

18TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." - Lk 12:20-21

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

At this point in the summer, our youth have been to Brave Camp and AYC (Archdiocesan Youth Conference), two retreats that Mary Queen has a long tradition of attending. We took over 60 teens to Brave Camp from June 23rd to 28th, and we had about 20 teens with us for AYC last weekend. There were about 300 teens, mostly from our deanery parishes, who went to Brave Camp. Fr. Trey accompanied them as the chaplain. There were 1,900 high schoolers who attended AYC from around the archdiocese. These retreats allow our youth to break away from their normal routines and encounter God in a unique way. At these retreats, the unity of our Catholic faith is put on display as our teens can meet other young Catholics around the archdiocese. They worship and pray together, listen to dynamic talks, and build lasting friendships. At Brave and AYC, the young Church is on full display and serves as a sure sign of hope for the future. It was an amazing experience for me as I joined the youth to be with them at AYC. What a beautiful experience to see the beauty and the power of faith expressed through our youth. It was so impressive to see their participation and love for the Eucharist in the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The Church is alive. Please join me in thanking our youth directors and chaperones who generously commit their time and dedication to bringing our youth closer to God.

As the summertime brings us warmth and rest, our children are blessed with new opportunities for adventure, friendship, and growth. While the summer months bring joy and excitement, they also invite us to be especially mindful of our role as guardians, both for our children's safety and for their spiritual well-being. I encourage you to cherish this season as a time to nurture your children's faith. Don't forget to take them to church on Sundays. I have seen many parents doing that. They are my heroes. Share stories of hope and love from Scripture, pray together, and make space for conversations about God's presence in everyday moments. Whether on family walks, at the dinner table, or during moments of play, let your words and actions reflect Christ's love. At the same time, watch over your children's safety with loving vigilance. Teach them wisdom and care as they explore the world around them, be it swimming at the pool or at the beach, playing in the park, camping, or traveling with friends. Your guidance and presence are gifts that offer both reassurance and protection. May this summer be filled with laughter, growth, and lasting memories. Let us walk hand in hand with our children, leading them ever closer to the heart of God.

Many Blessings,

Fr. Thomas Vellappallil, MS

HELP RESTOCK OUR FOOD PANTRY

Our Food Pantry is currently out of jelly, oatmeal, canned beans, and rice, and we need your help to restock these essentials. The Food Bank has recently limited the number of items we can order, making your donations more important than ever.

Each week, we serve families and individuals in our community who rely on these staples to put meals on the table. Please consider bringing donations of these items this week. Every jar, bag, or can you share helps feed our neighbors and shows the love of Christ in action.

Thank you for your continued generosity and care for those in need!

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

Mini reflection: If I die tonight, the deadlines will go unmet, and no one will even notice. But God, when He meets me in the world to come, will surely ask me why I couldn't take 45 minutes to accept a gift He tried again and again to give me.

The Barn

It's 9:08 on a Saturday morning, and I am too darn busy for confession.

I've probably written before about how hard I find it to get to confession — I say 'probably' because I really can't remember. I whine about it so frequently that it's hard to tell if I've made it the subject of a written piece or if it is simply an oft-recited refrain from the Litany of Colleen's Perpetual Complaints.

During the week, it's tough to get to confession because I have little kids who are attached to me like Velcro, and I don't need them listening in on (and eventually repeating to everyone) my sins. On the weekend it's a little easier, but our parish doesn't offer it before or after Sunday Mass, just on Saturdays. Saturday is when I get most of my work done, so getting absolution usually comes at the expense of productivity.

And that, friends, right here, is my barn. Productivity. That's the proverbial storehouse of my earthly harvest. For the rich man in the parable, it's a literal barn, filled to bursting with sellable crops. For you it might be money or your job title or what your life looks like to other people on social media. For me, it's Getting Things Done. That's my barn, the repository that holds the whole of my worldly preoccupations.

And it's so full I want to tear it down and build a new one. A bigger one. One that can hold more worry, more time for work, more focus on output and crossing things off a to-do list. Vanity of vanities, indeed.

If I die tonight, the deadlines will go unmet, and no one will even notice. But God, when He meets me in the world to come, will surely ask me why I couldn't take 45 minutes to accept a gift He tried again and again to give me.

I have to burn the barn, friends. I don't want to, but I have to. I'm closing my laptop and going to church.

PRAY & REFLECT

August 3, 2025

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Luke 12:13-21

Recent studies suggest that millennials will be the first generation in America to be worse off than their parents in terms of financial earnings and job status. Many lament this. I propose that this week's Gospel provides a hopeful way to see the trend as good news.

The Lord Jesus says, "Take care to guard against greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist in possessions" (Luke 12:15). Greed damages us with the deception that we are what we possess. But to Jesus, this is simply not true. What makes us happy is who we are, who we become.

Does not the expectation that every generation should do better than their parents subtly mask the poison of greed? A similar attitude is mirrored in the man who demands that Jesus justly arrange his share of the family inheritance. Despite the injustice, Jesus will not play that game. In fact, he seems to prefer that the man have less than his parents. What good would having more be to this man if he becomes enslaved and miserable by greed? What good would it be for us to have more if it means we become much less?

In allowing the man to have less, Jesus opens a space for him to become more: a man free to love. In that much more meaningful sense, perhaps he was better off than his parents. Maybe the millennials will be, too.

— Father John Muir

Scriptural Apologetics: Winning Souls, Not Arguments

What comes to mind when you think of a Catholic apologist? An author with a bestselling book? A radio personality that knows the answer to every question? What about yourself?

The purpose of this Bible study is to help you become an everyday apologist – an ordinary person who is able to share the beliefs of the Catholic Church in truth and love.

How is this study going to help you do this?

- Give you a vision for what apologetics is.
- Show you seven principles to use when you dialogue with others about faith.
- Outline seven key topics on the Catholic faith and give you specific Scripture verses and reasons for what the Catholic Church believes on these topics and why.

All Young Adults of ages 18 & above are invited to join us on Wednesday evenings after the 6:30 PM Mass at Mary's House from 7:00 - 8:30 PM.

For more information, please contact Eby Kurian. To join the Young Adults email group for updates and events, visit maryqueenchurch.flocknote.com/youngadults or scan the QR code

Inquiries Welcome!

You may have a friend or family member who has never been baptized or baptized in another Christian faith. An acquaintance or coworker may have asked you questions about the Catholic Church. Someone may indicate to you they are searching for a sense of community, or a desire to hear more of the Good News of Jesus, the Gospel.

They are all cordially invited to inquire about the Catholic Christian Faith by attending an Evangelization session on Thursday, September 4th from 7:00 - 8:30 pm in the Main Hall. This is their opportunity to ask questions about "All things Catholic" such as what do Catholics believe and what do Catholics do. This is their opportunity to raise the issues that are on their minds or in their hearts. This is their chance to get information with no commitment!

Those who have never been baptized can investigate what it means to be a Catholic. Those baptized in another Christian tradition can explore the process to come into full communion with the Catholic Church. And those baptized Catholic as infants but were not raised as Catholic can learn about being Confirmed and receiving the Eucharist.

The first step begins with you, today, as you invite your family members, friends, co-workers, or others to explore what it means to be Catholic.

We encourage members of the Mary Queen community to consider being a part of the OCIA team whereby sharing your faith, you will receive the gift that comes by helping others grow in theirs. Finally, we ask you to consider being sponsors, to walk with and support the inquirers as they grow. Please welcome them warmly into our community.

Please email Eby Kurian, Director of Adult Faith Formation, at ekurian@maryqueenchurch.org & OCIA to sign up.

AYC 2025

High School Faith Formation begins on Sunday, September 21. We will meet every Sunday from 5:45-7:00 PM this year. If your teen desires to prepare for Confirmation, please sign them up ASAP! We have a special team dedicated to truth and teaching the Catholic Faith in all its fullness. Also, if your teen has already been confirmed and desires to go deeper in their faith, have them sign up for our post-Confirmation program The Deep. And finally, anybody looking to become Catholic is invited to join OCIA. Here at Mary Queen, we use the Church's philosophical and theological wisdom to uncompromisingly teach the Catholic Faith and prepare high school youth to live out their baptismal vocation.

BRINGING THEM HOME THROUGH

FAITH & FELLOWSHIP

What better way to grow closer as a parish family than around the dinner table? Bringing Them Home Through Faith and Fellowship invites parish families to welcome Father Thomas - and often Father Trey and Father Jim - into their homes for an evening of conversation, connection, and prayer.

Each visit begins with introductions and a blessing of the host family's home, followed by a shared meal. Whether casual or formal, potluck or plated, the heart of this evening is simply sharing stories, laughter, and faith in a personal and welcoming setting.

August dates are full, but September and future dates will be available soon!

Families interested in hosting can register by scanning the code or visiting our website at www.bit.ly/dinner-with-our-priest to be contacted with upcoming dates.

BEAUTIFUL MOMENTS FROM ENCOUNTER:
EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION WITH PRAISE

August Prayer Theme from the Social Concerns Prayer Team Elder Care and Aging with Dignity

As a parish rooted in compassion and respect for every stage of life, we invite you to join us in prayer for our elders and all those who care for them. Aging is a sacred journey—one that should be met with dignity, love, and support. You are encouraged to put a copy of the below prayer where you will pray it every day this month.

Scripture reminds us: “Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent” (Psalm 71:9).

A Prayer for Elder Care and Aging with Dignity

Loving God,

You are the source of life
and the keeper of every season.

We thank You for the gift of our elders – for their wisdom, love, and witness of faith.

As they grow older, may their dignity be honored.

Grant them peace in pain, strength in weakness, and joy in Your abiding presence.

Bless caregivers with compassion and families with patience.

Help our communities cherish each life, especially in times of frailty.

May we serve with mercy, respect, and love. Guide all aging hearts closer to You.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen

A Call to Prayer: Join the Social Concerns Prayer Team

Do you carry in your heart a deep compassion for those who are suffering—physically, emotionally, spiritually, or financially? For those living in poverty, without shelter, or burdened by loneliness?

The Mary Queen Social Concerns Ministry walks alongside many who are hurting and broken. We now invite our parish community to become prayerful companions in this ministry by lifting up these beloved children of God to the Lord in prayer.

As a member of the Social Concerns Prayer Team, you will receive regular emails with specific names, intentions, monthly prayer themes, and Scripture passages to guide your intercession. There are no meetings—only a shared spiritual commitment to pray intentionally, from your own home and on your own schedule.

Let us unite in prayer, trusting that our Loving God hears the cries of the poor and works through the faithful prayers of His people. To join or learn more, please contact Chris at chrisaustgen@maryqueenchurch.org or 281-482-1391.

Lord Jesus, who went about doing good and healing all, we ask you to bless our friends who are sick. Give them strength in body, courage in spirit, and patience with pain. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen

In Memory of † Dorothy Barrow

August 2nd through August 8th

We offer the Vigil Candle as a Memorial Candle each week to interested parishioners who would like to request that it burn "In Memory of..." or "In Honor of..." a loved one, living or deceased. To reserve the candle, contact the Receptionist in the Parish Office at 281-482-1391. The name of your loved one will be published in the bulletin and near the Sanctuary Candle in the Church.

Prayer List Requests

If you have a family member or friend who needs special prayers by our parish community, please consider placing them on the Mary Queen Prayer List after getting their permission. Provide the name to Loretta Delaney at reception@maryqueenchurch.org. Names will be added to the list for 60 days. Once the initial time is up, we kindly ask that you not renew your request for another 60 days. Due to the overwhelming amount of requests, we will abide by this policy in order to accommodate all new prayer requests.

Each year, Mary Queen's Pastoral Council along with Father Thomas select an individual or couple, 21 years of age or older, who have given their time and talent over the past year (2024 - 2025) to make Mary Queen Church a more vibrant gospel community. We are currently seeking nominees for this annual award.

The recipient must be a registered member of Mary Queen. Members of the Pastoral Council or the Pastoral Staff cannot be nominated. The Pastoral Council will confirm the good works of all the nominees with the Pastor and Parochial Vicar before the final selection of the recipient(s).

Nominations are due by Tuesday, August 26th

The Annual Service Award Nomination forms may be found at the welcome desk in the church narthex, in the parish hall, by scanning the QR code, or on our website at <https://tinyurl.com/MQ-Service-Award>

For questions, please contact Tami Jernigan at tamijern5@gmail.com.

Please return completed forms to the nomination box at the front desk or by email to Tamijern5@gmail.com

Marian Feasts

Question:

Why does Mary have so many feast days and names?

Answer: Christians first began celebrating feast days in honor of Mary, the Mother of Jesus, in the fifth century. That celebration (originally called the Feast of the Dormition and now known by Roman Catholics as the Solemnity of the Assumption) was celebrated on August 15. Very soon, however, other special days dedicated to Mary began to appear in Jerusalem, Rome, and other major cities of the Christian world. These days of feasting became important parts of the life of the community. But, more importantly, each of these unique celebrations became an opportunity to focus on a different facet of the Christian faith, as believers focused their attention on specific events or mysteries of the lives of Mary and her Son.

Over the centuries, some of these celebrations became universal (such as the Assumption on August 15, the Immaculate Conception on December 8, and the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God on January 1). Other celebrations were more closely tied to certain religious orders (such as the Carmelites celebration of "Our Lady of Mount Carmel" on July 16 or the Servite Friars feast of the "Seven Sorrows of Mary," which is now celebrated as the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows on September 15).

In more recent times, Marian apparitions (like Guadalupe, Lourdes, and Fatima) have inspired special liturgical celebrations. Pope Francis has added two new celebrations of Mary to the Church's calendar: The Memorial of Mary, Mother of the Church (on the Monday after Pentecost) and the Commemoration of Our Lady of Loreto (on December 10). The various titles of Mary (like those we find in the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary) help us to reflect on different aspects of Mary's faith and the ways that the Holy Spirit is at work in her and through her, especially as the Mother of Jesus.

In the end, whatever the event or mystery being celebrated in a particular liturgy or the title of Mary being used, we are invited to always see Mary in connection with the saving work of her Son. She is, of course, a patroness and protector for every Christian, but she is also a model of discipleship and contemplation: "Having entered deeply into the history of salvation, Mary, in a way, unites in her person and re-echoes the most important doctrines of the faith: and when she is the subject of preaching and worship she prompts the faithful to come to her Son, to his sacrifice and to the love of the Father" (Lumen Gentium, 65).
