"The winding roads shall be made straight,
and the rough ways made smooth,
and all flesh shall see the salvation of God. "

- Mk 7:37

With Christ as our center, we will embrace ALL SOULS as we worship, welcome, educate and serve in an environment of love and compassion.

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus!

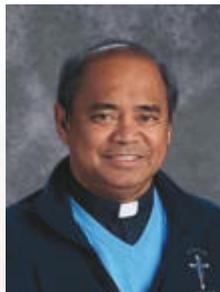

Our cultural view of Advent tells us that we are preparing and anticipating the birth of baby Jesus at Christmas, and as we get closer to that day, we are filled with the spirit of the holiday season: warmth, joy, and newness of life. Yet, John's message of "repentance" is a needed reminder that we must examine our life in light of the promise of God's salvation and remember the adult Jesus, who will return to judge the living and the dead. Thus, Advent is not only a time to remember the First Coming of the Lord, but also a time to prepare our minds and hearts to look forward to the Second Coming of Christ at the end of time.

In our Gospel reading this Sunday, Luke points out the political and historical details to direct us to the time and place in history when John the Baptist began proclaiming "a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins". The people of Israel were under the dominion of the rulers of this world. Times were uncertain and God has been silent: Israel had not had a prophet in over 400 years since the time of the prophet Malachi. Finally, after the long silence, God raises up a prophet through John the Baptist, the new Elijah, the voice crying out in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths."

Like John the Baptist, each of us, by virtue of Baptism, are also called to be a prophet, proclaiming the Good News of hope and salvation to God's people. In order to bring the word of God to others, we ourselves need to spend time listening to the voice of God. The "desert" is a place of retreat, trial and temptations, but it is also the place where we can be alone with God, attentive to his voice. During our time of reflection and preparation, let us pray with St. Paul, that our love may increase ever more, and that we may be found blameless for the day of the Christ. Let us vigilantly prepare ourselves and joyfully anticipate the coming of our Lord.

This Advent season, as we prepare for the Solemnities of Christmas, how does the theme of repentance play out in your daily priorities? How can we make our lives more "straight" and "smooth" in order to prepare for the coming of the Lord, now and at the end of time?

Fr. David Vivero

Mis Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo, ¡Maranatha! ¡Ven, Señor Jesús!

Nuestra visión cultural del Adviento nos dice que nos estamos preparando y anticipando el nacimiento del niño Jesús en Navidad, y a medida que nos acercamos a ese día, nos llenamos del espíritu de la temporada navideña: calidez, alegría y novedad de vida. Sin embargo, el mensaje de "arrepentimiento" de Juan es un recordatorio necesario de que debemos examinar nuestra vida a la luz de la promesa de la salvación de Dios y recordar al Jesús adulto, quien regresará para juzgar a los vivos y a los muertos. Por lo tanto, el Adviento no es solo un momento para recordar la Primera Venida del Señor, sino también un momento para preparar nuestras mentes y corazones para esperar la Segunda Venida de Cristo al final de los tiempos.

En nuestra lectura del Evangelio de este domingo, Lucas señala los detalles políticos e históricos para dirigirnos al tiempo y lugar de la historia cuando Juan el Bautista comenzó a proclamar "un bautismo de arrepentimiento para perdón de pecados". El pueblo de Israel estaba bajo el dominio de los gobernantes de este mundo. Los tiempos eran inciertos y Dios ha estado en silencio: Israel no había tenido un profeta en más de 400 años desde la época del profeta Malaquías. Finalmente, después del largo silencio, Dios levanta a un profeta a través de Juan el Bautista, el nuevo Elías, la voz que clama en el desierto: "Preparan el camino del Señor, endereza sus sendas".

Como Juan el Bautista, cada uno de nosotros, en virtud del Bautismo, también estamos llamados a ser un profeta, proclamando la Buena Nueva de esperanza y salvación al pueblo de Dios. Para llevar la palabra de Dios a los demás, nosotros mismos necesitamos dedicar tiempo a escuchar la voz de Dios. El "desierto" es un lugar de retiro, prueba y tentaciones, pero también es el lugar donde podemos estar a solas con Dios, atentos a su voz. Durante nuestro tiempo de reflexión y preparación, recemos con San Pablo, para que nuestro amor crezca cada vez más y seamos irreprochables para el día de Cristo. Preparémonos atentamente y anticipemos con alegría la venida de nuestro Señor.

En esta temporada de Adviento, mientras nos preparamos para las solemnidades de Navidad, ¿cómo se juega el tema del arrepentimiento en sus prioridades diarias? ¿Cómo podemos hacer que nuestra vida sea más "recta" y "suave" a fin de prepararnos para la venida del Señor, ahora y al final de los tiempos?

We Serve...

By Bringing The Word To All!

On Sunday, Nov. 21st, the Parish began operating the new camera system, inside the church, to live-stream the 10am and Noon Masses. As of Saturday, Nov. 27th, the AV screens system within the church, began displaying the words and music lyrics for elements of the liturgy at all the Masses. These two initiatives are the result of the hard work and coordinated efforts of many staff members, volunteers, and technicians. In a sense, it's all part of the mission of the church to bring God's Word to the people (wherever they are). The lockdowns of 2020 became a catalyst for many churches to develop or expand their digital presence, and our parish responded to the call by bringing God's Word to All Souls!

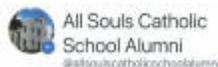

All Souls Council of Catholic Women

Ladies of the parish, our next general meeting is our Christmas party on December 7th, at 7pm in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Bring a gift if you would like to join in the fun of the gift exchange game (maximum $15). All are invited. Contact Eleanor Tolley, president at 321-279-1843 or email: etolley16@gmail.com.

Grupo de Oración

El Grupo de Oración "Jesús, María y Jose" te invita todos los lunes a las 7:15pm a la Capilla Histórica. Comenzamos con el Santo Rosario, música, canto, oraciones, lectura de la palabra de Dios y reflexión. Únanse a nosotros en alabanza, meditación y en agra-decimiento al amor que Jesús, María y Jose nos tienen. María y Jose te invitan a presentar tus situaciones y tu amor al que siempre te espera, Jesús. Para información: 407-468-9075

Saint Ambrose

One of Ambrose's biographers observed that at the Last Judgment, people would still be divided between those who admired Ambrose and those who heartily disliked him. He emerges as the man of action who cut a furrow through the lives of his contemporaries. Even royal personages were numbered among those who were to suffer crushing divine punishments for standing in Ambrose's way.

337 – April 4, 397

When the Empress Justina attempted to wrest two basilicas from Ambrose's Catholics and give them to the Arians, he dared the eunuchs of the court to execute him. His own people rallied behind him in the face of imperial troops. In the midst of riots, he both spurred and calmed his people with bewitching new hymns set to exciting Eastern melodies. In his disputes with the Emperor Auxentius, he coined the principle: "The emperor is in the Church, not above the Church." He publicly admonished Emperor Theodosius for the massacre of 7,000 innocent people. The emperor did public penance for his crime. This was Ambrose, the fighter sent to Milan as Roman governor, and chosen while yet a catechumen to be the people's bishop.

Vincentian Reflections

“ In today’s Gospel John the Baptist urges us to “Prepare the way of the Lord,” and this is what Advent is all about. Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Millions of people annually celebrate the December 12th Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. On that date, our Holy Mother appeared to Juan Diego Cuauhtlatocatz in 1531, on Tepeyac hill. The image of Our Lady of Guadalupe, that miraculously appeared on his robe (tilma), is visible above the altar inside the modern, circular Basilica of Santa María de Guadalupe, in Mexico City.

Join All Souls this year at the church, on Sunday, December 12th, during the Noon Mass, as we all celebrate the first miraculous appearance of our Holy Mother in the Western Hemisphere. (Note: When December 12th falls on a Sunday, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe is not liturgically celebrated, although she is still honored.)

- Where: All Souls Church (SR 46)
- When: December 12, 2021, 12pm-3pm
- What: Celebration including Mariachi musicians; authentic Mexican food after the Mass; fellowship gathering - all are welcome!
