FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

Warm Greetings from Incredible India!

I was invited to a wedding by a beautiful Sri Lankan couple, Minuri and Linal, who I prepared in Mary Queen for their wedding in Sri Lanka. Since it was on my way home to India, I spent three days in Columbo, where I enjoyed the wonderful hospitality and welcome by their Family. I was so blessed to be part of their wedding ceremony on the 28th of December after which I took a one-hour flight home in Kerala, India.

Just thought you might love to hear some vacation news from me by way of introducing my family. We are a beautiful Catholic family closely knit and with deep faith and special devotion to the Blessed Mother. There is not a single day we would skip praying together as family for almost an hour before supper, which always included praying the rosary. Arrived at home on the 30th of December. Seeing my 93-year-old mother sitting on the front porch in a wheelchair waiting for my arrival was the most touching moment as we hugged each other with tears of joy. Although she is homebound, she is fully alert and so we spent the next few days recalling lots of old stories of nine of us siblings growing up together in a small house. It is a custom for the youngest son and his family to take care of the parents as they inherit the parent's home. We don't send our parents to nursing homes. Anytime I am away from my family I always call my mother every day without fail. Since my father passed away over 12 years ago, my mother has been our driving force and inspiration. Usually, family celebrations like Baptisms, First Holy Communion and Weddings are scheduled around my vacation time. I never get a vacation even during my vacation!

We are nine siblings, 6 of us brothers and 3 sisters. We lost our second elder brother more than a year ago. I have 18 nephews and nieces and numerous grand nephews and nieces. Most of them live abroad like England, Canada, Denmark and Abu Dhabi. We had a series of family gatherings since my arrival. We had a beautiful gathering on New Year's Eve with lots of traditional Indian food, fireworks and fun.

We celebrated my mother's 93rd birthday on the 16th of January. My mother was so thrilled to see about 100 of her family members and them singing happy birthday to her. She looks forward to that every year.

We will be having a big family reunion this weekend. When my dad was still living, through his initiative and leadership, we organized our first family gathering which was attended by more than 350 people. At that we had published a family history book with pictures of each family. A revised and updated family history will be published and distributed to each family during this occasion. We are expecting at least 300 family members to participate. It is a full day affair and usually begins with a celebration of Mass, followed by a sumptuous meal and lots of fun activities especially for the young.

Life is a cycle of saying hellos and goodbyes. The saddest moment would be when I must say goodbye to my mother and leave home after the vacation. I cherish every moment I can be with my family. Warm regards from my family to all of you and I can't wait to return to my Mary Queen family and to much cooler weather by next week. See you soon. Blessings!

Do Whatever He Tells You

Mini Reflection: Sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own. What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own.

Do Whatever He Tells You

I once ran out of pizza at my kid's birthday party.

Everyone told me it wasn't a big deal but come on. It was a disaster. I had invited all these people over. They showed up with presents and sang "Happy Birthday" and stood around patiently while my kid ripped through his cache of gifts. The very least they were expecting was to be fed sufficiently.

I'll tell you what, I sure could have used the Blessed Mother that night.

I love the story of the wedding at Cana because it's such a silly little miracle. I don't mean to be disrespectful — of course it's an incredibly important moment in Christ's public life. But it's not healing a leper. It's not raising the dead. It's not even walking on water. It's saving a young couple from embarrassment.

I think sometimes we forget, or even refuse, to bring small concerns and inconveniences to God because we think we should be able to handle them on our own. What a ridiculous attitude that is — as if we could handle anything on our own. It's so fitting that Mary, ever the observant Mother, is the one to bring the matter to Jesus' attention. He asks her what this problem has to do with him. She doesn't answer him, because, between you and me, I don't think he's asking her. I think he's asking us. All she does is tell the waiters what I consider to be the best piece of advice in all of Scripture: "Do whatever he tells you."

I'm so quick to throw up my hands and feel sorry for myself when I encounter a barrier in my life. What I should be doing is taking the matter to God, and then doing whatever He tells me.

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

John 2:1-12

A friend invited me to an invitation-only wine-tasting event. There were over two hundred varieties of wine. Having no idea how to approach such a massive selection, I wandered aimlessly among the tables, sipping this and that. At the end of the evening my friend asked if I had tried some of the exceptionally expensive wines. I hadn't. "The really good stuff disappears first," he said. "My man, you missed out on some amazing vino." I was so disappointed. I wasted my chance for amazing once-in-a-lifetime wine. The wine I tasted was, well, blah.

Don't we often feel a similar disappointment in life? I missed this or that opportunity. If only I had known. Optimism sputters and fades. The glory days are gone. The chances, it seems, for the really great things in life come and go so quickly. Then they are gone forever. The good stuff goes first. Then life is just blah.

Not so with the Lord Jesus. In Jesus' miracle at the wedding at Cana, the steward of the feast says, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then...an inferior one" (John 2:10). That's the natural downward progression of life. The good stuff disappears quickly. But he says of the groom (who symbolizes Jesus), "But you have kept the good wine until now." This is the ever-improving trajectory of the realm of God's grace. With Jesus, the "good wine" of divine love, hope and peace gets better as our journey of faith progresses. Where are your greatest disappointments? Don't give in to the lie that the really good stuff is gone. Tell Jesus you've run out. Then learn how to taste that amazingly good wine, because he saves the best until now.

— Father John Muir

The National Eucharistic Congress was a powerful moment of encounter for the Church in the US as we rediscovered the heart of our faith – the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Here at Mary Queen along with the Eucharistic Congress Pilgrims, we are continuing to tap into that spirit of encounter by inviting our parishioners to join us for a Parish-wide Eucharistic Consecration on the Feast of Presentation of the Lord during all the weekend Masses on February 1 & 2 culminating with the 'Vatican International Exhibition - Eucharistic Miracles of the World' – prayerfully gathered by Blessed Carlos Acutis.

As the inaugural event for the 'Jubilee 2025 – Pilgrims of Hope' and in thanksgiving for the vocation of the priesthood, Mary Queen Parish is excited to host the Vatican International Exhibition of Eucharistic Miracles.

Originally assembled by Blessed Carlo Acutis, this extensive collection of photos and historical records of ancient and modern Eucharistic miracles will be on display February 1 & 2 in the St. Charbel Youth Center for a self-guided tour. All verified and approved by the Catholic Church, this is an amazing opportunity to delve deeper into your faith and witness the Real Presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist.

The exhibit will be open on Saturday, February 1 from 9:30 am – 7:30 pm and on Sunday, February 2 from 8:30 am – 6:30 pm.

Would you like to volunteer with the exhibition?

In order to provide this exhibition, we are in need of volunteers to assist during set-up, exhibition hours, and clean-up. Volunteering hours include:

Set-up: Friday, January 31

Exhibition Hours :

Saturday, February 1 | 9:30 am to 7:30 pm

Sunday, February 2 | 8:30 am to 6:30 pm

Clean-up: Sunday, February 2 & Monday, February 3

Did you get a chance to pick up the book "33 Days to Eucharistic Glory" by Matthew Kelly after one of the Christmas Masses in Mary Queen? Are you interested in digging deeper into the beautiful Divine Glory of the Eucharist? We have two opportunities for you!

Read the book on your own and watch Fr. Jonathan Meyer reflection videos for each day- 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory Invite ~ Fr. Jonathan Meyer - YouTube

Join us for a Parish-wide Eucharistic Consecration preparation small group sessions once in a week for four consecutive weeks beginning on the week of January 6th. This will be an opportunity to join with fellow Mary Queen parishioners to review your progress, share life-changing experiences, reflect on the weekly study guide questions and encourage one another to continue the journey toward consecration to Jesus in the Eucharist.

If you are interested in being a part of a small group, please see below the schedule for the weekly sessions:

Monday Evenings on January 6, 13, 20 & 27 – Couples Group - 6:30 pm – 8:00 pm at Mary's House.

Tuesday Afternoons on January 7, 14, 21 & 28 – Women's Group - 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm at Mary's House.

Wednesday Mornings on January 8, 15, 22 & 29 – Men's Group - 6:00 am – 7:00 am in Main Hall.

Wednesday Evenings on January 8, 15, 22 & 29 – Young Adults Group - 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm at Mary's House.

Thursday Mornings on January 9, 16, 23 & 30 – Group for both Men & Women – 9:30 am – 11:00 am at Mary's House.

Friday Mornings on January 10, 17, 24 & 31 - Group for both Men & Women – 10:00 am – 11:30 am at Mary's House.

Our facilitator will be Karen May - author, speaker and spiritual director with Amazing Graces.

Karen May is a dynamic and inspirational author, speaker, and spiritual director who believes that powerful, transformational faith doesn't have to be complicated. Helping people to discover the profound truths of God in a way that is simple, inviting, and filled with joy is a gift that she shares in her writing and speaking.

Karen has been featured in two Pray More Healing retreats, the Jen Fulwiler Show, EWTN, Relevant Radio, and more. She is the author of Be Not Afraid: Living with Faith in the Midst of a Fearful World, Walking Through Holy Week, and Draw Near. Karen and her husband Mike enjoy cooking, traveling, hiking, and spending time with their daughters and son-in-law. You can find her at www.AmazingGraces.com.

Karen's mission is to share her passion for the Catholic faith, unveil the beauty of God's love, and empower you to live a life filled with purpose and joy.

We would like to extend an invitation to you to join us on this journey.

Join us for an exciting two-day celebration filled with faith, fun and community Saturday and Sunday, May 3 & 4, 2025. The festival weekend kicks off on Saturday night with an elegant Gala featuring fine dining, an inspiring speaker and entertainment. Sunday includes a fun-filled Family Festival with games, food, entertainment and more.

If you would like to help with the festival, There will be a Festival Planning meeting on Wednesday, January 22 at 7:15 PM in the Mini Hall.

Mary's Chain of Love - Crochet & Craft Ministry

With the busy time of Advent & Christmas, the Mary's Chain of Love celebrated their get together after the holidays. This group specializes in prayer shawls for those in need of comfort as well as baby items for the Gabriel Project.

La Salette Laity

We are a La Salette parish staffed by the La Salette Missionaries. What does that mean? What's the story of the Apparition of Our Lady of La Salette? Does it apply to me, my family, my parish?

January 2025 is the perfect time to find the answers to those questions. You are invited to join one of the already formed La Salette Laity groups or you can form your own group. One group meets on the 1st Wednesday of the month at 2:00 PM starting on February 5.

The La Salette Laity Supper Club meets on the 2nd Friday of the month at 6:30 PM starting with a pot-luck style dinner followed by book study & conversation. The Supper Club will meet starting on Friday, February 14th.

If those times do not work for you, you can start your own group! All materials are provided. For more information or if you have questions please contact Chris Austgen at chrisaustgen@maryqueenchurch.org or 281-482-1391

Family of the Month

Nguyen Family

Vu was born and raised in Saigon, Vietnam; he came to United States when he was 19 years old and lived in California for a few years and moved to Texas. Miriam was born and raised in Mexico City, Mexico; she moved to United States when she was 13 and had lived in Houston since then. Destiny brought them together many years later, and this coming February they will celebrate their 20 years of marriage.

Vu works as a petroleum inspector and is a small real estate investor. Within his busy schedule he finds the time to lead the family into prayer and preaches the word of God to family and co-workers.

Miriam works as a hairstylist and has served in various ministries over the years, teaching teens in CAST, Children Liturgy of the Word, Vacation Bible Study in the summer, RCIA, and sound tech at youth Mass, but her favorite thing to do has been teaching CCE to first graders this year.

They have four children: Jack, Sinh, Angel and Angelle.

Jack did all his sacraments at the Vietnamese Martyr Catholic church and has been active duty in United States Air Force for over 10 years. He is married and has 2 children.

Sinh converted to Catholicism and received all his sacraments at Mary Queen after going through the Alpha program, RCIA, Life Teen and The Deep. He served as an usher and volunteered in many Mary Queen community events. Currently, he is living in Vietnam and has been active at the local church there.

Angel has served Mary Queen since he was in 5th grade. He was an altar server, Youth Choir drummer, Youth Council social leader, RCIA support team and volunteered in many community events throughout the years. He is working full-time in Hilton Las Americas Hotel in downtown Houston and is a Senior at Alvin Community College and will be graduating this summer with an Associate Degree in Applied Science (Culinary Arts). He continues to serve around the parish on his days off.

Angelle will be graduating High School with an associate's degree in general arts from Alvin Community College. She has been an altar server since she was in 4th grade, is a Youth Choir member and cantor, was in the RCIA support team, is part of Youth Council Marketing, is a teacher aide for first grade CCE and has volunteered in many Mary Queen community events. She will continue to serve the parish while she pursues her career in forensic science, specifically to be a forensic photographer at Alvin Community College.

Serving our parish and preaching by example has led the Nguyen family closer to God and our community.

Creation Care Ministry

BATTERY RECYCLING

Let's Recycle Now!

During the Month of February, the Creation Care Ministry will be accepting batteries for recycling. The only restriction is that the batteries should not be leaking in any way. Recepticals will be placed in the Main Hall.

Lord Jesus, who went about doing good and healing all, we ask you to bless our friends who are sick. Give them strength in body, courage in spirit and patience with pain. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

We offer the Vigil Candle as a Memorial Candle each week to interested parishioners who would like to request that it burn “In Memory of...” or “In Honor of...” a loved one, living or deceased. To reserve the candle, contact the Receptionist in the Parish Office at 281-482-1391. The name of your loved one will be published in the bulletin and near the Sanctuary Candle in the Church.

Prayer List Requests

If you have a family member or friend who needs special prayers by our parish community, please consider placing them on the Mary Queen Prayer List after getting their permission. Provide the name to Loretta Delaney at reception@maryqueenchurch.org. Names will be added to the list for 60 days. Once the initial time is up, we kindly ask that you not renew your request for another 60 days. Due to the overwhelming amount of requests, we will abide by this policy in order to accommodate all new prayer requests.

Holy Days

Question:

Why do some dioceses move holy days, or not even celebrate them at all. Doesn't everyone do the same thing?

Answer:

The short answer is no, not everyone does the same thing. Although the church is universal, there are many local customs and saints that each country, sometimes just a region, will honor. For example, feast days and patronal days may not be major feast days on the church's universal calendar, but are celebrated as such in one place. Holy days of obligation are the same way. The US Conference of Catholic Bishops has a certain amount of discretion in choosing days which best reflect the local church's experience and history.

Another reason certain feasts are moved is a practical one. With limited clergy, or a great difficulty for people to get to Mass, the feast day may be transferred to a Sunday. The rationale is that if a significant feast should be part of the church's celebration, then better to do so on a Sunday when people and clergy are available, rather than try to fit it on a day when one or both cannot be there.

Christmas and Immaculate Conception are always observed as days of obligation. In the USA we celebrate six holy days of obligation. There are also other special days and they are ranked, in order of importance as solemnity, feast, memorial and optional memorial.

Everyday Stewardship

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today?

There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.
