THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. - Lk 3:21-22a

January 9, 2022

Dear Parishioners

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. The first reading from the prophet Isaiah describes the mission of the servant who is chosen by God to bring justice and truth to the world and to make God known to the people. At his baptism, Jesus is revealed as the Son of God and is anointed with the Spirit. Coupled with the first reading, the Baptism of the Lord also reveals Jesus as the servant described in Isaiah. He is anointed for mission. His mission is to bring justice, to be a light to the nations, to be a healer and a liberator. In this liturgy, the Church holds before us the power and the challenge of our own baptism: we are children of God, anointed with the Spirit, and the mission of Jesus is our mission.

God of heaven and earth,
when Jesus was baptized
in the River Jordan,
you sent the Holy Spirit upon him
to show the world that he was your Son.
Send us the Holy Spirit also,
that we may be messengers
of your Good News.
We ask you this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

As we bring this very brief season of Christmas to a close, let us remember the promises we made in our own baptism. Let us always see Christ in others and live our lives in temperance, justice, humility, always ready for the coming of the Son of God in our midst.

Have a blessed week.

Father Tom

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT No Parish Mission the year

The Parish Mission to be conducted by Father Cedric Pisegna, CP scheduled to begin on January 29, 2022, has been POSTPONED. With the fluctuating COVID infection rates, both the parish and Father Pisegna felt that gathering a large group of people indoors over several nights could be unsafe. The Parish Mission has been rescheduled for the same time next year:

January 29-February 1, 2023.

Save the Date: Saturday, February 12, 2022

Knights of Columbus 16th Annual Italian Festival; dinner & dancing featuring The Moonlighters.

St. Brendan Council of Catholic Women

Welcome Council of Catholic Women members and ladies interested in joining. We have a spiritually filled and service oriented year to look forward to:

Council of Catholic Women meeting, Monday, January 10, 2022 at 11:00am in the Banquet Room. The guest speaker will be Joanne Roberts, President of the Pregnancy Crisis Center, Daytona Beach.

For the January Service Project: please bring diapers size 3, 4, and 5, and pull ups; also diaper wipes and baby toiletries for Pregnancy Crisis Center.

THIS WEEK AND BEYOND

January 10—March 1 Ordinary Time

The word ordinary can feel like a synonym for “boring,” but Ordinary Time is far from it. This season takes its name from the ordinal numbers (first, second, third, fourth, fifth, and so on) that are used to count the Sundays and the weeks that follow them. While the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter have a certain importance in the liturgical year, that does not diminish Ordinary Time. Consider that as the priest prepares the paschal candle at the Easter Vigil, he states, “All time belongs to him.” How might you use this season to grow closer to God?

January 18–25 Prayer for Christian Unity

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity spans an octave, or eight-day observance, a time frame that lends significance to the week. It is a great sorrow to be separated from our brothers and sisters in Christ, unable to join around the Eucharistic table together to “do this in memory of me.” We wait in hope in a special way during this week for the day when all divisions among Christians will cease.

January 25 Conversion of St. Paul

This feast commemorates the day when Saul, an observant young Jewish man who opposed the early Christians and even participated in the stoning death of St. Stephen, had an encounter with the risen Jesus. Saul, also known as Paul, left behind his former life to become an apostle to the gentiles. To preach the Gospel, you might offer forgiveness and mercy to someone who is not sorry, serve a meal at a soup kitchen with a joyful heart, or drop off a box of diapers at a place that serves mothers and children. Today's readings: Acts 22: 3–6 or Acts 9:1–22; Psalm 117:1bc, 2; Mark 16:15–18.

January 28 St. Thomas Aquinas

Known as the angelic doctor, St. Thomas Aquinas was a Dominican priest whose writings are essential to the way we understand what we believe. He was a great theologian and philosopher, engaging with the intellectual currents of his day as well as those of ancient philosophy. St. Thomas described the beatific vision, unending happiness and union with God, as the goal of human life. Today's readings: 2 Samuel 11:1–4a, 5–10a, 13–17; Psalm 51: 3–4, 5–6a, 6bcd–7, 10–11; Mark 4:26–34.

January 31 St. John Bosco

St. John Bosco was an Italian priest who worked to improve the lives of young people who lived in poverty. He went into the world to encounter the young people who had traveled to the city to try to find a better life but were living in abject poverty and unsafe conditions. He began many initiatives and organizations to assist children and was the founder of a religious congregation. Today's readings: 2 Samuel 15:13–14, 30, 16:5–13; Psalm 3:2–3, 4–5, 6–7; Mark 5:1–20.

February 2 The Presentation of the Lord

This feast, forty days after Christmas, is traditionally a time to bring candles to church to be blessed. In Luke's account of the Gospel, we hear Simeon proclaim Jesus “a light for revelation to the Gentiles and glory for your people Israel.” The Gospel according to John is also a source of the imagery of light associated with Jesus. Anna and Simeon watched and waited for the light throughout their lives. At times, it can be difficult to wait for what we most hope for. Watching and waiting for the light, we can unite ourselves with the waiting of Anna and Simeon. What desires of your heart are you still waiting to have fulfilled? You might decorate a tealight holder and light the candle to remind you to wait in hope. Today's readings: Malachi 3:1–4, Psalm 24:7, 8, 9, 10; Hebrews 2:14–18; Luke 2: 22–40.
