WELCOME FROM OUR PASTOR

Welcome to St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Church on beautiful Siesta Key!

Whether you are a full-time parishioner, seasonal resident, or just visiting us for a short time, you are very welcome to our glorious faith community.

St. Michael's parish has been serving the Siesta Key community for over 60 years. What started as a Mission Church serving just 40 local Catholic families has grown exponentially over the decades. This growth correlates to Siesta Key's rise in popularity as a tourist destination due to its consistent ranking as one of the top beaches in the nation.

Today an estimated 400,000 Catholics visit Siesta Key each year, and our parish is now ministering to the faithful from all over the world. We have also become a popular place for not only "Destination Weddings" but also "Destination Baptisms", and other family events.

Feel free to visit our website for more information on our parish (stmichaelssiesta.com), download our mobile app (instructions on website), follow us on social media or view our Masses via Live Stream through our YouTube channel.

We are blessed to have you with us.

FATHER MICHAEL'S RAMBLINGS

May the peace, joy and love of our Savior, Jesus Christ, be in each of your hearts and lives. I am hoping that my words are finding everyone healthy and well.

I want to take this opportunity to thank the parish for helping me to celebrate the 40th anniversary of my Ordination to Priesthood last weekend. Our celebration began with Mass at 4:00pm on Saturday June 19th, followed immediately by a reception under a tent, specially erected for the event. It was truly a wonderful evening with many parishioners, former parishioners and friends in attendance. I am grateful to everyone who worked so hard to create such a memorable celebration for me and for our parish. My good friend, Fr. Greg Nevlud with Dianne Holt and my wonderful staff planned and executed a truly memorable event. Fr. Greg in his homily at the Mass shared some very significant and special anecdotes from my life and ministry. Thank you Fr. Greg for your kind words. In addition to Fr. Greg, the concelebrants for the Mass were Fr. Mike Guarino, Fr. Marcel Dube, Fr. JJ McCarthy, and Fr. Jim Shaw. It was wonderful to have my brothers join me on this very special day. The liturgy was greatly enhanced by our music ministry. Thanks to Katherine Alexandra, Sun Young Shin Romm, Aaron Romm and Steve Murray for once again giving wings to our prayers through your gift of song and music. I am also grateful to all our liturgical ministers who offered their services for the Mass. Finally, I want to mention Marjorie Meyers and Jim Holt for ensuring that my dad, my family and friends could pray with us remotely through the livestream of the Mass. It meant a lot to me and to my family that they were able to join in the celebrations.

The celebrations continued after Mass under the tent. Paul Duffy supplied some wonderfully fun music for us and we ate as much as we were able!! I did bring my accordion along and played a few tunes. It was a most enjoyable evening and one which I will not forget. Thanks to everyone who attended. Your presence means so much to me. Unfortunately, due to Covid, our class reunion at seminary was cancelled as was our family celebration so I was very grateful that many of you were able to help me celebrate right here on Siesta Key. Thank you to everyone who brought gifts and those who sent prayers and good wishes. All are greatly appreciated...

I am very happy to report that work on the replacement of the church roof has begun. The work crew came in early on Monday morning, June 21st – the actual date of my anniversary. I see that as a sign from God! Thank you Lord! The workers are removing the current roof and that is great news. I got very excited on Monday morning when I saw the trucks arriving on campus. We ask God's continued blessings on this monumental project.

I'm asking everyone for your understanding as we go through this process. I expect that there will be some inconveniences as we move deeper into the work – but let's keep in mind that these inconveniences are temporary. We are working to create a beautiful campus for God! We will be giving weekly updates as we move forward through our weekly Zoom Meetings, our Flock-note email distributions, my Ramblings here in the bulletin and more.

Wishing everyone a blessed week...

Gospel Meditation—13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The author of The Cloud of Unknowing prays, “That which I am and the way that I am, with all my gifts of nature and grace, you have given to me, O Lord, and you are all this. I offer it all to you, principally to praise you and to help my fellow Christians and myself.” Knowing that God sustains us in being is the key to faith. All that we need to do is to love God as God is and the rest will begin to fall into place. God made us in His image and desires that we have life. God also desires that we be healed of all of our wounds, especially those caused by sin, and know his loving touch. Being weighed down by negativity, imperfections, the cares of the world, and weakness is not something that God desires.

Faith can profoundly change how we see God, ourselves, and one another. It gives a clearer lens through which to see life and connects us with the powerful virtues of love and hope. Three friends journeying with us through all that we encounter, faith, hope, and love, help us experience God’s embrace and heal us. All we have to do is let God be who God is and not foolishly try to make Him into what we need or want Him to be. Without God we cease to be. It’s that simple. The very blood that flows through my veins and the life that I have come directly from Divine origins. With this knowledge of who God is and who I am, I can open my ears and hear the powerful words Jesus speaks, “Do not be afraid, just have faith.” Trust begins.

When we are struggling, we naturally reach out for God because we know that a divine remedy is the only remedy. But, in doing so we wrestle with letting God take charge. We want something more miraculous and visible than the obvious and have difficulty in finding consolation simply resting in God’s presence. Our naked being, stripped of any pretense or self-serving agenda, is being called to rest in and love the uncreated Presence of God. Reach out in love to God. Ask God to heal you from all that separates you from Him. Put aside any ideas of God that create barriers between you and God’s tender and endearing presence. The Cloud of Unknowing leaves us with wisdom, “think of yourself and of him in the same way, that is, with the simple awareness that he is as he is and that you are as you are.” This is a meeting of two friends who desire nothing more than to share life together. ©LPi

Zoom Summer Bible Study Program Beginning in July

Mark your calendars for the first Zoom Bible Study program at St. Michael’s on July 14 and July 15 from 6 to 7:30 pm. That is correct. You can learn important Bible information from the comfort of your home. No travel worries, no concerns about the bridge being up, no parking problems, no worries about getting your coffee or tea just right—just relaxed learning about God’s Word. The topic for the July program is “Spaces and Places in the New Testament”. The presenter is Kevin M. Kindelan with help from Kathleen Rutar who has the distinction (and she would add, the privilege) of recently having

Touching the Cloak of Christ

Look to today's Gospel and you'll find one of the most arresting images in all of Scripture. Christ in a crowd, everyone clamoring for his attention, pressing against him. Several feet away is a chronically ill woman, weak and desperate for help. She knows she doesn't have a chance of getting his attention. She has no connections. She has no strength. All she can do is lift up her hand.

So that's what she does. She reaches out.

There comes a time, or maybe several times, in each of our lives when we become this woman. We're tired and we're sick. Is it with sin? With fear? With anger? It doesn't matter. Whatever it is, it's made us weak, and we feel like we've run out of options. We've looked for help and come up empty. We've consulted friends and gotten nowhere. We're lost in the crowd of life, unable to stick our heads above the pressing throng to wave for help.

And there is Christ, always passing by us.

The hem of his cloak is never far from our grasp. We have no hope of a big miracle like the synagogue leader. We don't even bother asking for that. But that cloak... we can touch that cloak. That's something we can do.

Do we do it, though? Do we have the confidence of that sick, beaten-down woman who knew so totally that healing was there for the taking? Or do we retreat back into the crowd, stumbling back home with our pain and our sinfulness? Reach out, friends. However, whatever, whenever — reach out. Christ will not fail you.

What is the "Miraculous Medal"?

The medal of the Immaculate Conception that has come to be called simply the "Miraculous Medal" dates back to an apparition of Mary to Saint Catherine Laboure, who was then a novice sister with the Daughters of Charity. On November 27, 1830, Our Lady appeared to her standing on a globe, with shafts of light streaming from her hands and the words, "O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee," surrounding the image. In the same vision, Catherine saw a capital "M" with a cross above it and below two hearts. Catherine seemed to hear a voice telling her to have what she saw struck as a medal and a promise that those who wore the medal would have the protection and intercession of the Mother of God. The first 1,500 of medals were distributed in 1832. Many miraculous favors were attributed to the use of the medal.

Saint Catherine's "Miraculous Medal" is among the recognizable and popular symbols of modern Catholicism. Reflecting on its widespread use, the 2001 Vatican document, "Directory on Popular Piety and Liturgy," observes that the medal "recalls the mystery of Redemption, the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Sorrowful Heart of Mary. It signifies the mediatory role of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mystery of the Church, the relationship between Heaven and earth, this life and eternal life."

The Church is fortunate that Irenaeus was involved in many of its controversies in the second century. He was a student, well trained no doubt, with great patience in investigating, tremendously protective of apostolic teaching, but prompted more by a desire to win over his opponents than to prove them in error.

As bishop of Lyons he was especially concerned with the Gnostics, who took their name from the Greek word for “knowledge.” Claiming access to secret knowledge imparted by Jesus to only a few disciples, their teaching was attracting and confusing many Christians. After thoroughly investigating the various Gnostic sects and their “secret,” Irenaeus showed to what logical conclusions their tenets led. These he contrasted with the teaching of the apostles and the text of Holy Scripture, giving us, in five books, a system of theology of great importance to subsequent times. Moreover, his work, widely used and translated into Latin and Armenian, gradually ended the influence of the Gnostics.

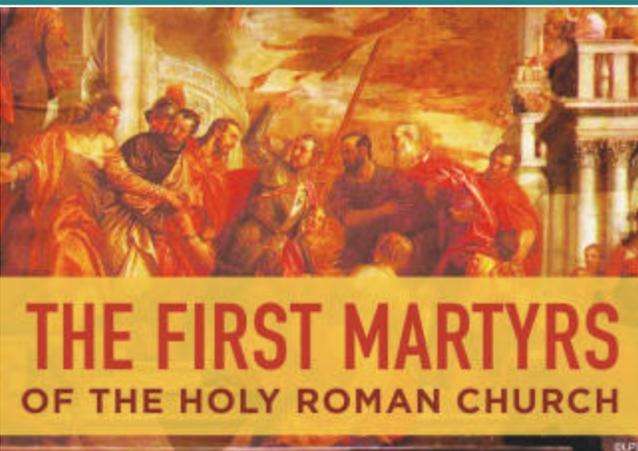

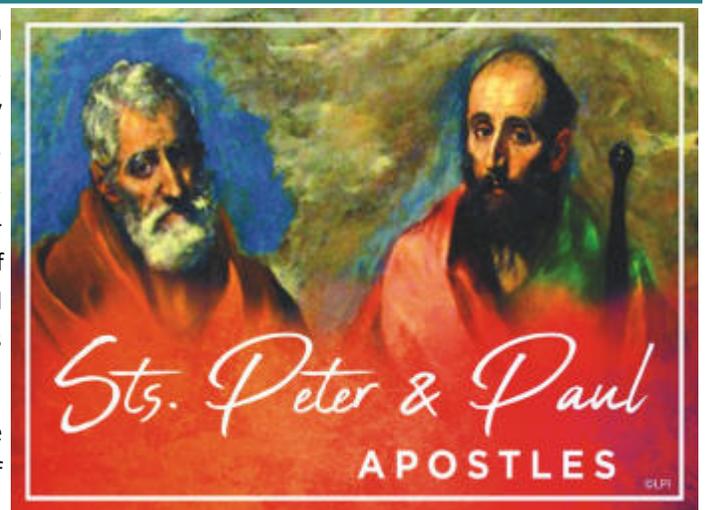

The circumstances and details about his death, like those of his birth and early life in Asia Minor, are not at all clear.

Peter is willing to accept Jesus’ doctrine of forgiveness, but suggests a limit of seven times. He walks on the water in faith, but sinks in doubt. He refuses to let Jesus wash his feet, then wants his whole body cleansed. He swears at the Last Supper that he will never deny Jesus, and then swears to a servant maid that he has never known the man. He loyally resists the first attempt to arrest Jesus by cutting off Malchus’ ear, but in the end he runs away with the others. In the depth of his sorrow, Jesus looks on him and forgives him, and he goes out and sheds bitter tears. The Risen Jesus told Peter to feed his lambs and his sheep (John 21:15-17).

Paul’s central conviction was simple and absolute: Only God can save humanity. No human effort—even the most scrupulous observance of law—can create a human good which we can bring to God as reparation for sin and payment for grace. To be saved from itself, from sin, from the devil, and from death, humanity must open itself completely to the saving power of Jesus.

Franciscan Media

There were Christians in Rome within a dozen or so years after the death of Jesus, though they were not the converts of the “Apostle of the Gentiles” (Romans 15:20). Paul had not yet visited them at the time he wrote his great letter in 57-58 A.D.

There was a large Jewish population in Rome. Probably as a result of controversy between Jews and Jewish Christians, the Emperor Claudius expelled all Jews from Rome in 49-50 A.D. Suetonius the historian says that the expulsion was due to disturbances in the city “caused by the certain Chrestus” [Christ]. Perhaps many came back after Claudius’ death in 54 A.D. Paul’s letter was addressed to a Church with members from Jewish and Gentile backgrounds.

In July of 64 A.D., more than half of Rome was destroyed by fire. Rumor blamed the tragedy on Nero, who wanted to enlarge his palace. He shifted the blame by accusing the Christians. According to the historian Tacitus, many Christians were put to death because of their “hatred of the human race.” Peter and Paul were probably among the victims.
