi, Explained

The Anima Christi prayer takes its name from its opening lines: Soul of Christ — “Anima Christi” in Latin. In this prayer, the faithful invoke the image of Christ crucified, calling upon the salvific elements of his wounds, his Body and his Blood to strengthen them, imploring him to save them from “the malicious enemy” and to bring them, in their final hour, to his presence.

The author of this prayer is unknown, but it originated in the 14th century and was referenced in St. Ignatius’ Spiritual Exercises. It is traditionally said after or before receiving the Eucharist.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Why do we continue to climb that hill day after day for water, when we have been given everlasting water by the One who came to reconcile us to the Father? Those seeking to be cleansed in baptismal waters at Easter go through Scrutinies "to uncover, then heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect; to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good" (RCIA 141). The story of the woman at the well speaks to all of us of everlasting water that heals us and gives us strength for the journey. There are those among us who long for this, but we who have been marked for Christ a long time ago already possess it. But too often we continue to climb high hills looking for something else to satisfy us. The Samaritan woman leaves behind her container at the well when she leaves, for there is no reason for her ever to return. You and I have left our vessels at the well also. Stop climbing that hill. Today, as you listen to the words of the Scrutiny prayers and ritual, let us be resolved to drink again from that everlasting water God has given to us.

MEDITACION DEL EVANGELIO

En los desastres naturales, donde se pierden vidas humanas y algunos quedan vivos, nos sorprendemos y quizá pensamos, ¿Por qué estos se salvaron y los otros no? ¿Eran acaso mejores que los otros? ¿Fue un castigo para los que perdieron la vida? Sin embargo, sabemos que no es así. Nos quedamos como al principio, no hay respuesta. El Evangelio de hoy tiene momentos de reflexión profunda que implica que el corazón se convierta. Y la Palabra de Dios ayuda a madurar interiormente. La conversión es un proceso de madurar poco a poco en la fe, para enseguida dar frutos.

“La Cuaresma viene a despertarnos del letargo, de seguir adelante por inercia. Nos recuerda que podemos realizar algo nuevo en nosotros y en nuestro alrededor gracias a la bondad y misericordia de Dios, que siempre está dispuesto a perdonar” (Papa Francisco). Dios sigue esperando a que demos frutos buenos. Siempre nos tiene paciencia, una y otra vez nos espera. Cada año decide no cortar sino abonar y poner tierra nueva, y esperar. “Señor déjala un año más y mientras tanto cavaré alrededor y le haré abono. Puede ser que así de fruto en adelante y, si no, la cortas” (Lucas 13:8-9). Una nueva oportunidad para llevar a cabo lo que a Dios le gusta. Hacer justicia, hablar por los sin voz, dar tiempo de calidad a la familia y sobre todo ser menos irresponsables y menos violentos. Esas actitudes no nos llevan a ningún lado. ¡Dejemos que Dios nos abone en lo que necesitamos!

TERCERA SEMANA DE CUARESMA

— By Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS —

Quizás esta Cuaresma te estés esforzando por mantener tus devocionales, evitar las hamburguesas los viernes y combatir la tentación de los refrescos, ya que los dejaste por Jesús. Estás plantando semillas en tu vida espiritual con la esperanza de que se conviertan en algo hermoso y significativo. Sin embargo, llevas muchos años probando este enfoque, y es difícil decir que haya crecido mucho durante todo ese tiempo. Podrías deducir que lo que haces no vale la pena como creías. No hay fruto porque estas cosas no importan. O podrías analizar tu vida con detenimiento, ver dónde estás plantando esas semillas y finalmente darte cuenta de cuál ha sido el problema desde siempre: ¡MALEZA! Con demasiada frecuencia, plantamos semillas una y otra vez en un suelo pobre en nutrientes y lleno de maleza. La maleza ahoga cualquier crecimiento que pueda surgir de las semillas plantadas. Pensamos que añadir cosas buenas a nuestra vida la cambiará, y que no será necesario eliminar el pecado. Es como comer dos hamburguesas grandes y unas papas fritas grandes y creer que no subirás de peso por haberte tomado una Coca-Cola Light. Como buenos administradores, llamados a discernir cómo respondemos al llamado de Jesucristo, debemos dedicarnos a arrancar la maleza de nuestras vidas para que las buenas semillas que sembramos puedan crecer. Para cada uno de nosotros, la maleza es diferente: dinero, ego, sexo, avaricia, etc. Si no analizamos honestamente nuestras vidas y tomamos decisiones difíciles, ninguna devoción ni buenas obras nos hará mejores discípulos. Simplemente esperaremos a la próxima Cuaresma para repetir lo mismo.
