Pope Francis has produced a book 'Let Us Dream: The Path To A Better Future' based on conversations with author Austen Ivereigh, written as a response to the present pandemic. In the prologue, the Holy Father refers to this moment in history as a time of reckoning: "I see this as a time of reckoning. I think of what Jesus tells Peter in Luke 22:31, that the devil wants him to be sifted like wheat. To enter into crisis is to be sifted. Your categories and ways of thinking get shaken up; your priorities and lifestyles are challenged. You cross a threshold, either by your own choice or by necessity, because there are crises, like the one we are going through, that you can't avoid. The basic rule of a crisis is that you don't come out of it the same. If you get through it, you come out better or worse, but never the same. In the trials of life, you reveal your own heart: how solid it is, how merciful, how big or small. When people's hearts are tested they become aware of what has held them down. They also feel the presence of the Lord, who is faithful, and responds to the cry of His people. The encounter that follows allows a new future to open up. In moments of crisis you get both good and bad: people reveal themselves as they are. Some spend themselves in the service of those in need, and some get rich off other people's need. Some move out to meet others – in new and creative ways, without leaving their houses – while some retreat behind defensive armor. The state of our hearts is exposed.

In a crisis there's always the temptation to retreat. The Covid crisis may seem special because it affects most of humankind. But it is only special in how visible it is. There are a thousand other crises that are just as dire, but are just far enough from some of us that we can act as if they don't exist. Think, for example, of the wars scattered across different parts of the world; of the production and trade in weapons; of the hundreds of thousands of refugees fleeing poverty, hunger, and a lack of opportunity; of climate change. These tragedies may seem distant from us, as part of the daily news that, sadly, fails to move us to change our agendas and priorities. But like the Covid crisis, they affect the whole of humanity. If we are to come out of this crisis less selfish than we went in, we have to let ourselves be touched by others' pain. This is a moment to dream big, to rethink our priorities – what we value, what we want, what we seek – and to commit to act in our daily life on what we have dreamed of. God asks us to dare to create something new. We need a movement of people who know we need each other, who have a sense of responsibility to others and to the world. We need to proclaim that being kind, having faith, and working for the common good are great life goals that need courage and vigor. Hearts have been tested. The crisis has called forth in some a new courage and compassion. Some have been sifted and have responded with the desire to reimagine our world; others have come to the aid of those in need in concrete ways that can transform our neighbor's suffering. That fills me with hope that we might come out of this crisis better. But we have to see clearly, choose well and act right. Let us dream!"

EC3

Ms. Amanda Springer

“Criss cross applesauce, give a little clap! Listen to Ms. Springer, hands are in our lap!” is just one of several cheerful melodies you may hear ringing out from the EC3 classroom at Our Lady of Lourdes. If you’re looking for the sweetest little class ever, look no further than Ms. Springer’s 3-year-old class!

Imagine a day of learning, filled with music, dance, art, and play. These activities are daily occurrences within the walls of the EC3 classroom. This class loves to sing, and that sure comes in handy for their musical teacher! At such a young age, these children are in the midst of their very first school experience. They’re falling in love with school and all the new challenges and accomplishments it brings. In EC3, we are growing our love for learning, and our love for Jesus every day!

The amount of love and joy that is shared between the students of the EC3 class daily, is truly a gift from God. In such a short time, we have become a family. This is the sweetest bunch of little ones you can imagine! After a fantastic start to the year, it is inevitable these children will continue to thrive during their time at OLL. We are setting the groundwork for many amazing years of education to come. It’s great to be in EC3!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION A SIMPLER CHRISTMAS

Forget the “ideal” Christmas complete with snow, carols, angelically-behaved children, and the perfect presents, food, and decorations. Put the emphasis on Jesus.

- ♥ If there is a Christmas chore or activity that you hate, either stop doing it or stop complaining. If you still do it and you still complain, don't expect sympathy!
- ♥ If you dread writing and mailing Christmas cards, don't bother. If you want to greet people in a simpler way, use Internet sites such as catholicgreetings.org and send e-cards with a few clicks of your mouse.
- ♥ If you are hosting a Christmas dinner for family and friends, don't do everything yourself. Tell the people living with you they can all pitch in—assign tasks if necessary—and ask guests to bring their favorite dish.
- ♥ Don't spend what you don't have. Set a dollar limit and stick to it.
- ♥ Consider a family gift exchange, or donate to a favorite charity in honor of friends and family. Place gifts under a parish or community giving tree. Give coupons representing your gifts of time and talent to those you love. Buy gifts that are faith-related from your parish bookstore.

- ♥ Create your own traditions: make a Christmas nativity scene; light Christmas candles; go with the family to Midnight Mass; read the Christmas stories out loud (in Matthew 1 and 2 and Luke 1 and 2); help serve dinner in a shelter.
- ♥ Don't expect too much from others. Don't expect them to be in a certain mood or to behave in certain ways, or to give you the right gifts.
- ♥ Don't do anything to excess: gift-giving, partying, drinking, eating.
- ♥ Don't fight with family, particularly over who does or does not go to church; don't bring up old grudges.

Living Stewardship Now

Find time to prepare your own heart for Christmas. Pray more, go to confession, read the scriptures, attend Mass.

The CARES Act: Did You Know?

Thanks to the CARES Act, individual taxpayers who don't itemize deductions may take a charitable deduction of up to $300 for cash contributions made in 2020 to qualifying organizations. Married-filing-jointly taxpayers may take a deduction of up to $600. Typically, the amount of charitable cash contributions taxpayers can deduct on Schedule A as an itemized deduction is limited to a percentage (usually 60 percent) of the taxpayer's adjusted gross income (AGI). Qualified contributions in 2020 are not subject to this limitation. Individuals who itemize may deduct qualified contributions of up to 100 percent of their AGI. A corporation may deduct qualified contributions of up to 25 percent of its taxable income. Check with your tax accountant or IRS.gov.

Thank you to the 536 families that have responded generously to the 2020 Annual Pastoral Appeal on behalf of our parish. Out of the $228,225 that was assessed to our parish, total paid is $216,853 and total pledged is $220,449. We are only $7,776 away from reaching our goal! MIGRANT FARM WORKERS Christmas Giving Tree

The Deadline for Gift Giving is Next Weekend!

You still have time to make a difference! The many gifts beautifully express the love and generosity of our parish. This year we will surely miss getting together to load the truck with all the gifts, but are happy that the children will be receiving them. We have been told many times in the past that without the generosity of OLL parishioners, numerous migrant farm workers' children would receive no gift at all on Christmas. Thank you! Thank you! May our Lord continue to bless you abundantly.

DIocese OF ST. PETERSBURG

Office of the Bishop

November 17, 2020

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In his letter to the Galatians, St. Paul urges us to remain steadfast in helping others: "Let us not grow tired of doing good, for in due time we shall reap our harvest, if we do not give up" (Gal 6:9). During these unprecedented times, many are hurting and need our assistance, including elderly religious. As we approach the annual Retirement Fund for Religious collection, I encourage your continued support, if your circumstances permit.

As you may know, senior religious were instrumental in establishing Catholic schools, hospitals, and charitable agencies. Often this progress came at great sacrifice, and many older sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for little to no pay.

Today, hundreds of religious communities do not have enough retirement savings and struggle to provide for a growing number of elder members. Covid-19 has only increased the challenge to provide adequate care.

Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious provides vital funding for medications, nursing care, and more. If you are unable to give during Mass, please mail your offertory envelope to your parish or donate through your parish's online giving platform, if available. You can also send your contributions to:

National Religious Retirement Office

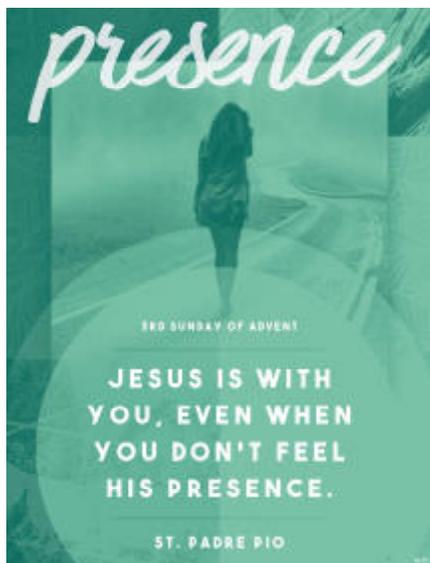

3211 Fourth Street NE, Washington DC 20017-1194

Please make your check payable to Retirement Fund for Religious.

In these difficult days, you may feel as though your generosity has been exhausted. I ask just two things. First, please join me in praying for God's protection for all our elderly religious. Second, please support the Retirement Fund for Religious collection as you are able-and know that women and men religious across the country hold you and your loved ones in grateful prayer.

Sincerely Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory L. Parkes
Bishop of St. Petersburg

Make a Difference!

Collection is This Weekend, December 12-13

"Every dollar makes a difference in covering our expenses," says a Trappist abbot. Hundreds of US religious communities struggle to provide for aging members because most senior Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests served for little pay. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps these communities bridge the gap, offering support for medications, nursing care, and other necessities. Please be generous.
