THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them, and his mother kept all these things in her heart. Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

- Lk 2:51-52

With Christ as our center, we will embrace ALL SOULS as we worship, welcome, educate and serve in an environment of love and compassion.

A MESSAGE FROM Our Pastor

Pg. 1

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Merry Christmas!

On this Sunday, the day after the Nativity of the Lord and the last Sunday of the calendar year, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. By celebrating the Sunday right after Christmas as the Feast of the Holy Family, the Church encourages us to look to the family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph for inspiration and encouragement. They are the perfect role models for us. Though free from sin, the Holy Family was not spared from the trials and difficulties that our families encounter every day. They, too, had their share of economic, social and personal concerns. Yet, they did not fail to love and sacrifice for one another in their daily lives.

What does it mean for a family to be holy? St. Paul writes to the Colossians: "Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another". Reflect on each of these virtues and see how we can become more "set apart for God" in our daily interactions with one another, both in our own families and in the family of God. On this day, may we offer our families to God and ask for the guidance of the Holy Family on each member. If there is someone we need to forgive, let us ask the Lord for forgiveness and the grace to forgive others. Let us also pray for the members of our parish and of the whole Church, that we may recognize, love and serve Christ in one another.

How is your family life holy? How do you experience the presence of God within your family?

Fr. David Vivero

Mis Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

¡Feliz Navidad!

En este domingo, el día después de la Natividad del Señor y último domingo del año calendario, celebramos la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José. Al celebrar el domingo inmediatamente después de Navidad como la fiesta de la Sagrada Familia, la Iglesia nos anima a mirar a la familia de Jesús, María y José en busca de inspiración y aliento. Son los modelos perfectos para nosotros. Aunque libre de pecado, la Sagrada Familia no se libró de las pruebas y dificultades que nuestras familias enfrentan todos los días. Ellos también tenían su parte de preocupaciones económicas, sociales y personales. Sin embargo, no dejaron de amarse y sacrificarse el uno por el otro en su vida diaria.

¿Qué significa que una familia sea santa? San Pablo escribe a los Colosenses: "Vestíos, como elegidos de Dios, santos y amados, de la compasión, la bondad, la humildad, la mansedumbre y la paciencia de corazón, soportándonos y perdonándonos unos a otros". Reflexiona sobre cada una de estas virtudes y ver cómo podemos llegar a ser más "apartados para Dios" en nuestras interacciones diarias entre nosotros, tanto en nuestra propia familia como en la familia de Dios. En este día, podemos ofrecer nuestras familias a Dios y pedir la guía de los Sagrada Familia en cada miembro. Si hay alguien a quien debemos perdonar, pidamos al Señor perdón y la gracia de perdonar a los demás. Oremos también por los miembros de nuestra parroquia y de toda la Iglesia, para que reconozcamos, amar y servir a Cristo los unos en los otros.

¿Cómo es santa tu vida familiar? ¿Cómo experimentas la presencia de Dios en tu familia?

P. David Vivero

Saint Thomas Becket

A strong man who wavered for a moment, but then learned one cannot come to terms with evil, and so became a strong churchman, a martyr, and a saint—that was Thomas Becket, archbishop of Canterbury, murdered in his cathedral on December 29, 1170.

His career had been a stormy one. While archdeacon of Canterbury, he was made chancellor of England at the age of 36 by his friend King Henry II. When Henry felt it advantageous to make his chancellor the archbishop of Canterbury, Thomas gave him fair warning: he might not accept all of Henry's intrusions into Church affairs. Nevertheless, in 1162 he was made archbishop, resigned his chancellorship, and reformed his whole way of life!

Troubles began. Henry insisted upon usurping Church rights. At one time, supposing some conciliatory action possible, Thomas came close to compromise. He momentarily approved the Constitutions of Clarendon, which would have denied the clergy the right of trial by a Church court and prevented them from making direct appeal to Rome. But Thomas rejected the Constitutions, fled to France for safety, and remained in exile for seven years. When he returned to England he suspected it would mean certain death. Because Thomas refused to remit censures he had placed upon bishops favored by the king, Henry cried out in a rage, "Will no one rid me of this troublesome priest!" Four knights, taking his words as his wish, slew Thomas in the Canterbury cathedral. Thomas Becket remains a hero-saint down to our own times.

The Nativity of the Lord

On this day, the Church focuses especially on the newborn Child, God become human, who embodies for us all the hope and peace we seek. We need no other special saint today to lead us to Christ in the manger, although his mother Mary and Joseph, caring for his foster-son, help round out the scene.

But if we were to select a patron for today, perhaps it might be appropriate for us to imagine an anonymous shepherd, summoned to the birthplace by a wondrous and even disturbing vision in the night, a summons from an angelic choir, promising peace and goodwill. A shepherd willing to seek out something that might just be too unbelievable to chase after, and yet compelling enough to leave behind the flocks in the field and search for a mystery.

On the day of the Lord's birth, let's let an unnamed, "non-celebrity" at the edge of the crowd model for us the way to discover Christ in our own hearts—somewhere between skepticism and wonder, between mystery and faith. And like Mary and the shepherds, let's treasure that discovery in our hearts.

Who Created The First Nativity Scene? Read on for the surprise answer...

Every year, one of your favorite Christmas traditions is probably setting up your Nativity set.

Perhaps your nativity is made of wood, or silver, or china, or simple plastic; maybe you put it on the mantelpiece, or in the center of the dining room table. Many of us have a large one that we place outdoors so that passers-by can enjoy it; we might also have a tiny one that we place by our bedside to remind ourselves of the reason for the Christmas season.

We keep the Baby Jesus hidden away, ready to place Him in the manger on Christmas morning.

The three Kings are placed in a different part of the house; they will arrive on Epiphany and not before.

Devout citizens place Nativity scenes in public places, at state capitols, in parks, to bring the light of Christmas to their fellow-men. They fight to keep Christ in the public square even as others try to remove Him. This year, after all the struggle, 40 states have a Nativity scene in or at their capitol building.

But who invented the Nativity scene?

It was a deacon in Italy in the 13th century, who had a special love for the Child Jesus. He hatched a plan to inspire this same love in the townspeople.

In a cave near the town, he set up a manger and brought a real ox and donkey to play their part. He invited the people to Midnight Mass at the cave, and they came, the forest ringing with song and bright with candlelight. After chanting the Gospel, the deacon preached a sermon about the Babe of Bethlehem, Whose Name he could not utter for sheer love.

He kept the manger empty, since the Child had not arrived yet. But one man—a holy citizen and former soldier who was a friend of the deacon—said that he saw, in the manger, a beautiful, radiant Child. He witnessed the deacon gathering this Child devoutly in his arms.

Of course, the deacon was none other than St. Francis of Assisi, and this is the story of the first Nativity scene, as related by St. Bonaventure in his biography of the saint. Bonaventure also relates that the hay from that first crèche was saved by the townspeople in attendance and that it miraculously cured ailing cattle.

When we put our Nativity sets out this Christmas, we are continuing a tradition that started nearly 800 years ago, in 1223. (Reprinted from an article by The Catholic Company)

Merry Christmas From The Priests and Staff of All Souls Parish!

This Christmas and New Year, the priests and staff of All Souls Parish wish you and your loved ones a joyous season of Our Lord's birth!

May His Holy Spirit be with each of you throughout the new year, so we may all remember that the light has come into the world and that our true joy is not of this world, but to be found in knowing His boundless love for us!

A Christmas Prayer

God, our Creator, we offer this humble prayer on Christmas Day. We come to worship with a song of thanks in our hearts—a song of redemption, a song of hope and renewal. We pray for joy in our hearts, hope in our God, love to forgive, and peace upon the earth. We ask for the salvation of all our family members and friends, and we pray your blessings on all people. May there be bread for the hungry, love for the unlovable, healing for the sick, protection for our children, and wisdom for our youth. We pray for the forgiveness of sinners and abundant life in Christ. Holy Spirit, fill our hearts with your love and power. In the name of Jesus Christ we pray. Amen. By Lia Icaza Willetts

Word of God: Scripture & Tradition

Starting Wednesday January 5, 2022, from 6:30 PM - 7:30 PM, we will begin a weekly study series on God's self-revelation throughout salvation history as it has been received and handed on by the believing community in the forms of sacred Scripture and sacred Tradition. We will examine the central teachings of the Catholic Faith (such as creation, fall, and redemption, Trinity and incarnation, the Church and the Holy Spirit) as these have been expressed in the Scriptures and developed throughout the history of the Church's tradition. Instructor: Carl Weckenmann. To register, please email Llyana Vu, or call the Parish Office at 407-322-3795.

The Sacraments

The Sacrament of Reconciliation

Confessions are heard each week on Saturday at the Church (SR #46) from 2pm - 3pm and Fridays at the Historic Chapel from 9am - 10am

The Sacrament of Baptism

Call the parish office to learn the necessary requirements and make an appointment to have your child baptized.

The Sacrament of Marriage

Getting married? Congratulations! The process of being married in the Catholic Church could take between 6 months to a year to complete. Please contact the parish office as soon as possible after your engagement if you would like to be married at All Souls Catholic Church.

Anointing of the Sick

Please call the parish office. There is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. The Sacrament may be repeated if the person becomes sick again. A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention.

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick and Homebound

If you are unable to attend Mass, please call the parish office so we may assist you in having a visit from one of our ministers or one of our priests.

Eucharistic Adoration

Please join us for Eucharistic Adoration on Wednesdays from 6:30pm - 7:30pm (please check the Parish Calendar), and Fridays from 9am-10am, at the Historic Chapel.

Catholic Funeral and Burial

Please call the parish office or have the funeral home director contact us to arrange the Funeral Mass and for more information about burial at All Souls Catholic Cemetery.

March for Life MARCH for LIFE St. Augustine, Sat., January 15th

In 2022, the Knights of Columbus will be sponsoring a "March for Life" Bus Trip to St. Augustine, on Sat., January 15th, from 8AM to 6PM. This important gathering to support the dignity and right to "Life" is Free for the first 55 who register.

Please fill out the registration form using this link: <https://www.marchforlifestaugustine.com/>

Participants will assemble at the Knights of Columbus Council 5357 Hall at 7:45AM on Saturday, Jan. 15th. The bus will leave by no later than 8:30AM. Coffee and pastries will be provided at the Council Hall, which is located at:
KofC Council Hall, 2509 Myrtle Ave, Sanford, FL 32773

The bus trip should take about 2-hours. Passengers will arrive in time to assemble and then participate in the "March for Life" in St. Augustine, at the Mission Nombre de Dios. The march will end at the Plaza de la Constitucion, across the street from the Cathedral Church. The march typically starts around 11:45AM so participants will have time to listen to the guest speakers, and some music while everyone is assembling for the march. The march takes about 30-mins, from the Mission to the Plaza. Various Pro-Life signs will be provided, with which to march. Or, feel free to make and bring your own!

The Keynote Speakers will be presenting at the Plaza (listed below). After listening to them, participants are free to spend some time exploring St. Augustine and having lunch/dinner on their own.
