Mission Statement

"Our Lady of Lourdes Parish is a family of believers, embraced by the Father's love, nourished by Jesus in Word and Sacrament, and strengthened by the Holy Spirit. Inspired by Mary we commit ourselves to live and proclaim the Gospel of Salvation."

Altar Servers RED Team Jan 10

Yes, 2021 has arrived, and we hope and pray it will be more peaceful, less divisive, with an air of normality. Let's carry the gift of hope with us each and every day during this new year. In his excellent and thought-provoking book, 'Let Us Dream: The Path To A Better Future,' Pope Francis concludes with a poem on hope: "I would like to end with a poem that I read in lockdown after receiving it from a friend in Argentina. There was some confusion over the author, who I eventually found out is a Cuban actor and comedian in Miami. When I spoke on the phone with Alexis Valdes, he told me he wrote 'Hope' ('Esperanza') in a single sitting, without changing the words, as if God had used him as a channel. It went viral, moving many – including me. It captures the path to the better future I have tried to express in this book. Let's let his poetry and its beauty have the final word, helping us to decenter and transcend so that our peoples may have life (John 10:10)."

HOPE

*When the storm has passed and the roads are tamed
and we are the survivors of a collective shipwreck.*

*With tearful heart and our destiny blessed
we will feel joy
simply for being alive.*

*And we'll give a hug
to the first stranger
and praise our good luck
that we kept a friend.*

*And then we'll remember all that we lost
and finally learn everything we never learned.*

*And we'll envy no one for all of us have suffered and we'll not be idle
but more compassionate.*

*We'll value more what belongs to all than what was earned.
We'll be more generous and much more committed.*

*We'll understand how fragile
it is to be alive.
We'll sweat empathy
for those still with us
and those who are gone.*

We'll miss the old man who asked for a buck in the market whose name we never knew who was always at your side.

*And maybe the poor old man was your God in disguise.
But you never asked his name because you never had the time.*

*And all will become a miracle.
And all will become a legacy.
And we'll respect the life,
the life we have gained.*

*When the storm passes
I ask you Lord, in shame
that you return us better,
as you once dreamed us.*

As we journey into this new year of 2021, may the gift of hope define us and motivate us as God's people. Happy New Year, love, prayers and blessings!

Love and learning go hand in hand in our Early Childhood Program. The children are growing and maturing in immeasurable ways through the course of this unusual school year. They are becoming confident students with strong academic skills to prepare them for what is to come.

They have most importantly deepened their relationship with God. They are learning daily, that God is with us through all things, even pandemics. They are beginning to understand the value of prayer and the importance of knowing that God is our guiding light, a lamp unto our feet! He walks with us always and the children know that they are never alone, come what may.

In the classroom, each child is treated with respect as we learn and grow together. With just the right amounts of kindness, faith and humor, great things are being accomplished.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION LORD OF ALL

Saint Paul was born and brought up as a Jew, deeply aware of the Jewish people as the Chosen Race. Thanks to his education by rabbis, Paul was steeped in the Hebrew scriptures, which emphasized God's particular love for Jews. Paul expected a Jewish Messiah for the Jews, and may well have believed such a one would be a great military or royal leader like King David. Jesus did not fit that profile. Paul was ardent in his conviction that all those who believed Jesus was the promised Savior were deluded and dangerous, and he was willing to hunt them down and kill them off. After his vision of Jesus on the road to Damascus, Paul's change of heart and mind was profound. All his preconceptions were wrong. He was wrong about Jesus and wrong about Jesus' followers. He was wrong about the Messiah being only for the Jews. Paul was a remarkable man who was prepared to admit that he was wrong! He knew that he had been given an insight into the mystery of God's grace, hidden until the world was ready. God's love and grace are universal and no human being is beyond that love; only those who choose not to receive it cannot benefit from God's grace. He was certain that those who were not Jews were also called to be part of the body of Christ. This was an astounding idea and, at first, brought conflict with apostles such as Peter. Yet these convictions took Paul and his companions out into the world around the Mediterranean on long and dangerous journeys. Jesus was born a Jew in Bethlehem yet, as Risen Lord, he is Lord of all nations and peoples. Paul knew this. It changed his mind. It changed his heart. It changed the world.

Living Stewardship Now

What are you doing to bring Christ to others beyond your family and parish? Are you young or an active retiree? Consider becoming a volunteer missionary yourself! ## “I Heard God Laugh” Study Guide - Intro

The purpose of this study guide is to help you delve further into I Heard God Laugh by exploring your personal prayer journal, your reaction to Matthew Kelly’s insights, and your own attempts to apply what you’ve learned to your life.

Prayer

Dear God, as I begin this study, I ask that you open my mind and my heart. Help me to grow in relationship with you. Bless me and inspire me to pour myself into this book and the ideas it presents. Encourage me to persevere, even when it’s inconvenient or difficult. Thy will be done. Amen.

Discussion Questions

1. How would you rate the health of your soul 1-10? Where would you like to be? What do you do to intentionally take care of your soul?
2. What do you think of when you hear the word prayer? Write down some different prayers that you learned as a kid, or some different ways to pray.
3. If you had to pick three words to describe God in this moment what would they be? Write them down. How do you address God? Is He Father, Lord, Dad, Jesus, Holy Spirit, Wisdom, King of Kings, etc? If you don’t have a specific name that’s okay. Is there a certain person of the Trinity that resonates with you?

The Prayer Process

Gratitude: Begin by thanking God in a personal dialogue for whatever you are most grateful for today.

Awareness: Revisit the times in the past twenty-four hours when you were and were not the-best-version-of-yourself. Talk to God about these situations and what you learned from them.

Significant Moments: Identify something you experienced today and explore what God might be trying to say to you through that event (or person).

Peace: Ask God to forgive you for any wrong you have committed (against yourself, another person, or him) and to fill you with a deep and abiding peace.

Freedom: Speak with God about how he is inviting you to change your life, so that you can experience the freedom to be the-best-version-of-yourself.

Others: Lift up to God anyone you feel called to pray for today, asking God to bless and guide them.

Finish: Pray the Our Father.

WISE MEN SEE GOD IN THE SIMPLE THINGS

If you’re on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: “God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace.”

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God’s and Herod’s. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn’t entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn’t say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I’ll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod’s charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it’s enough to remember this: God’s plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let’s have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

All Are Welcome!

"We extend a special welcome to those who are single, married, divorced, gay, filthy rich, dirt poor, yo no habla Ingles. We extend a special welcome to those who are crying newborns, skinny as a rail or could afford to lose a few pounds.

We welcome you if you can sing like Andrea Bocelli or can't carry a note in a bucket. You're welcome here if "just browsing," just woke up or just got out of jail. We don't care if you're more Catholic than the Pope or haven't been in church since little Joey's Baptism. Talk to the priest who can help you.

A special welcome to those over 60 but not grown up yet, and to teenagers growing up too fast. We welcome soccer moms, NASCAR dads, starving artists, tree-huggers, latte-sippers, vegetarians, junk-food eaters. We welcome those in recovery or still addicted. We welcome you if you're having problems or you're down in the dumps or if you don't like 'organized religion.' We've been there, too.

A special welcome to those who think the earth is flat, work too hard, don't work, can't spell, or because grandma is in town and wanted to go to Mass.

We welcome those who are inked, pierced, or both. A special welcome to those who could use a prayer right now, had religion shoved down your throat as a kid or got lost in traffic and would up here by mistake. We welcome tourists, seekers and doubters, bleeding hearts...and you!"

Unsure of where you fit in? Call Father Gary. His door is always open to you!

JOIN US FOR OUR RCIA GATHERING

RCIA Gathering

Join us Sundays

after the 9:30am Mass in DuBois Hall

Are you interested in discovering more about the Catholic Church, its beliefs, and growing in your own faith and understanding? Then you should join RCIA. The RCIA process is a journey that takes place within the Catholic community. We will help and guide you through the process marked by four district periods: Inquiry, Growth, Preparation, and Mystagogy. You will learn about the Sacraments, and the ancient, historical roots and rich and beautiful traditions of the Church. You will be invited to participate in a community-celebrated rite, signifying a continuation in the process of initiation into the Catholic Church.
