My Dear Parishioners,

The Vocation Ministry at Mary Queen met last Monday to discuss and explore ways to reach out to all parishioners especially our young people to accompany them in their journey of life in discerning God's will. This ministry will help foster an environment that will encourage and advocate for all Catholic Vocations through, prayer, promotion, and support. The purpose of the Vocation Ministry is to use our love and understanding of our Catholic faith to inspire and nurture every parishioner to respond to God's call to their vocations as married, single, or to their call to priesthood, diaconate and religious life.

What are our goals and objectives? We desire to develop a culture in our parish where people are assessing what God wants them to do with their life. Help our parish families raise Catholic children so that the groundwork can be laid for vocations to marriage, priesthood, and consecrated life. Encourage parishioners to make praying for vocations a part of their daily prayer life.

What is a "vocation"? The word 'vocation' is derived from the Latin word 'vocare' which means a calling or summoning. A vocation is God's invitation to love and serve him and his Church in a particular state or way of life, leading to holiness. The Church recognizes the vocations of married, religious, and priestly life. National Vocation awareness week is celebrated November 3-9, 2024. This National Vocation Awareness Week (NVAW) is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to ordained ministry and consecrated life through prayer, invitation, and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering these vocations.

Across the country, and in our own archdiocese and at the La Salette Community in North America, large numbers of priests are reaching retirement age. With low seminary numbers, we are far below the replacement level needed. As Catholics, we believe the Lord has never stopped calling men and women to work in his vineyard. That same calling is still there, but are we listening? The future of our Church depends on the presence of a holy priesthood. Please join with us to foster vocations through families that live their faith daily, through daily prayer on the part of all parishioners, and by nurturing vocations in our youth and young adults.

Things that we, at Mary Queen have already begun to do to encourage vocations:

We pray a Vocation Prayer as a community at the end of weekend and daily Masses. We have started a "Traveling Chalice" where a family takes the chalice home to pray for vocations for a week. "Andrew dinner" hosted once at Mary Queen for the Southern Deanery organized by the Archdiocesan Vocation's Office. One hour set aside to pray for vocations during the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

At our meeting we have agreed to invite anyone interested to join the vocation committee. Please consider this as an invitation to encourage and promote vocations to where God is calling us to.

Fr. Thomas Vellappallil, MS

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

All Our Strength

I didn't realize how much my arms would hurt when I became a mom.

It occurred to me first during Mass when my daughter was just a few weeks old. She was the kind of kid who could only sleep in someone's arms. I desperately wanted her to stay quiet during the service, so I held the swaddled bundle in front of me like it was a bomb, not daring to move. By the homily, my arms were on fire.

I quickly realized this was a common scenario of my new life as a parent. Holding, rocking, bouncing, restraining, dragging — honestly, my weak little chicken-arms had never been worked out like this before. It took all my strength.

But isn't that the way it is with everything that's worthwhile? It takes all your strength. Not some of it. Not most of it. All of it.

I am a fairly active Catholic. My faith impacts a lot of areas of my life. But there are still boundaries that I've drawn around God. There are places I haven't let Him in. Things I keep "for myself." Experiences that are just so full of me, so full of my own plans and my own desires.

But God desires everything. Not because He is selfish, but because He is good, and wise. Because He knows that the places we keep from Him will become filled with something else. He wants to get there first. He wants to lay His claim.

He wants all our strength. All our heart. All our soul. All our mind. Not most of it. All of it.

Can we give it to Him?

Americans have long been fascinated with public debates. Farmers stood in muddy fields for hours to hear Lincoln and Douglas dispute each other in the 1860 presidential run-up. The televised debate between Kennedy and Nixon in 1960 fascinated the nation. These days, cable news outlets and social media parse every word spoken by candidates. We still love seeing public, rational disputes in the service of our nation.

In his day, Jesus also captured attention as a public debater. Mark tells us, "And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, 'Which commandment is the first of all?'" Jesus' brief but all-encompassing response is the double command to love God and neighbor. Notice that he includes the importance of loving God with "all your mind." Loving God is not simply a question of affection, loyalty, good deeds, and religious dedication. It demands honest and intense intellectual engagement — just like an accomplished debater.

How do we do this practically? One simple way is by embracing ourselves as life-long learners. Setting aside time for reading, book studies, online classes, and, perhaps most difficult, engaging in open, honest, and curious conversation with those who think differently from us. These are all great ways to love God with our minds. Our country and our Church depend greatly on souls who love God in this way with their minds. Let's commit to loving God with all our minds in tireless pursuit of truth.

— Father John Muir

AROUND THE PARISH

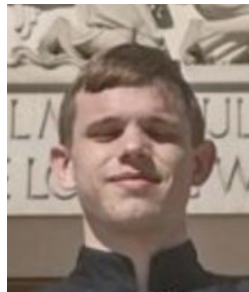

Vocation Awareness Week

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated November 3-9, 2024, is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

We are blessed to have three members of our congregation in formation and ask that you continue to pray for them as well as all of those in formation.

Braden Decuir, son of Brian and Erin Decuir. After graduating high school, he earned his undergraduate degree in Theology at The University of Dallas. He was drawn to the Dominicans by witnessing the joy of the brothers and how they sought after truth through study and prayer and entered the southern province of the Dominican Order in July 2024.

Harrison Otto, son of Charlene and Greg Otto, entered the Byzantine Catholic Seminary in Pittsburg in August. He is beginning his first year of aspirancy in Pittsburg while also completing his Masters in Theology from the University of St. Thomas in Houston.

Br. Francis Marie, OP, son of Geri Mills, is a Dominican Friar of the Province of St. Joseph. The Dominicans—the Order of Preachers—were founded in 1216 in Southern France by St. Dominic. St. Dominic founded the friars to preach the truth of the Catholic faith in places that were struggling with many errors. Br. Francis has been in formation for the priesthood for two years and studies in Washington, DC.

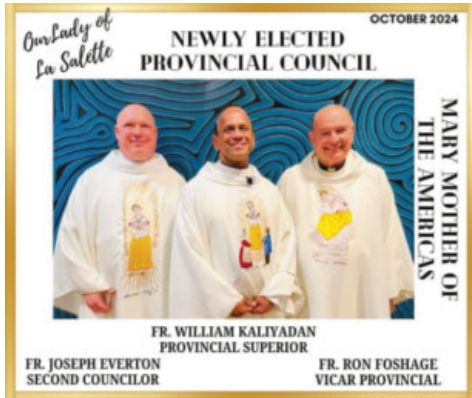

All Souls Memorial Display

Our parish will have an All Souls Memorial Display in the church during the month of November. It will be in the alcove to the left of the main aisle. Beginning October 26th, please bring a picture of any deceased family member who you would like to be remembered and place it on the Memorial table. The picture should be in a frame and no larger than 8X10.

TRUNK OR TREAT THANK YOU!

A BIG thank you to all the parishioners who donated trunks for the Trunk or Treat! You all did a marvelous job decorating your trunks. The evening was a huge success, and the kiddos had a great time. Another BIG thank you to the Women's Ministry for donating the snow cone truck for the event. The kiddos loved the treat! Finally, a BIG thank you to everyone who donated candy for the night. It was enjoyed by many.

Every three years, the Missionaries of La Salette in North America hold our Chapter meetings to elect the new Provincial Superior and two Councilors and to set directions for the future of the province. We are known as the Province of Mary, Mother of the Americas. Currently, there are about 80 members in our Province. The Chapter meetings were held at the Renaissance hotel in Orlando, Florida from October 21-25, 2024. During this occasion, Very Rev. Fr. William Kaliyadan, MS was re-elected Provincial Superior, Fr. Ron Foshage, MS was elected Vicar Provincial and Fr. Joe Everton, MS as Councilor. Let us congratulate them and offer our prayers and support as they lead the Province of Mary, Mother of the Americas Province for the next three years.

Women's ACTS Retreat

The Mary Queen Women's ACTS Ministry held another retreat at the CRC Retreat Center in Dickinson. There were 26 retreatants and 37 team members that participated. They were all welcomed back at the 11:30 Mass with lunch served afterwards. Please continue to pray for these women.

The Mary Queen Creation Care Ministry is recycling old Christmas lights during the months of November through January. If you have old lights that no longer work please consider recycling them instead of throwing them out in the trash.

Please look for the collection bin in the Parish Hall near the Food Pantry box.

Family of the Month

The Stuart Family has been involved in Mary Queen for a little over 14 years. Their 3 children, Carly, Brady and Hanna all received both First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion and Confirmation at Mary Queen. They also have two dogs, Peru and Toretto, who they consider family as well!

Mike & Carol moved here from New England. Carol is from Massachusetts and Mike is from New Hampshire. Both have enjoyed living in Friendswood near extended family, and not shoveling snow!

Mike has been in the financial industry his entire career and currently works in Houston. Carol is employed right here at Mary Queen as Director of Elementary Faith Formation.

Their family has assisted in many aspects of Mary Queen, including Pastoral Council, Lector, EMHC, Food Pantry, Youth Faith Formation, ACTS, and Elementary Faith Formation. In their leisure time they enjoy being with family, travelling and reading.

Both Brady and Hanna are completing their bachelor's degree in North Carolina, and Carly is back in Friendswood beginning her master's degree. Carly volunteers in both Elementary and Youth Faith Formation at Mary Queen.

Mike and Carol are celebrating their 25th anniversary and believe becoming a part of Mary Queen has increased their faith infinitely. They encourage all to reach out to assist others. "Instead of each person watching out for their own good, watch out for what is better for others." – Philippians 2:4

As St. John of the Cross states, "In the twilight of life, God will not judge us on our earthly possessions and human successes, but on how well we have loved."

Provide the name to Loretta Delaney at reception@maryqueenchurch.org. Names will be added to the list for 60 days. Once the initial time is up, we kindly ask that you not renew your request for another 60 days. Due to the overwhelming amount of requests, we will abide by this policy in order to accommodate all new prayer requests.

Faithful Departed

Question:

How can we pray for the dead throughout the year?

Answer:

We commemorate the faithful departed on November 2nd each year. However, we can and should continue to pray for the dead. Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. But God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. It's the antechamber of heaven, so to speak. We know we're getting in the house, but we're not quite ready to go all the way in. There's rain to shake off our coats and dirt that's clogging our shoes.

Here on earth, we can pray for the souls in Purgatory. One way is to request that your parish offer a Mass for the intention of a specific loved one. We can also remember the departed in our daily prayers. Just as we have special intentions for family and friends here on earth, we can pray for those who have died. It's also a good act of Christian charity to pray for the forgotten, those who have no one else to pray for them. God knows who they are!

Everyday Stewardship

The Daily Examen of Stewardship

"Stewardship" can get a bum rap these days. When folks hear the term "stewardship" from the pulpit, their eyes tend to kind of glaze over.

"Here's Father asking for more money," they groan inwardly, "Get ready for the passing of the pledge cards."

Christ refutes this idea when he gives us what he calls the greatest commandments — instructing us to love God and to love our neighbor. Now, Christ is a man who chose his words carefully. He meant exactly what he said — and he didn't say that the greatest commandments were to tithe and to give money to charity. If he had wanted stewardship to be only about money, he would have said so.

Sometimes we are indeed called to show our love for God and neighbor in the form of a financial gift. But the concept of Everyday Stewardship — living mindfully in prayer, grateful for our blessings, and gracious to our neighbors, committed to God, and accountable to each other — is about so much more.

I propose a twist on the long-held practice of the "Daily Examen" — a pious devotion wherein, at day's end, we go over the events of the last 24 hours and discern God's will. A Daily Examen of Stewardship might contain questions like this:

How did I love God today? In whom did I love Him? What did God give me today? With whom did I share it? What did I give to Him?

To whom did I reach out today? Who reached out to me? Where was God on my list of priorities today? First? Second? Third, fourth?
