12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

WELCOME FROM OUR PASTOR

Welcome to St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church on beautiful Siesta Key!

Whether you are a full-time parishioner, seasonal resident, or just visiting us for a short time, you are very welcome to our glorious faith community.

St. Michael's parish has been serving the Siesta Key community for over 60 years. What started as a Mission Church serving just 40 local Catholic families has grown exponentially over the decades. This growth correlates to Siesta Key's rise in popularity as a tourist destination due to its consistent ranking as one of the top beaches in the nation.

Today an estimated 400,000 Catholics visit Siesta Key each year, and our parish is now ministering to the faithful from all over the world. We have also become a popular place for not only "Destination Weddings" but also "Destination Baptisms", and other family events.

Feel free to visit our website for more information on our parish (stmichaelssiesta.com), download our mobile app (instructions on website), follow us on social media or view our Masses via Live Stream through our YouTube channel.

We are blessed to have you with us.

Fr. Michael Cannon
Pastor

FATHER MICHAEL'S RAMBLINGS

May the peace and love of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you. I am praying, as always, that my words are finding everyone healthy and well on this Father's Day weekend.

I want to wish all dads a very special day. I also want to remember the dads who have already gone to God, but who remain totally and completely in our hearts. We give thanks to God for each one of them and we honor them today for their love and sacrifices, which enhanced our lives greatly. And of course I especially want to acknowledge my own dad, John Cannon, and thank him for his love and support throughout my life.

This weekend is a very special time in my life also. On Sunday, June 21, 1981, I was ordained to the Priesthood in my hometown of Letterkenny in the County of Donegal in Ireland. That was forty years ago! I was speaking with some former classmates this past week and we all wondered where these forty years went! But the calendar doesn't lie, we concluded!!

I have ministered to many faith communities over the years, including here at St. Michael the Archangel since November 1, 2015. Each experience has brought me not only great joy but also unique challenges. We have had our share of challenges here at St. Michael's, but God has always provided for our needs. Right now, we are preparing to begin two large building projects: Church Renovation and New Ministry Center. God is good and I firmly believe that God will bring these projects to completion in God's time.

I want to thank the people of the parish and our many visitors for how you have helped and supported me and our faith community over the years. I pray God's continued blessing upon all of us as together we prepare for the monumental task ahead.

I am also grateful to the many other faith communities among whom I've ministered in my years of priesthood, both here in the United States and in Ireland. Each of you enriched and touched my life in ways that you may not even realize. You created wonderful memories for me - which I often recall. Thanks to each of you for that love and support.

May God bless each of you. And again, a blessed Father's Day to all our dads.

Fr. Michael

Waking God

A show of hands, ladies and gentlemen. Have any of you been given the silent treatment and had absolutely no idea why?

On the flipside, have any of you have sworn you're not going to demean yourself by explaining, for the thousandth time, that you need extra help with the kids before soccer practice, or that you feel ignored when your spouse doesn't ask how your day went?

But sadly, love doesn't give you the ability to read minds. And in the end, we learn the lesson again and again, we have to verbalize our feelings, our needs, our wants. Expecting your partner to anticipate your needs is guaranteed to end badly.

It's the same with God, even though, oddly enough, He does have the ability to read minds. But He still desires us to explain ourselves to Him, doesn't He? "I'm feeling scared of this." "I'm really worried about that." "God, I think I need x, y and z. Help me. Please."

Jesus slept on that boat, as it was tossed and turned by the waves, until his disciples woke him. "Why were you sleeping?" they ask. Well, geniuses, he was sleeping because they hadn't woken him up yet. They had wasted time cowering in fear, waiting for him to act. They gave him the silent treatment and they didn't even know it.

God doesn't desire us to verbalize our needs as a way of keeping us submissive. He's not that petty. What He desires is the communication — that's what really counts. That act of opening yourself up, of becoming vulnerable, of relying on Him, trusting Him. If it feel like God is asleep in your life, ask yourself this, have you tried waking Him up?

A big thank you to local artist Lily Easa, age 5, for her lovely composition titled 'Fr. Michael, Lily and Jesus.'

Fr. Michael loved the very special work of art and was so thankful to Lily for her creation.

Lily has been chosen as the parish bulletin's staff artist, so Lily, feel free to send us artwork of Jesus from time to time and we'll be sure to share it with our parishioners.

Congratulations, Lily!

Your Loving Flock at St. Michael the Archangel

“THE PRIEST IS NOT A PRIEST FOR HIMSELF;

he does not give himself absolution; he does not administer the Sacraments to himself. He is not for himself,

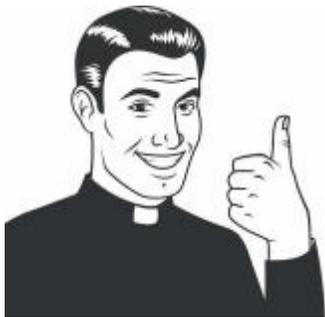

HE IS FOR YOU.”

St. John Vianney, Patron Saint of Priests

Discerning the Priesthood

The Church needs good men to serve as priests. If you or someone you know is discerning the priesthood, a good place to start is with prayer. The closer we come to God, the more clearly we understand His call for us. Secondly, talk to your pastor for guidance, advice and direction. Get involved with your Church and a good, life-giving, Catholic community to support you in living a good, moral life. Be nourished by God's word and the Body and Blood of Christ on a daily basis by participating in the daily celebration of Mass. Grow in love for the Eucharistic Lord through Adoration. Set aside daily time for prayer. Pray the rosary and seek the powerful intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. And talk to a Vocation Director for information about seminary and priestly life. A Prayer for our Priests

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding and strength
they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.

A Father's Day Blessing

We all know how important mothers are to the well-being of a family. Fathers are as important as mothers are, but offer a different perspective on life and bring a much needed role in bringing up children. Let us welcome all fathers today to the forefront of our lives and acknowledge how important they have been, and continue to be in our lives.

Gracious God and Father, our first father,
You are the One who has brought us to life in this world you created.
You created us and everything around us.
We turned away from you
and only after disappointing you did we return your love.

Look with favor on our earthly fathers.
They have helped create us in your image.
We have disappointed them,
But have come to realize just how important they are to us.

Bless all our fathers, living and deceased, with comfort and health.
We bring all their needs to you
And ask for strength so they may live worthy lives.

We ask all this in the name of your Son,
Our model of what it means to reverence our fathers.
In Christ's name.

Amen

MINISTRY MESSAGE BOARD

BIBLE STUDY SUMMER PROGRAMS!

The Bible Study Ministry is excited to announce programs for this summer. There is good news, especially for those who are working and cannot attend a daytime program. We will meet on Zoom from 6-7:30pm. More information will be coming as to how to connect on your computer to the St. Michael's Parish Zoom site. The process is very easy.

The first program will be on Wednesday, July 14 and Thursday, July 15. The topic is "Spaces and Places in the New Testament: The importance of Knowing Background Information."

The second program will be on Wednesday, August 11 and Thursday, August 12. The topic is "Women in the Bible: Well-known and Less Well-known Influential Women in the Bible."

More information about each topic will be coming. For now, mark your calendars!
