Sunday Reflection With Fr. Rafal

Dear St. Joseph Parishioners and Visitors,

On this Second Sunday of Advent 2020 we see in the Gospel that people came to John the Baptist from "all Judea" and "the whole region around the Jordan." John received them all - not just the good Jewish people, but also tax collectors, sinners of all kinds and even Roman soldiers. He knows they all have something in common: they need God, and they need repentance.

John brings people together around a common ritual; he baptizes them as they confess their sins. Jesus and the Church he founded continue that practice. Pope Francis states, "The transmission of faith occurs first and foremost in baptism." And quoting Augustine, he makes a reference to infant baptism: "Parents are called not only to bring children into the world, but also to bring them to God, so that through baptism they can be reborn as children of God and receive the gift of faith."

Like John the Baptist and Jesus, the Church invites everyone - including little children. We are a body where every organ and every cell has its role. If we exclude anyone, we know that the whole body suffers.

John, however, does have a hard word for one group - the Pharisees. He calls them a bag of snakes - a "brood of vipers." Why such strong language? Pope Francis gives the reason. They are people who "consider themselves justified before God on the basis of their own works." Such people, writes Pope Francis, "even when they obey the commandments and do good work are centered on themselves; they fail to realize that goodness comes from God." And as the Pope points out, "those who live this way, who want to be the source of their own righteousness, find that the latter is soon depleted and that they are unable to keep the law."

When we let go of our false self-righteousness, something beautiful happens. We open ourselves to God's forgiveness and realize that, with God's grace, we can forgive others. In Lumen Fidei Pope Francis writes: "Forgiveness is possible once we discover that goodness is always prior to and more powerful than evil." He adds that "forgiveness ... demands time and effort, patience and commitment."

Faith makes possible forgiveness. It frees us from the cycle of accusation and self-justification. Now, I know there are people that might be hard to love and there are people who make us burn inside when we remember what they did or said. Still, because of faith, we cannot resign ourselves to exclude even one human being. As Pope Francis says, "goodness is always prior to and more powerful than evil." Thanks be to God for that. If I have received forgiveness by faith then by faith, I can exclude no person.

So, for today, what's the message? Faith is a light and true faith reaches out to include others - not because of our shining goodness, but through baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

Have a Blessed the 2nd Week of Advent!

Fr. Rafal Ligenza
St. Joseph Parish Administrator
