Fr. Gary writes:

Whenever Pope Francis makes a pastoral visit to a country, he is accompanied by an army of journalists, a number of whom travel with him on the plane. During the flight they are given the opportunity to question him, and as you can imagine the questions are varied and usually focus on the hot topics of the day. As he journeyed back to Rome from Slovakia and Hungary on September 15th, the journalists touched on such subjects as vaccinations, abortion, gay marriage, and if Bishops should deny Holy Communion to anyone, which has been a hot topic here in the United States. The Pope recognized there are divisions over the question of vaccinations, though for him getting vaccinated “is an act of love.” One Italian Journalist told the Pope that the European Parliament just approved a resolution calling on all twenty-seven member states to recognize gay marriage, and wanted to know what the Pope thought about this. Pope Francis reaffirmed that marriage “is a sacrament and the church has no power to change the sacraments as the Lord instituted them.” But he also said that “there are laws that try to help the situations of many people who have a different sexual orientation. If a homosexual couple wish to live together, the states have the possibility civilly to support them, to give them security regarding inheritance, health care, etc. They are our brothers and sisters, and we must accompany them. But marriage is marriage.” When questioned about abortion, he said: “Abortion is more than a problem. Abortion is homicide. Take any book on embryology for medical students in medical school. The third week after conception, from the third week, often before the mamma is aware of it, all the organs are already there, even the DNA. Isn't that a person? It is a human life, period. And this human life must be respected. This principle is so clear, and to those who cannot understand, I would ask two questions: is it right to kill a human life to solve a problem? Scientifically, it is human life.”

Pope Francis also stated that he has never denied Holy Communion to anyone. “If we look at the history of the church we will see that every time the bishops have dealt with a problem not as pastors, they have taken on a political stance on a political problem. When the church defends a principle in an unpastoral manner, it acts on a political level. What must the pastor do? Be a pastor. Be a pastor and don't go around condemning. Be a pastor with God's style. And God's style is closeness, compassion and tenderness. Communion is not a prize for the perfect. Communion is a gift, a present, the presence of Jesus in his Church and in the community. Let's not make more excommunications. The people, they are the children of God, and they want and need our pastoral closeness. Then the pastor resolves things as the Spirit tells him.”

While Pope Francis has never altered any Church teaching, any doctrine of the Church, he continues to challenge us all to think and act like Christ, and not to think and act like politicians. We are not a political party, we are Christ's Church.

Altar Servers GOLD Team Oct 9-10

As you can imagine, one of the many challenges of maintaining such a large complex with its individual buildings, is to keep on top of necessary maintenance making sure we don't allow the fabric to crumble before our eyes. We always aim to be good stewards of what God has entrusted to us, good stewards of your resources. We are blessed to have such a professional Maintenance Director in Steve Walker, assisted by Marc Harvey. Every week we have issues which we are able to deal with internally. Over a year ago we knew it was time to turn our attention to the sacristy, which was left off the renovation list a few years ago when we renovated the church. We originally hoped the project would be in the region of $75,000, the amount secured through the Diocesan 'Forward in Faith Campaign' and your loving generosity over the last few weeks. Little did I realize that last year's estimates would be very different to this year's due to inflation, and the general rise in construction costs. It has also proved difficult to secure required materials in a timely fashion. Flooding, after heavy rainfall, has also proved to be a serious issue in this part of the church building, which requires our immediate attention. Our architect has carried out a very detailed survey, and to complete the renovation requires a further $90,000. I would like to complete this project in the most cost-effective way, and avoid returning to it at a later date when costs are even higher. Therefore, we continue to invite donations toward the renovation, which we hope to start as soon as possible. Thank you for your continued generosity, we are blessed!

~Father Gary

MRS. DEB MARTIN
RESOURCE

The Teacher's Prayer

Heavenly Father,
 Enable me to teach wisdom,
 for I help to shape the mind.
 Equip me to teach with truth,
 for I help to shape the conscience.
 Encourage me to teach with vision,
 for I help to shape the future.
 Empower me to teach with love,
 for I help to shape the world.

What is God's purpose for our life?

It's a question that is asked frequently and for some, the answer may not come so easily. For me, I knew at an early age that I wanted to be a teacher.

The beauty of being the Resource teacher here at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic School is that I have the privilege of seeing students across the grades and in every classroom. All of our students are enthusiastic and motivated to learn. They are engaged with each other in their classrooms, and always strive to do their best daily.

My daily encounters with various children bring me so much joy, and each day brings an opportunity for me to learn. From the curiosity of our five-year-olds in Kindergarten to the inquisitive minds of eighth graders asking questions about World issues, there's never a dull moment. In each instance, I'm reminded of the blessing that Jesus Christ has given me, as a teacher, when he guided me so many years ago to the role of supporting and nurturing children. I am truly blessed to be a part of the daily lives of the children here at Our Lady of Lourdes, to learn from them, and to see the world through their eyes.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION EQUAL BEFORE GOD

In today's Gospel Jesus tries to lead his questioners beyond the letter of the Law, with its many human interpretations, to the spirit in which it was given. The basic law from the beginning, he says, is that all human beings were created equal in the image of God. Thus, a man and woman in marriage have equality and a fullness that is expressed in their relationship with each other. (In speaking against divorce, Jesus is actually protective of women, who at that time could be divorced by their husbands, but could not obtain a divorce themselves.) The disciples attempt to keep some children and their parents from disturbing Jesus, probably thinking that women and children were not important enough to disturb the Master! Jesus is indignant at their lack of understanding. For him, the children and their parents have as much right to be with him as anyone else. In fact, he looks at the children gathered around him and says that they are the example that self-important people should imitate. He embraces and blesses them. Young children, in general, accept the rules of life without questioning every little detail. They are open to the love of their parents and trust that rules are imposed for their well-being, even if they do not fully understand them. We are offered the gift of faith by a loving Father. Jesus is asking us to be child-like, not childish, in accepting this gift in simplicity and trust. Learning and discussing issues of faith are fine, but we cannot stop there. Since we do not earn faith—it is feely given to us—we are called to express this faith in how we live our lives. We are equal in God's sight and equally responsible to live up to our calling.

Living Stewardship Now

We have an equal responsibility to serve, yet in the average parish 20 percent of the parishioners do 80 percent of the work and the giving. What can you do, beginning today, to change that percentage?

Peace in Troubled Times, A Workshop

Tuesday, October 26 at 9:30am & 7pm

Espiritu Santo Church Parish Center

Presenter: Dr. Lori Puterbaugh, LMHC, LMFT

We live in a time of chaos and great distress. The pandemic, civil unrest, natural disasters, war, and tumult have led to chronic fear, anger, and traumatic stress for many of us. It can seem nearly impossible to come close to the interior "peace that surpasses all understanding" that Christ has promised. Espiritu Santo Catholic Church, on behalf of all of the parishes of the Central Deanery, is offering this workshop to help us cope with these unprecedented times. The workshop will include prayer, a presentation on managing chronic stress (emotionally, spiritually and physically), and time for discussion and questions. Refreshments and resources will be available. Everyone is welcome.
