Fr. Gary writes:

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Trinity. We are privileged to know God in such a personal and intimate way as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. God is a family, a communion of three persons, united through perfect love. God created us to be in relationship with each other. We are not created to be alone. We are naturally drawn into communion with others, it is a God given instinct, a reflection of who God is as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. As Catholic Christians we celebrate our unity with God, and each other, around the Eucharistic Table. It is at the Eucharist where our identity as God's sons and daughters is affirmed, where our unity with each other is celebrated, where we are fed and nourished by Christ, and through the power of the Holy Spirit sent on mission to fill this earth with mercy, justice and love. In the Catechism of the Catholic Church we read (#365): "Since Sunday is an Easter celebration that occurs each week, Christians from the earliest times have gathered on that day to celebrate and thank their Redeemer and to reunite themselves with him and with others who are redeemed. So it is a central duty of every conscientious Catholic Christian to "keep holy" Sunday and other holy days of the Church. One is exempted from it only by urgent family duties and important responsibilities in society. Because participation in the Sunday Eucharist is fundamental for a Christian life, the Church explicitly declares that it is a serious sin to stay away from Sunday Mass without good reason." We are now encouraged to return to Mass in person, to celebrate the very relationship which holds us together in life and carries us into eternity, our relationship with God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

At this time of the year I am usually preparing to take a group of young adults to Haiti. However, due to Covid and travel restrictions, we are unable to go to our twin parish and school again this year. It's on the calendar for June 2022! We miss them, and they miss us. I am hoping to make a quick visit after Christmas. We do keep in close contact. However, I am very happy to report that in the course of the last few months we have been able to send $60,000 to our twin parish and school in Acul des Pins (dedicated to the Sacred Heart), and the St. Vincent de Paul Center, which runs camps for hundreds of local children. This gift celebrates our unity, our commitment to the poorest of the poor, and enables our twin school to remain open, and for the teachers to be paid. Thank you for making this possible. If you would like to make a donation, Haiti envelopes are available at all the main entrances or you can give online via our parish website: www.ourladydunedin.org.

When we renovated the church, the areas left untouched were the back rooms, including the working sacristies and office. It is now necessary to renovate these areas. The project will cost $40,000. If you would like to make a contribution, please contact Mary Kibbey at the Parish Office: mary@ourladydunedin.org. Thank you for all you do to keep our mission alive!

Masks, Sanitizing, Social Distancing, Health Concerns
 I hope you have received the vaccine. While nothing is perfect on this side of heaven, the vaccine protects us and those around us, particularly the most vulnerable (the elderly, children). We have opened all the pews in the church, but we still encourage you to practice social distancing. ~ Fr. Gary

- Everyone is asked to sanitize their hands on entering every public building on our property (Church, DuBois, Conmy and School). There are plenty of sanitizing stations.
- Masks are mandated in the School, DuBois and Conmy Center until Friday, June 4. Beginning Saturday, June 5 masks are optional in these buildings.
- Masks are now optional in the church for those who have been fully vaccinated, and will be completely optional beginning July 1. Please get vaccinated!
- Social distancing is still encouraged. There is space at every Mass.
- If anyone is compromised health wise, they are currently dispensed from the Sunday and Holy Day Obligation.

Can you believe it? It's already the end of the school year. This school year has been tough and challenging for all of us. It has shaped the way we view others and the world around us. It truly has been an adventure, and I'm glad that I had the opportunity to spend it with this 8th grade class.

In 8th grade religion, we focused on justice and morals. I must say, teaching about social justice and morality is one of the most difficult subjects to teach. How can I clearly explain what is right and wrong? Do I actually have the wisdom to explain the truths of truth? The quick answer is "no," I do not. Yet, my students are open to the reality of these difficult ideas.

Even though it was difficult to teach, I had the best time teaching this class. When I saw their faces and heard their responses, I knew they understood. That is the best gift any teacher can receive from their students! Thank you, class of 2021, for teaching and challenging me to be the best teacher that I can be. Thank you for sharing your faith and willingness to learn! You have made me a proud teacher.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Three in One

The number three has great significance in the Bible. In the Old Testament, God is the One who was, who is, and who is to come. The Temple in Jerusalem was built in three parts. Work undertaken for God was to be completed on the third day (Exodus 19:11). The first of the patriarchs, Abraham, recognized God's presence in the visit of three men to his camp at Mamre (Genesis 18). Likewise, in the New Testament, the Gospels describe the saving work of Jesus Christ as fulfilled by his resurrection on the third day after the Crucifixion, and Saint Paul refers to the three gifts of the Spirit (1 Corinthians 13:13). Although Jesus does command his followers to baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19), the term "Trinity" is never used in the scriptures. The Church has never believed that all truth is confined solely to the scriptures; it can also be revealed as the worshiping Church ponders the experience of God at work in the lives of believers. It took three hundred years of such pondering before the Church finally declared the doctrine of the Trinity: the unity of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as three persons in one divine Being. For us today, it is important to understand that "person" did not mean independent being. In traditional understanding, a person was always understood, on some level, as being in relationship to others. So the three persons of the Trinity are always understood as three in one: distinct, but one in being. As human beings made in the likeness of our creator we cannot "go it alone" without dire consequences. We are all here to rely on one another, and so find increasing joy in a faithful life.

Our Lady of the Assumption Catholic School | Charlotte, NC

Dear Mr. Robert Yevich:

Peace and blessings unto you.

I wish to sincerely thank you for the opportunity to share in the celebration of the Holy Mass on Thursdays throughout the 2020-2021 school year.

It was our absolute privilege to be part of such inspiring Masses. We could not help but notice how well prepared, well spoken, and diligent your students are, and how fervently they responded in song during each celebration of the Holy Eucharist. All praises to you and your talented faculty and staff for these accomplishments, and for this hallmark of strong Catholic identity.

We want to make special mention of Father Gary and Father Jonathan for such beautiful Masses. They moved our students, not only to reflect on devotion, but to increase their knowledge of the faith in academic and practical ways. May God continue to bless them richly for this work.

We would also like you to convey our gratitude to Mrs. Suarez for always sending us the song list so we could learn the songs for each week, and to Mr. Oreskovich for facilitating the live stream and adding the lyrics for us. Their work made our experience complete.

Enclosed you will find a check for $300, raised by our students who wanted to do something special as a small token of appreciation. Grades PK through 8 initiated two dress-down days because they wanted to raise money for a charitable cause special to your school or parish. In this way, we feel that we are able to support your efforts as part of your "remote" community. Our students were so excited to do it.

Once again, many, many thanks. Please know that you have friends and cheerleaders in Charlotte, North Carolina, and we will never forget the extra mile you walked to bring students, teachers and parents into the weekly Mass throughout the pandemic.

Continued Blessings,

Allana-Rae Ramkissoon, Principal

Dear Fr. Gary, Fr. Jonathan, and all the staff at Our Lady of Lourdes Parish Family:

It has been my pleasure to be a part of this parish. You have been an inspiration to my life that has changed the way I think about my Catholic faith, especially your teachings about how I can be an example for my children and grandchildren, and be a more caring person for my fellow man. There is always room for improvement in our lives to be more passionate about our Catholic faith.

I will always keep this parish in my daily prayers and I know that you will always keep me in your prayers. As we make our move to Venice, Florida, I just want to say thank you and God bless all of you all the days of your life.

*Best regards,
Francis G.*
