My Dear People,

By Transfiguration Jesus strengthens his disciples' faith, revealing a trace of glory his body will have after the resurrection. He wants them to realize that his passion will not be the end but rather the route he will take to reach his glorification.

“For a person to go straight along the road, he must have some knowledge of the end—just as an archer will not shoot an arrow straight unless he first sees the target. This is particularly necessary if the road is hard and rough, the going heavy, and the end delightful.” (St. Thomas Aquinas, Summa Theologiae, 3, q. 45, a 1)

Through the miracle of the Transfiguration, Jesus shows one of the qualities of glorified bodies—brightness, by which the bodies of the saints shall shine like the sun, according to the words of our Lord recorded in the Gospel of St. Matthew:

“the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father” (Mt 13, 43) To remove the possibility of doubt on the subject, he exemplifies this in his transfiguration. This quality the apostle sometimes calls glory, sometimes brightness: He ‘will change our lowly body to the like of his glorious body’ (Phil 3:21). Of his glory the Israelites beheld some image in the desert, when the face of Moses, after he had enjoyed the presence and conversation of God, shone with such luster that they could not look on it. (cf. Ex34:29) This quality is not common to all in the same degree. If the bodies of the saints will be equally impassible; but the brightness of all will not be the same. He spoke of his departure from this world, in other words, his death. It can also be understood as meaning our Lord's ascension.

“Listen to him!” Everything God wishes to say to mankind he has said through Christ, now that the fullness of time has come.

“Therefore,” St. John of the Cross explains, “if any now should question God or desire a vision or revelation, not only would he be acting foolishly, but he would be committing an offense against God, by not fixing his gaze on Christ with no desire for any new thing. For God could reply to him in this way: ‘If I have spoken all things to you in my Word, what answer can I give you now, or what can I give you now, or what can I reveal to you that is greater than this? Fix your eyes on him alone, for in him I have spoken and revealed to you all things, and in him you will find even more than what you ask for or desire. Hear him, for I have no more faith to reveal, nor I have any more things to declare” (Ascent of Mount Carmel, book 2, chap 22.5).

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Vincent Clemente

Lent is a call

but more important to "give something for the poor." Wherever you live in the parish, there are poor families within walking distance of your home.

When in need, they ring the rectory bell. They are, in effect, ringing your doorbell

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help the poor, the suffering, and the deprived.

Thank you for your donations and to all who have continued to support us during this time.

FROM THE LITURGY COMMITTEE

Beginning the first weekend of Lent, and for weekend Masses only, there will be an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion designated to serve those wishing to receive Holy Communion on the tongue. This minister will be stationed in front of the ambo with a kneeler in front of them. If one is not present in this position, please come forward at the end of the line as before to receive on the tongue.

Many of our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are listed as inactive. If you are one and are ready to serve in this ministry again, please let your Leader know. We are having difficulty filling all the positions.

Music is an integral part of the Mass. In order to allow this ministry to properly prepare for each Mass, please wait until the music ministry has finished setting up and has moved into the music room before beginning the rosary or any vocal prayers. Also, to allow quiet time for private prayer, please finish these prayers 15 minutes prior to the beginning of Mass. For group prayers being said after Mass, please wait until the organ has finished playing the final postlude.

To be sure your donation is properly received and recorded, please make checks payable and addressed to:

“El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación, ¿a quién he de temer? Amparo de mi vida es el Señor, ¿ante quien temblaré? (Salmo 26,1). Junto a Dios no se debe de tener temor. Hemos visto como la pandemia destrozó vidas, y aun vivimos las secuelas de esta experiencia mundial. Dejó a muchas personas sin hogar y sin trabajo, sin techo ni comida. Sin embargo, en medio de todas las luchas de la presente vida, la persona no se desanima, porque grande es su esperanza que le reserva el Señor al final de su combate en la vida. ¡Dios siempre ha estado con nosotros, su compasión no tiene medida!

La Transfiguración de Jesús sitúa hacia donde será el final de este camino. La Liturgia de este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, indica también lo que será la gran celebración de la Pascua. “Maestro, ¡qué bueno que estemos aquí! Levantemos tres chozas: una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías. Pero no sabía lo que decía (Lucas 9,33). Pedro, sin saber lo que decía, propone a Jesús detener ese momento de gloria para siempre, construyendo tres chozas, una para Jesús y otras dos para sus acompañantes. ¿Qué choza construiremos a Jesús en esta Cuaresma? ¿Cuál es la esperanza que mueve a vivir la vida con esperanza? San Juan, en su Evangelio, indica la cercanía y unidad entre Jesús y su Padre. “Ahora, Padre, dame junto a ti la misma Gloria que tenía a tu lado antes que comenzara el mundo (Juan 17,5).

¡Escuchemos a Jesús, que es el amado del Padre! Durante la semana, busque a propósito un tiempo de oración para tener unidad con Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo.
