A MESSAGE FROM Our Pastor

Pg. 1

Dear Brothers and Sisters In Christ,

Long Live Christ the King!

The messages of the end times and final judgments in the past few weeks may have alerted and alarmed some people. Many Christians may have absorbed the final warnings, or just like most of us, may simply have ignored, or looked in the other direction to avoid having contact with people seeking help.

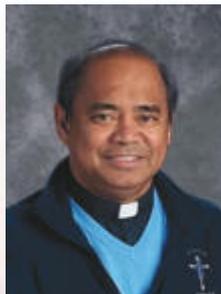

What strikes me most in this gospel passage is when Jesus said: "I was hungry, and you gave me food, thirsty, you gave me drink, naked and you clothed me." The realization that there are many in the world that do not even know Christ and His teachings, are finding out the right thing to do just by essentially living in the presence of God's kindness and truth. Is He in the air? Or is He in the minerals, vitamins, or supplements that we take?

It is the Kingship of Jesus Christ! A Kingship connected under the dominion of His image and likeness, that cannot be conquered by any form of darkness and division. A Kingship that cannot be held hostage by despair, persecution, or helplessness. There is nothing that can detach us from God, as He himself promised, "I myself will look after and tend my sheep... the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal." Ez: 34

This Thanksgiving weekend we can recognize everything God has revealed to us, in gestures expressing the fulness of equal kindness and pure loving care. Even if Jesus continues to walk the earth in the guise of our neighbor, troubled or in need, Christ becomes real to us in so far as we want to reach out and be in communion with Him. This is the Kingship of Christ, Ruler of our Faith, Hope, and Love. "When everything is subjected to Him." 1 Cor: 15

Thank You.

Fr. David Vivero

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

¡Larga vida a Cristo el Rey!

Este mensaje de los tiempos finales y el juicio final puede haber alertado y alarmado a algunas personas. Muchos cristianos quizás han absorbido estas advertencias finales, o como muchos de nosotros, lo han simplemente ignorado, o han mirado para el otro lado para evitar estar en contacto con personas que necesitan ayuda.

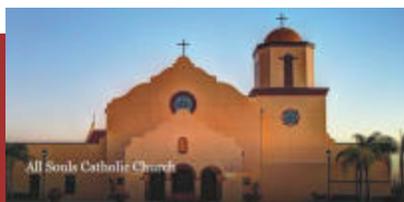

Lo que más me impacta del mensaje de este evangelio es lo que dijo Jesús, "Tuve hambre y ustedes me dieron de comer; tuve sed y ustedes me dieron de beber. Fui forastero y ustedes me recibieron en su casa". La realización que existen muchas personas en el mundo que ni siquiera lo conocen a Cristo y sus enseñanzas, que están descubriendo como hacer lo correcto en esencia al vivir en la presencia de la bondad y verdad de Dios. ¿Está El en le aire? ¿Se encuentra en los minerales, las vitaminas o los suplementos que tomamos?

¡Es el Reinado de Jesucristo! Un Reinado conectado bajo el dominio de su imagen y semejanza, que no puede ser conquistado por ninguna forma de oscuridad y división. Un Reinado que no puede ser rehén de la desesperación, persecución o impotencia. No existe nada que nos puede apartar de Dios, como El mismo nos prometió, "Yo mismo me ocuparé de mis ovejas. Buscaré a la que esté perdida, volveré a traer a la que esté extraviada, curaré a la que esté herida, reanimaré a la que esté enferma". Ez. 34

Este fin de semana de Acción de Gracias, podemos reconocer todo lo que Dios nos ha revelado, con gestos que expresan la plenitud de bondad equilibrada y amor cuidadoso y puro. Aunque Jesús continúe caminando sobre esta tierra en la semejanza de nuestro vecino, inquieto o necesitado, Cristo se hace real para nosotros siempre y cuando queramos extender la mano y estar en comunión con El. Este es el Reinado de Cristo, Soberano de nuestra Fe, Esperanza y Amor. "Cuando hayan sido sometidas a El todas las cosas". 1 Cor. 15

Gracias,

P. David Vivero

Gospel Meditation For Your Day

“M any Americans are fascinated with England’s monarchy. For many different reasons, we are drawn to the regal pageantry and all of the protocols associated with royal lifestyles. What’s most amazing is that for all of the media attention focused on the comings and goings of English royalty, they really have very little effect on the day to day dealings of their country. Thoughts and images of kings and queens are often centered on this story book understanding of who and what they are. We associate protocols, etiquette, and proper words and actions to how we approach members of a royal family. These tools serve the necessary purpose of keeping them isolated, enthroned, and at a distance. There is something attractive about being an observer of ritual, pomp, and circumstance. It’s almost theatrical.

Is this how we see Jesus Christ, too? We often behave as if Christ is an isolated, enthroned, royal, and even ineffective king. Jesus wants nothing to do with having the status of an earthly king. Jesus also does not want to be watched, observed, or set apart. He wants to get down and dirty with the very stuff of life especially the poor, marginalized, confused, hurting, lost, broken, imprisoned, and forgotten ones. Jesus is the king who turns the tables on us and wants not only our attention but our engagement and conversion. He wants us to get dirty too.

How we treat other people is at the heart of Christ’s kingdom. “Whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.” At different times in our lives we are all counted among the “least” ones. We may not be physically poor, but we can easily become emotionally and spiritually poor. We may not be marginalized as many physically are, cast aside because they have too many needs or don’t quite fit in. But who hasn’t experienced isolation, loneliness, inner turmoil, angst, heartache, or loss?

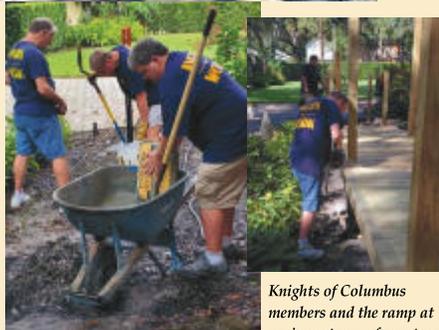

Almost every human being has experienced brokenness at one point or another, or will most definitely at some future point, facing discouragement, fear, insecurity. People are thirsty for more than water. We are imprisoned by our prejudices, misconceived notions and ideas, self-focused obsessions and ideologies. There is a lot of pain and many least ones around us. Stop, look and listen. This is what Christ the King is asking us to do. Look deeply into the eyes and soul of your sisters and brothers, all of them, and see Christ himself.

Being a spectator and observing all of the pageantry isn’t enough. Jesus wants us to inherit the kingdom and live the kingdom. It is built on the blocks of love, mercy, compassion, hope, faith, and blessing. It engages those who want it, changes and informs minds, inspires and transforms hearts, converts and renews souls, and sets things right. There is such a great need around us. Are you ready and willing to do whatever you can to serve in God’s kingdom? ©LPi

We Serve... Building a New Ramp at the Rectory

The old ramp at the rectory was approximately 20 years old and was erected when Father Trout was the pastor. During his tenure at All Souls, Father Trout had the ramp rebuilt three times. The Knights of Columbus began work on the new ramp back in August, working on it exclusively on Saturdays. Along the way there were delays due to weather and life events, but the Knights persevered. In order to build a new ramp, the old ramp had to be completely torn down, this included digging up and removing the concrete that the old supports were in. That was quite the job! (We are told it took a lot of blood and sweat to do.) The new ramp is built out of wood that should last for years to come.

“It has been a really tough job and I am very proud of all the them men that worked on this project.” -Chris Thompson, CRT Seminole

Thanksgiving Day is Coming!

Thanksgiving will be here before you know it, and you will soon be saying, "Pass me the mashed potatoes, please." This November holiday has its roots in American history and has grown into a day where we remember all the things for which we are thankful: country, family, friends, health, etc. Unfortunately, we can find ourselves so caught up with travel plans and buying the perfect turkey or ham that we let the day pass us by, and all we can focus on is how much we ate and who won the day's football games. That's why it is time NOW to begin reflecting daily of all things, great and small, that we are thankful for in life.

Gratitude is a key characteristic of a good Everyday Steward, but it does not develop in us without effort. In the coming days, we can contemplate all those things God has given us. If it helps, we can create a written list and bring it with us to the Thanksgiving dinner table. The point is that too often we take so many gifts for granted, and unless we pause and purposefully reflect, we miss the chance to give thanks. A healthy and hearty heart filled with gratitude can make the highs in life that much higher and the lows easier to bear. Increased gratitude will also bring us closer to the source of all those good gifts, our God.

So, what will Thanksgiving be like for you this year? You have some time to make it something more than it has been in the past. The choice is yours.
- Tracy Earl Welliver ©LPi

A Gratitude Examen Reflection

Gratitude is one of the greatest spiritual practices. It opens our minds, calms our hearts, and rids bitterness of its power. The "Examen" is a spiritual practice to reflect on how we have responded to God's work in our lives. This Thanksgiving, consider your own reasons for thankfulness!

- What Gifts have You given me?
- How have I Received love from others?
- How is grace at work in Aspects of my life story?
- Do I Trust You to continue to bless me?
- Where have I Missed Your movements?
- Have I used my Talents at the service of other?
- Do I see a purpose for my life Underway?
- How can I have the Discipline to thank You daily?
- Help me give Everything back to You!

Congratulations Confirmandi!

This past Saturday, November 14th, All Souls celebrated 73 new confirmed teens and adults. We would like to extend God's blessing to these individuals, who received the Sacrament of Confirmation. May you always know the peace of the Holy Spirit and the light of God's love in your life. And, a special thank you to Bishop Noonan, the celebrant for this Mass.

Get Your Copy of "Today's Missal"

The "Today's Missal" is a wonderful resource for understanding the flow of Mass, as well as readings for Daily, Sunday and special Masses. The front part of the Missal is in English and the back portion is in Spanish. Even though we are unable to provide this resource in the pews, we want you to have the benefit of using it at home or in Church.

In line with Diocesan and CDC guidelines (regarding the use of printed materials during Masses/services) All Souls will be giving out one Missal per family on the weekend of November 21st and 22nd. This new Missal covers the period of Advent (November 28) through the 5th Sunday of Lent (March 21). The books will be available at all of the Church entrance doors and will be distributed by ushers. One per family, please. A few books will be made available through the Parish Office.

This Missal is for each family to keep. You may use it at home and bring it to Mass with you each week. Unfortunately, if it is left after Mass we will need to dispose of it. Replacement copies will not be available.

This is All Souls' Advent gift to you from the Weekend Experience area of our Next Generation Parish efforts. We hope you will enjoy using it, and that it will assist you in following along with the readings.

OFFERTORY Recovery & Restoration Initiative

Offertory Initiative

Building God's Kingdom at All Souls Parish

"Our Offertory Recovery & Restoration Initiative and Online Giving Campaign is underway. We thank you for your generous and continued financial support to our parish community. Please continue to pray for our families, our surrounding community and the care of your neighbor.

Please also take the time to pray and reflect on Fr. David Vivero's letter that you should have received this week. We ask that you use the tear-off form at the bottom of the letter to indicate your gift. Or visit our website page <https://allsoulssanford.weshareonline.org/> to give online. As good stewards we ask, if you are able, to continue your giving commitment.

If you did not receive a letter please go online to our website <https://allsoulssanford.org/giving> and review Fr. David Vivero's letter. You may print the letter and remove the bottom tear-off slip. Return it to the parish by mail or bring it to Mass next week and drop it in our collection boxes at the entrance of the church.

Why Not Try "Online Giving"

We are pleased to provide online giving as an option for your offertory gifts and more. During these unprecedented times, many of you are uncomfortable coming to All Souls in person. Consider enrolling in online giving, just go to our website <https://allsoulssanford.org/giving> and click on the link. You can make a secure one-time offertory contribution or set up recurring contributions. It is a safe and easy way to fulfill your stewardship commitments and make your one-time or recurring donations.

Thank you for your time and your prayers for the success of this initiative."

Providing Catholic Education to Our Youth

Here at All Souls Catholic School, we believe our children are our future, and for over 60 years, the faculty and staff of All Souls have helped each child grow academically, spiritually, and emotionally. Whether you are a parent or grandparent of an alumnus, a longtime parishioner or one of our newer families, we want you to know that the school is always striving to provide the highest education possible for the students. The annual fund is an opportunity for us, as a community, to continue on with our mission of providing Catholic education to our youth.

To help ensure that All Souls Catholic School will be strong and prosper for another 60 years, we are inviting parishioners to make direct contributions to the school through our Annual Giving Campaign.

It is our intention with this campaign to provide an opportunity for you, if interested, to support the mission of Catholic education beyond your current offering. When you consider your overall charitable contributions, we hope you will consider All Souls Catholic School as a possible recipient.

Our school is a precious heritage that has been built, maintained and supported by generations of caring parishioners who were willing to make the necessary sacrifices. If you share our belief that All Souls Catholic School plays a significant part in ensuring the future of our faith and in helping to build a caring and responsible community, please complete the tax-deductible financial contribution and/or your gift of prayer. If you are unable to make a special gift to the school at this time, please look to the future, as this will be an ongoing opportunity. Should you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact the school office at 407.322.7090.

We thank you on behalf of all our students at All Souls Catholic School. May God bless you abundantly!

Andrew Dũng-Lac and companions

(1791 – December 21, 1839; Companions d. 1820 – 1862)

Andrew Dũng-Lac, a Catholic convert ordained to the priesthood, was one of 117 people martyred in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862. Members of the companions group gave their lives for Christ in the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries, and received beatification during four different occasions between 1900 and 1951. All were canonized during the papacy of Saint John Paul II.

Christianity came to Vietnam through the Portuguese. Jesuits opened the first permanent mission at Da Nang in 1615. They ministered to Japanese Catholics who had been driven from Japan.

Severe persecutions were launched at least three times in the 19th century. During the six decades after 1820, between 100,000 and 300,000 Catholics were killed or subjected to great hardship. In 1832, Emperor Minh-Mang banned all foreign missionaries, and tried to make all Vietnamese deny their faith by trampling on a crucifix. Like the priest-holes in Ireland during English persecution, many hiding places were offered in homes of the faithful. Persecution broke out again in 1847, when the emperor suspected foreign missionaries and Vietnamese Christians of sympathizing with a rebellion led by one of his sons.

The last of the martyrs were 17 laypersons, one of them a 9-year-old, executed in 1862. That year a treaty with France guaranteed religious freedom to Catholics, but it did not stop all persecution. By 1954, there were over a million Catholics—about seven percent of the population—in the north. Buddhists represented about 60 percent. Persistent persecution forced some 670,000 Catholics to abandon lands, homes and possessions and flee to the south. In 1964, there were still 833,000 Catholics in the north, but many were in prison. In the south, Catholics were enjoying the first decade of religious freedom in centuries, their numbers swelled by refugees.

During the Vietnamese war, Catholics again suffered in the north, and again moved to the south in great numbers. Now reunited, the entire country is under Communist rule.

The Baby Steps Camino

The Order of Malta American Association presents the 4th Annual Baby Steps Camino™, a 3 day beach-walking pilgrimage December 11th-13th from the historic Beaches Museum Chapel in Jacksonville Beach to Our Lady of La Leche National Shrine at Mission Nombre de Dios in St. Augustine. Join us for Mass, Confession, Holy Hours, and pilgrim socials as we walk in this ancient method of prayer during Advent.

Pilgrims are welcome to join us 1, 2, or all 3 days of the pilgrimage. A guided "mini pilgrimage", the Bambino Camino™, a 2 mile walk from Vilano Beach to the Shrine on December 13th, the final day of pilgrimage, is an easy walk for pilgrims of all abilities. Non-walkers are also most welcome to join us on the final day for the events at the Shrine. Register online at www.babystepscamino.com

Angel Tree: A Different Way of Giving This Year

This year, St. Vincent de Paul's ANGEL TREE is going virtual! We are using Target.com and Walmart.com for your convenience. Playing Santa is just a mouse click away!

Here's How:

Visit Target.com or Walmart.com and look for "Registry". Then, click and enter the registry name, and it will open to our wish list.

Target and Walmart registry name: SVDP ANGEL TREE All Souls

Be as generous as your circumstances allow. Items purchased will ship directly to SVDP at All Souls.

Gift Cards for Walmart, Target and Amazon are also so appreciated. We also welcome gift cards from McDonald's, Burger King, Chick-fil-A, Subway and any other fast-food restaurants. Gift cards can be dropped off at the indicated box in the church, or placed in an envelope marked SVDP Angel Tree and dropped off at the Parish Office.

The conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at All Souls Catholic Church thanks you and sends you blessings for the Advent season.

Don't Forget to Pick Up Your Festival Premiums

If you made a qualifying donation ($20+) to the Festival please pick up your premium(s) at the Parish Office this week, or call with a pick up date.
