The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

They are courageous, wise women who ground us, focus us, and inspire us. They are the good mothers who walk with us and light our way. They teach us life lessons and help us heal and navigate through challenges and difficulties. We need people to point the way. Sometimes, these wise ladies are not our biological mothers but women in our lives, who through their strong and faithful presence, anchor us and remind us that we are loved. We need these women. Human beings do their best when they have cheerleaders in their lives. They show us that even when facing despair there is always a brighter tomorrow.

Jesus needed his mother. She had to be that faithful anchor, that guiding presence, in his life. Jesus needed to be affirmed and encouraged just like any other human being and Mary had to be there, right by his side, doing precisely that. Even when her heart was pierced as he was nailed to a tree, she did not give up hope. Most certainly, she continued to wait, watch, hope, and love until he took his final breath. That's what mothers do. Even when their heart breaks, they persevere.

Today, our Blessed Mother is our cheerleader once again. Taken up to heaven in body and soul, she points to and directs us toward our final destiny. Life eternal waits! Any disappointment, fear, or anxiety can be set aside as she gently reassures us of God's love and promise. Always a mother filled with grace and hope, she calls us to reaffirm our faith in God and in the gifts we have each been given. We can persevere and do what we need to do to live life well, with faith, hope, and love as our guiding lights. Knowing who we are and who we will one day become helps us to better chart the course and direction of our earthly lives. Looking to the example of our Blessed Mother, we receive the assurance we need.

La Asunción de la Santísima Virgen María

Toda la Liturgia de hoy está llena de un profundo sentido de alegría. La antífona de entrada es un ejemplo de ello: "Alegrémonos todos en el Señor y alabemos al Hijo de Dios junto con los ángeles, al celebrar hoy la Asunción al cielo de nuestra Madre la Virgen María". A este ambiente de gozo se unen las tres lecturas. El Apocalipsis nos describe, a vivos colores, la misteriosa visión de la mujer y el dragón. La Primera carta a los Corintios afirma la resurrección de los muertos y nuestra esperanza de resucitar. El Evangelio de San Lucas nos llena de gozo al escuchar la apertura y confianza de María a los planes de Dios en ella.

El Papa Francisco agrega estos puntos de reflexión con referencia a esta Solemnidad: "La Iglesia hoy nos invita a contemplar este misterio. Este nos muestra que Dios quiere salvar al hombre por completo, alma y cuerpo. --- La asunción de María, criatura humana, nos da la confirmación de nuestro destino glorioso. --- Nuestro cuerpo, transfigurado, estará allí. Esto --- la resurrección de la carne --- es un elemento propio de la revelación cristiana, una piedra angular de nuestra fe" (8/15/2018). Mientras llega este día de ver a Dios cara a cara, me uno a María y proclamo la grandeza del Todopoderoso: "Proclama mi alma la grandeza del Señor, y mi espíritu se alegra en Dios mi Salvador, porque se fijó en su humilde esclava, y desde ahora todas las generaciones me llamaran feliz" (Lucas 1:46-47). Pidamos a la Virgen María, en esta Eucaristía, que interceda ante su Hijo por nosotros.

FAITH REFLECTION

Jesus in the Eucharist #3 by Deacon Joe

At every Mass that we attend an astounding miracle occurs. Through the power of the Holy Spirit and the sacrifice and prayers offered by the priest, the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ. From time to time God has provided us with astonishing proof of this profound truth. One such occurrence took place in Walldurn, Germany in the year 1330. During the mass the priest accidently knocked over the chalice of consecrated wine, which turned to Blood and formed the image of the Crucified Christ surrounded by eleven identical images of the Head of Christ crowned with thorns on the corporal. The relic of the corporal is preserved today on the side altar in the basilica of St.George in Walldurn. Every year several thousand pilgrims visit Walldurn to venerate the sacred relic.
Many conversions and miraculous recoveries have been attributed to it. Pope Eugene IV confirmed the miracle in 1445 and granted some indulgences. The miracle became famous all over Europe and for centuries has been depicted by many artists.
En cada Misa que asistimos ocurre un milagro asombroso. Por el poder del Espíritu Santo, el sacrificio y las oraciones ofrecidas por el sacerdote, el pan y el vino se convierten en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo. De vez en cuando, Dios nos proporciona unos hechos extraordinarios de esta profunda verdad. Uno de estos hechos tuvo lugar en Walldurn, Alemania, en el año 1330. Durante la Misa, al sacerdote se le cayó accidentalmente el cáliz de vino consagrado, el cual se convirtió en Sangre y formó la imagen del Cristo crucificado rodeado por once imágenes idénticas de la Cabeza de Cristo coronado de espinas en el corporal. La reliquia del corporal se conserva hoy en el altar lateral de la basílica de San Jorge en Walldurn. Cada año, miles de peregrinos visitan a Walldurn para venerar la reliquia sagrada.
Se le han atribuido muchas conversiones y recuperaciones milagrosas. El Papa Eugenio IV confirmó el milagro en 1445 y concedió algunas indulgencias. El milagro se hizo famoso por toda Europa y durante siglos ha sido representado por muchos artistas.
