LIVE THE LITURGY

"When you hold a banquet, invite the poor," Jesus instructs. "Blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you."
Each of us has our own banquet to offer, our own gifts to share.
Who will we invite?

SEPTEMBER 2025

The Pope's Monthly Prayer Intention

For our relationship with all of creation:

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis, we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

Are you a parent of young school-age children who have struggled to engage with the Mass? Do you find it hard for your little ones to make it through an entire liturgy?

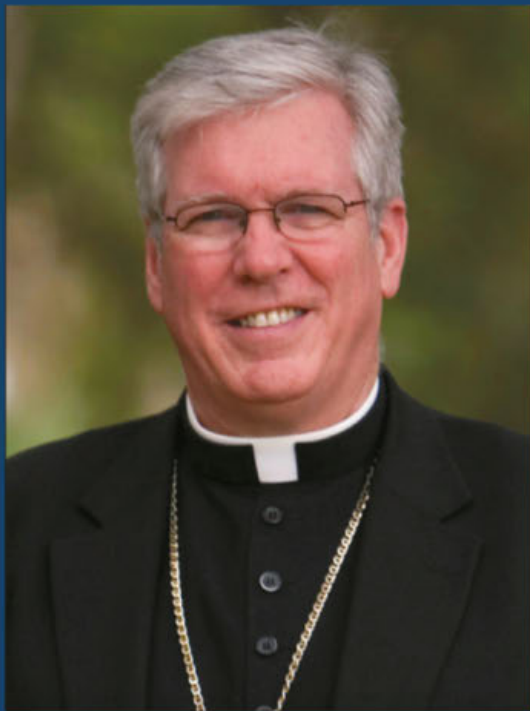

We are excited to share that our 9:30 a.m. Mass in the Church is especially welcoming for families with children!

This joyful liturgy is beloved by school families and parents with young children. Children will be dismissed by the presider following the Gospel. Children will be engaged in prayer, and lessons related to the theme of the Sunday Gospel.

If you would like to assist in this ministry, call 239-334-2161.

Have you remembered the good works of the Church in your Will? A bequest of part of your estate or for a stated amount of $5,000, $10,000, $50,000, will ensure that the works of the parish will continue after your death.

Please call the Parish Office for more information - 239-334-2161.

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

August 29, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., is the national University of the Catholic Church in the United States. The University community works tirelessly to educate over 5,700 students in more than 250 academic programs throughout the year which will prepare them to serve as Catholic leaders of the Church and nation.

The research and training initiatives of the University support dioceses and parishes in addressing the most pressing needs of future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. The Catholic Project initiative brings together clergy and laity to address the challenges that the Catholic Church faces in the U.S.

The Diocese of Venice will take up a collection for the Catholic University of America the weekend of September 6 and 7, 2025. Your contribution helps the University to educate thousands of young people in both faith and reason, while upholding the highest standards of education. May God Bless you for your generosity!

This opportunity is taken to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Volunteers are the heart of our parish. We rely on liturgical ministers to serve as an usher, a Eucharistic Minister, office volunteer and a greeter at mass to name a few. If you've been looking for a way to get involved, now is the perfect time!

Whether you'd like to help occasionally or commit more regularly, there's a place for you. Training is provided—no experience necessary! Contact our parish office at 239-334-2161 or visit our website at stfrancisfm.org to sign up. Thank you for sharing your time, talents, and faith with our community!

CATECHIST SPOTLIGHT

STACIE KOLNICKI

My name is Stacie Kolnicki. Being a Catholic catechist for Kindergarten and 1st grade has been one of the most joyful and rewarding experience. At this age, children are so open-hearted, curious, and full of wonder—exactly the kind of hearts that Jesus spoke about when He said, “Let the little children come to me.”

It wasn't just about teaching lessons—it was about planting seeds of faith, kindness, and compassion in the softest, most fertile soil. And in doing so, I found my own faith growing stronger too. Their innocent questions, sincere prayers, and joyful energy reminded me daily of the beauty and simplicity of the Gospel.

Being a catechist to these little ones wasn't just a role—it was a calling, and an incredible gift.

Please take some time in quiet prayer and ask the Lord if He is calling you to the ministry of being a catechist. No experience is needed, just a love of the Lord and your Catholic Faith. Please call the Director of Religious Education, Michael Reardon at 239-334-2161 for more information on how you can become a catechist or a catechist aide. We look forward to hearing from you!

Abuse Reporting

An allegation of sexual abuse of a minor by anyone should be reported immediately to:

Florida Department of Children and Families Child Abuse Hotline:

1-800-96ABUSE (800-962-2873) or visit <https://reportabuse.dcf.state.fl.us>.

If the alleged abuser is a diocesan employer/clergy/volunteer, also notify our diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (941) 416-6114.

Vocations

From the moment of our Baptism, God is unfolding a special plan for each of us, which we fulfill throughout a lifetime. Whether we are called to the married life, the dedicated single life, the consecrated life or the ordained priesthood, the seed of our vocation begins to take root and to germinate at the moment we become a true son or daughter of God through Baptism. From the moment of our Baptism, God reveals to us in various ways His plan for us.

Parents have a very special role in assisting their children to know God's plan for them by praying each day for their children, that they may know their vocation in life, and by living their own vocation in a way which is an example for their children. Teachers, especially teachers of religion, are also to help children and young people to reflect consistently upon the signs which God is giving them regarding their vocation. All of our instruction in the faith and its practice should, in some way, prepare us to know and accept our vocation in life. Rightly, too, children and young people look to their parish priests for an example of how to respond to God's call and for help in knowing His call in their lives. The whole parish, too, should pray daily and especially at Sunday Mass, that the young people will know God's plan for them and do it with all their mind and heart.

Children and young people are most helped in knowing God's will in their lives through regular Confession and through participation in the Eucharistic Sacrifice and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Through these most privileged encounters with Christ, they are enabled to hear more clearly the Lord's voice calling them and are fortified to respond with an undivided heart.

Prayer for Vocations

*Thank you, Lord, for all the many great and wonderful gifts you give to our family.
Help us to live each day with joy and humility. Keep us totally dedicated to serving you. Teach us to recognize the many ways you make your Spirit known.*

Then help each of us to accept your gift - the grace to answer your call to form, strengthen and expand the Body of Christ.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

SACRISTANS

Sacristans are behind the scenes prior to the celebration of Mass and special liturgies to make the Mass or other service meaningful, spiritual, and efficient.

Assisted by the Priest, Sacristans take care of the set up for each liturgy. They do everything from turning on the lights to finding the correct readings for the day.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE:

This ministry is open to individuals as well as couples. Training is provided.

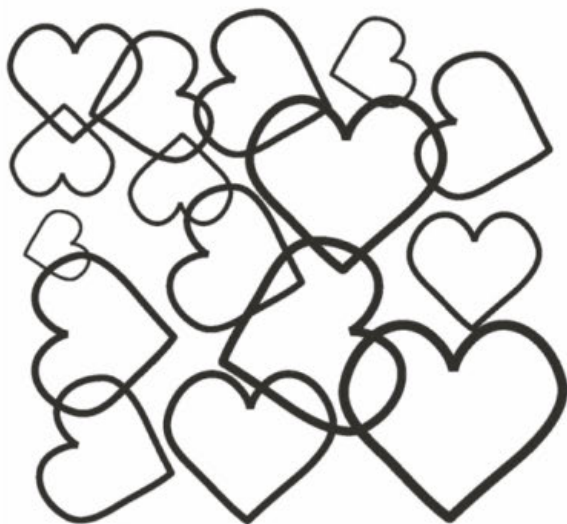

Sacristans are asked to arrive to set up at least 30 minutes before Mass.

All ministers are scheduled according to their Mass preferences.

Call 239-334-2161 on how you can participate.

GOSPEL

If you act bossy, you might get your way, but you won't make many friends. Jesus shared a secret about making friends. When you treat other kids with kindness, they will want to be your friends. Instead of telling other kids what to do, ask other kids to choose a game. If you want to play tag with other kids, offer to be "it" first. If it is time to line up to go outside, offer to go to the back of the line and let other kids in front of you.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be a good friend.
