"Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.
For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had,
her whole livelihood."

- Mk 12:43-44

With Christ as our center, we will embrace ALL SOULS as we worship, welcome, educate and serve in an environment of love and compassion.

A MESSAGE FROM Our Pastor

My dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Sunday's Gospel according to Mark, Jesus tells us that God measures our gifts not by outward appearances but by the interior spirit of generosity. "For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." In Jesus' eyes, the widow gave more than all the other contributors to the Temple, although her gift was "two small coins worth a few cents". Her gift was the greatest because she gave all she had to the Lord, with pure and humble intentions, and completely trusted that God would provide for all her needs.

Recall from last Sunday's readings, Jesus makes it clear that we are to love the Lord with all our being, and to love our neighbor as ourselves, for this is "worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices". Jesus demonstrates this perfectly through the offering of his life on the Cross for us. Because he was free from sin and offered all he had to the Father, his Sacrifice has infinite merit for us. As the author to the letter of Hebrews writes, "once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice." Today, we are invited at every Mass to participate in the same sacrifice on Calvary and offer all that we have in union with Jesus' sacrifice for the sake of our salvation.

Like the widows in the first and Gospel readings, we are called to trust in the word of the Lord: "Do not be afraid"! Even in difficult and uncertain times that we may be facing, God calls us to abandon ourselves to his total care and providence. Our God is able and willing to do for us beyond what we can imagine or ask for, so let us entrust our whole lives to him. In thanksgiving, may we offer ourselves entirely to the Lord without hesitation or reservation.

This weekend, let us also give thanks to God for the generosity of numerous women and men who have donated their time, talent, and treasure to organize the Community Harvest Festival for our parish and wider community. May the Lord bless us abundantly and provide for all our needs as we put our trust in him.

Fr. David Vivero

Mis Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

En el Evangelio de este domingo según Marcos, Jesús nos dice que Dios mide nuestros dones no por las apariencias externas, sino por el espíritu interior de generosidad. "Porque todos han contribuido con su riqueza excedente, pero ella, desde su pobreza, ha contribuido con todo lo que tenía, todo su sustento". A los ojos de Jesús, la viuda dio más que todos los demás contribuyentes al Templo, aunque su obsequio fue "dos monedas pequeñas por valor de unos pocos centavos". Su regalo fue el más grande porque dio todo lo que tenía al Señor, con intenciones puras y humildes, y confiaba completamente en que Dios proveería para todas sus necesidades.

Recordemos las lecturas del domingo pasado, Jesús deja en claro que debemos amar al Señor con todo nuestro ser y amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos, porque esto "vale más que todos los holocaustos y sacrificios". Jesús lo demuestra perfectamente al ofrecer su vida en la Cruz por nosotros. Debido a que estaba libre de pecado y ofreció todo lo que tenía al Padre, su Sacrificio tiene un mérito infinito para nosotros. Como escribe el autor de la carta de Hebreos, "apareció una vez para siempre al final de los siglos para quitar el pecado con su sacrificio". Hoy, en cada misa se nos invita a participar en el mismo sacrificio en el Calvario y ofrecer todo lo que tenemos en unión con el sacrificio de Jesús por el bien de nuestra salvación.

Como las viudas de la primera lectura y del Evangelio, estamos llamados a confiar en la palabra del Señor: "¡No temas"! Incluso en los momentos difíciles e inciertos que podamos estar atravesando, Dios nos llama a que nos abandonemos a su total cuidado y providencia. Nuestro Dios puede y está dispuesto a hacer por nosotros más allá de lo que podamos imaginar o pedir, así que encomendemos toda nuestra vida a él. En acción de gracias, que nos ofrezcamos enteramente al Señor sin vacilación ni reserva.

Este fin de semana, también demos gracias a Dios por la generosidad de numerosas mujeres y hombres que han donado su tiempo, talento y tesoro para organizar el Festival de la Cosecha Comunitaria para nuestra parroquia y la comunidad en general. Que el Señor nos bendiga abundantemente y satisfaga todas nuestras necesidades al poner nuestra confianza en él.

All Souls Day Mass at Cemetery

On All Souls Day, Nov. 2nd, a Mass was held at All Souls Cemetery for "The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed". The parish community gathered together to celebrate this Mass, and remember those dearly beloved that have passed on. Fr. David presided over a beautiful Mass, on an equally beautiful day, in remembrance of all souls. May we all continue to serve by remembering and praying for the souls of those who have left this earth, and may one day we too be so blessed by prayers for our souls.

Blessed John Duns Scotus

A humble man, John Duns Scotus has been one of the most influential Franciscans through the centuries. Born at Duns in the county of Berwick, Scotland, John was descended from a wealthy farming family. In later years, he was identified as John Duns Scotus to indicate the land of his birth; Scotia is the Latin name for Scotland.

John received the habit of the Friars Minor at Dumfries, where his uncle Elias Duns was superior. After novitiate, John studied at Oxford and Paris and was ordained in 1291. More studies in Paris followed until 1297, when he returned to lecture at Oxford and Cambridge. Four years later, he returned to Paris to teach and complete the requirements for the doctorate.

In an age when many people adopted whole systems of thought without qualification, John pointed out the richness of the Augustinian-Franciscan tradition, appreciated the wisdom of Aquinas, Aristotle, and the Muslim philosophers—and still managed to be an independent thinker. That quality was proven in 1303, when King Philip the Fair tried to enlist the University of Paris on his side in a dispute with Pope Boniface VIII. John Duns Scotus dissented, and was given three days to leave France.

In Scotus's time, some philosophers held that people are basically determined by forces outside themselves. Free will is an illusion, they argued. An ever-practical man, Scotus said that if he started beating someone who denied free will, the person would immediately tell him to stop. But if Scotus didn't really have a free will, how could he stop? John had a knack for finding illustrations his students could remember!

After a short stay in Oxford, Scotus returned to Paris, where he received the doctorate in 1305. He continued teaching there and in 1307 so ably defended the Immaculate Conception of Mary that the university officially adopted his position. That same year the minister general assigned him to the Franciscan school in Cologne where John died in 1308. He is buried in the Franciscan church near the famous Cologne cathedral.

Drawing on the work of John Duns Scotus, Pope Pius IX solemnly defined the Immaculate Conception of Mary in 1854. John Duns Scotus, the "Subtle Doctor," was beatified in 1993.
