FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

On the first Sunday of Lent, March 9th at 7pm, Mary Queen hosted again this year the Archdiocesan Rite of Election and the Call of Continuing Conversion. It was presided by His Excellency Bishop Italo Del Oro. There were more than 1600 people that came from 29 parishes that included the catechumens, candidates, godparents, and sponsors along with some of their family members. In the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, I am told that during the Easter Vigil Masses on April 19, 2025, approximately 3,000 catechumens will be newly initiated into the Catholic Church and 750 candidates will enter full communion.

There are 21 catechumens who celebrated the Rite of Election from Mary Queen parish. Of the 21 Elect, 3 are children, 8 are youth and 10 are adults. This rite officially admitted them to the order of Elect to receive the Easter Sacraments. They are no longer catechumens but God's Elect to become Catholics on Easter Vigil. Along with these 21 Elect, there were 21 candidates who were recognized in the same Rite of Election. These candidates are baptized in different faith traditions, whose baptism is recognized by the Catholic Church. They do not need to be baptized again but to be received into full communion with the Church. They will celebrate their first Sacrament of Reconciliation, receive their First Holy Communion, and be confirmed in the Sacrament of Confirmation. What an immense joy for our faith community. Please continue to pray for them as they are prepared for the Easter Sacraments.

As part of their preparation, the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) instructs that there will be three Sundays with Rites of Scrutinies. These rites will help the Elect to deepen their conversion and strengthen their faith. With God's grace and our prayers for them, they are to uncover and heal their weaknesses and sinful tendencies, and to strengthen their resolve to follow Christ. These three rites are celebrated on the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent. Each scrutiny is thematically linked to the Gospel readings for that Mass, with the first focusing on Christ as the living water, the second on Christ as the light of the world, and the third on Christ as the resurrection and the life.

As pastor, I am delighted that our faith community is growing in numbers. The OCIA team that consists of 20 members, plays such a significant role in the faith journey of our Catechumens and candidates. I also want to recognize Trey Brock and Carol Stuart, whose dedication and commitment is so commendable in journeying with the youth and children in faith. The Adult Faith Formation director, Eby Kurian, who oversees the OCIA program shared with me that this year we have the highest number of Elect and candidates for the Easter Sacraments. Praise the Lord! Please continue to pray for our brothers and sisters as they are preparing themselves for a new journey of faith.

THE APOLOGY

I like to imagine the Prodigal Son practicing his apology in the mirror.

He wouldn't have, of course. Mirrors weren't exactly a dime a dozen back then. But I imagine him anyway, rehearsing the words as he contemplates his own gaunt reflection: "Father, I have sinned against God and against you. Treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."

In other words, I have done wrong. I deserve nothing from you. But please, don't let me starve. Save me.

The apology wasn't necessary to move the heart of the father. We know that because before they meet, before anything is said, the father is overcome with compassion — not because he got his satisfaction, that long-awaited "I'm sorry, I was wrong." No, he's simply overjoyed to see his son alive. Even without apology, we know the father will beg his son to stay.

So why does the son apologize?

The father doesn't need the "I'm sorry." He isn't starving and lost. He knew all along it was a bad idea. He doesn't need to learn any lessons.

But what a tragedy it would have been, if the son had never said he was sorry. Undoubtedly, his father would have let him stay as a hired worker, and he would have had food to eat. He would have survived. But he wouldn't have been what he was born to be.

I often think of the son's apology as I am kneeling in the confessional, awkwardly reciting sins God already knows and is eager to forgive. Why are you doing this? some people would ask. God doesn't need this.

It's the apology, you see. The apology means everything. The Prodigal Son was dead. The apology brought him back to life.

God doesn't need our repentance. We need our repentance.

4th Sunday in Lent

John 9:1-41

A man looking a bit downtrodden approached me as I filled my car's gas tank. He asked, "May I share with you my testimony about how good God is?" "OK," I skeptically answered. He went on to tell me that he had been an alcoholic and drug addict, and that God had healed him; now he was four years sober. He said, "I didn't deserve it, but now I'm a different person. God is so good! Have a terrific Tuesday!" A few minutes later, as I drove away, I saw him smiling and handing a homeless person some money. I was confronted with a choice: either he was a total fraud or God had changed him. Something had happened to him, and it didn't seem fake. Maybe it was God.

When Jesus heals the man born blind, the man becomes a challenge to everyone who meets him. They must decide. Is he the same blind person who they knew before? Who healed him and how? And what is the status of the one who can heal such infirmities? We shouldn't be surprised at the storm of doubt, hatred and animosity that swirls around the healed man — so it often goes when Jesus heals someone even to this day.

Like we often do, the religious leaders confronting the healed man declare that God is not at work. They ask with mocking superiority and dismissive disdain, "You were born totally in sin, and are you trying to teach us?" (John 9:34). And they cast him out. When Jesus clearly works in our lives, in us or around us, we should accept it, and give praise and thanks for this wonderful manifestation of his goodness.

Lenten challenge: Think of one way the Lord has healed you. Perhaps he healed a form of selfishness, a physical ailment, or something else. This week, find a person to whom you can share that testimony, and share it. Don't worry if they don't accept it was God who did it.

Lenten Eucharistic Series

Continue to meet on Thursdays for 8 more weeks from 9:30 AM – 11:00 AM in the Mini Hall.

For more information and to register, contact - Eby Kurian.

The Sorrowful Mysteries outline the epic battle between good and evil. Christ enters into the Garden of Gethsemane knowing precisely who He is fighting against and who He is fighting for. Our thoughtful contemplation of Christ's actions teach us how to engage in the fight against darkness. We live in a time of unprecedented evil. The call to pray is urgent.

All Young Adults of ages 18 & above are invited to join us on Wednesday evenings after the 6:30 pm Mass at Mary's House from 7:00 - 8:30 PM for this Lenten Series.

We have a special LENTEN JOURNEY planned for Men in 'That Man is You!' (TMIY) program that will begin on Ash Wednesday, March 5th and continue to meet from 6 - 7 AM in the Main Hall until Holy Week.

Pray with us and invite someone else along your Lenten journey!

Registration is FREE! Please contact: Eby Kurian to sign up ekurian@maryqueenchurch.org

Thank You for Your Hospitality and Generosity

Thank you for volunteering for the Archdiocesan Rite of Election!

It was a beautiful liturgy where we had the privilege to witness the renewal of our Catholic Faith and growth in our Church! These new Elect and Candidates continue their Journey of Faith as they move to the third stage in the OCIA process called 'Purification and Enlightenment'.

Mary Queen again welcomed our guest with joy and kindness. Thank you for your generosity and patience, this Liturgy would not have been as successful without your help. Let's continue praying for one another, the Elect, and Candidates we are accompanying.

May this Lent be a prayerful and contemplative season so that we may arrive at the joy of Easter refreshed and ready!

From the Mary Queen OCIA team and our Elect and Candidates thank you for your support in this process and commitment to Mary Queen parish.

In Jesus & Mary,
Eby Kurian

On Wednesday, March 19th, Mary Queen celebrated the Solemnity of St. Joseph - Holy Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary through an Act of Consecration to St. Joseph after the 6:30 evening Mass. We were gifted St. Joseph oil from the St. Joseph Oratory in Montreal, Canada.

Today's Lesson

"The chief fruit of the Eucharist is an intrinsic union of the recipient with Christ" (Ott, Fundamentals of Catholic Dogma, 418). The effect that Holy Communion produces in the souls who receive worthily is to unite them with Christ. The Blessed Sacrament, in other words, empowers us to be other Christ's in the world. This is why St. Thérèse of Lisieux's spiritual director, Fr. Almire Pichon, said that "each Christian is another Christ" (Seeds of the Kingdom, 118). With this in mind, a Christian ought to be aware of Christ's presence in the chapel as well as in their home, school, workplace, etc. If the chief fruit of Holy Communion is an "intimate union with Christ Jesus" (CCC, ¶1391), awareness of this union should not disappear after Mass ends.

Lenten Almsgiving

Charity is a frequent and important theme of the Gospels. As individual members of Mary Queen, each of us is called to focus more closely on almsgiving during Lent. Almsgiving is the outward action of donating money or goods to the poor as a reflection of your love for Jesus. This year during Lent we are asking every person/family to donate the following items to our Food Pantry.

When you come to Mass each weekend, please place the items in the Food Pantry Donation Box located in the church Narthex. Items can also be dropped off at the Food Pantry Monday – Friday from 10 AM to 2 PM.

April 5/6:	Canned Goods (Veggies, Fruit, Beans, Soup, Ravioli, etc.)
April 12/13:	Oil, Sugar, May, Mustard, Ketchup Toilet Paper, Shampoo, Dish Soap, Laundry Soap

"Almsgiving is good and salutary when to it is united the amendment of the heart from pride, malice, envy, slothfulness, indolence, gluttony, fornication, falsehood, deceitfulness, and other sins. But if the man is not careful to amend his heart, trusting only to his alms, then he will obtain but little benefit from them, for he builds with one hand and destroys with the other."

—St. John of Kronstadt

Divine Mercy Novena and Holy Hour

Jesus spoke these words to St. Faustina concerning the Feast of Divine Mercy....."The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sin and punishment" (699)* To emphasize the importance of these two sacraments of mercy, Our Lord made their reception a necessary condition for obtaining His promise of complete forgiveness of sins and punishment for those observing the Feast of Mercy. (742) I demand from you deeds of mercy, which are to arise out of love for Me. I am giving you three ways of exercising mercy toward your neighbor: the first - by deed, the second – by word, the third – by prayer.Yes, the first Sunday after Easter is the Feast of Mercy, but there must also be acts of mercy....

Our Lord spoke these words to St. Faustina.....(1317)write this for the many souls who are often worried because they do not have the material means with which to carry out an act of mercy. Yet spiritual mercy, which requires neither permissions nor storehouses, is much more meritorious and is within the grasp of every soul. If a soul does not exercise mercy somehow or other, it will not obtain My mercy on the day of Judgement. Oh, if only souls knew how to gather eternal treasure for themselves, they would not be judged, for they would forestall My judgment with their mercy.

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA AND CHAPLET, will be prayed in the St. Joseph Chapel on Good Friday, April 18, following 3:00 PM Stations of the Cross. Remaining eight days of Novena April 19 - 26 will be prayed at 3:00 PM in the St. Joseph Chapel, including Easter Sunday.

On DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, April 27, at 3:00 PM there will be a Holy Hour with Adoration, Divine Mercy Prayers and Benediction in the St. Joseph Chapel.

*Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska, "Divine Mercy in My Soul"

La Salette Laity Reflection for the 4th Sunday of Lent March 30th

Written by Laity Member, Carol Stuart
Mary Queen Catholic Church,
Friendswood, Texas

The message of La Salette, a Marian apparition in 1846, shares similarities with the parable of the Prodigal Son from the Gospel of Luke. Both stories convey themes of repentance, forgiveness, and divine mercy.

In La Salette, the Virgin Mary appeared to two children, urging them to share the message with others to turn away from sin, especially the abuse of God's name and neglect of the Sabbath. She expressed sorrow over humanity's rejection of God's love and called for conversion and a return to faith. Mary's message emphasized reconciliation with God through repentance.

Similarly, in the parable of the Prodigal Son, a young man wastes his inheritance on indulgence and sin, leading to his downfall. He eventually returns to his father in repentance, acknowledging his wrongdoings.

Both stories highlight the boundless mercy of God and the importance of returning to Him after straying. The message of La Salette calls for spiritual renewal, echoing the prodigal son's return to the father—a reminder that no matter how far one has fallen, redemption is always possible through repentance and God's forgiveness.

This lent let us imitate the father in the Prodigal Son, welcoming all back with open arms, offering forgiveness, and celebrating their return.

Lent Question

Question:

Lent always seems to help me renew my relationship with God and strengthen my religious practice. Do you have any suggestions as to what I could do to achieve that the rest of the year?

Answer:

The obvious answer may seem to be to do whatever you do during Lent all year round. But part of the power of Lent is that we focus as a community on renewing our faith and preparing for Easter. Our Lenten practices have a purpose and a goal. Therein lies the secret. When we focus our efforts on one virtue, or try to change one bad habit, or seek to deepen our understanding of one aspect of faith, we focus our efforts and give our full attention to what we are trying to accomplish. We tend to be more successful achieving our goals. More importantly, it has a ripple effect in our lives: one thing changes or is added to the spiritual mix of our lives and many aspects are changed. All too often we leave our spiritual growth to chance and the practice of faith to habit, and then wonder why we have no sense of growth or progress. Think of it in terms of exercise. We walk, lift weights, bend and stretch to attain the maximum benefit from what we do. In addition, to keep those benefits, we eat healthful food and get enough vitamins and rest. Spirituality requires the same kind of attention: we pray, fast, read the Bible, receive sacraments, and do charitable work to maximize the benefits of practicing faith. Keeping Lent year round keeps us in spiritual shape!

Everyday Stewardship

The Face on God's Brochure

When a church is raising funds for a new building or a diocese is launching a stewardship appeal, there is usually someone — or several someone's — who serves as the face of the campaign. Maybe it's a married couple, or a family, or a group of folks who have been particularly active in the community and can speak to the worthiness of whatever endeavor is being undertaken.

Oftentimes, for better or worse, we fill that role for God. We are the face on the front of His promotional brochure. If we call ourselves Christians, that means that people will meet Christ through us. That's what being an Everyday Steward is — a steward, everyday; someone who conducts his Master's business when the Master is not seen.

It can be intimidating because we have so much baggage and no capabilities of our own. But then we remember that we are offered reconciliation through Christ — that "the old things have passed away, (and) new things have come" (2 Corinthians 5:17). We remember that we are the prodigal sons, and the fattened calf has been slaughtered on our behalf.

But it's a role that requires commitment. The story of the prodigal son is only compelling and only means something because the son, presumably, embraced his reconciliation to his father. He didn't go on to abandon him again.

So let us think to ourselves each day, "Whoever I encounter will meet Christ's ambassador. I was dead and have come to life again. How can I speak to the worthiness of that reconciliation? How can I make others desire it?"
