Special Intention—Fr. Greg Nevlud, by Bob Muir

My Dear People,

Write about the importance of making families strong! I am glad that Gov. Ron DeSantis recently signed a bill to support Fatherhood in Florida. Why is that important? What happens to the children when the father is absent?

Statistics state:

- 85% of youth who are currently in prison...
- 75% of adolescents with substance abuse problems...
- 85% of children with behavioral disorders...
- 90% of youth runaways...

...all come from fatherless homes.

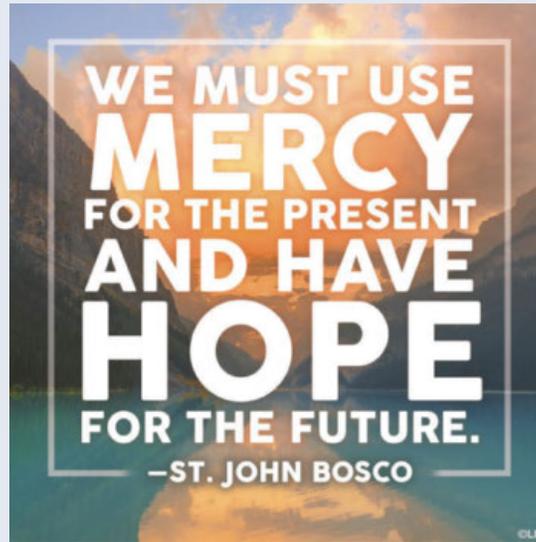

Children from fatherless homes are:

- 4 times more likely to be living in poverty
- 2 times more likely to drop out of school
- 2 times more likely to commit suicide, and
- 279% more likely to deal drugs or carry firearms for offensive purposes.

We have seen the number of killings by youth in cities like Chicago. A lot of people talk about the many ways to solve the problem, but the fact remains, the problems persist.

The main way to reverse this trend is to build stronger families. A father in the home can have a positive influence on his children.

Some statistics say when the mother takes the children to church, chances are when they grow up, nearly 20 percent of the children will practice their faith. But, when the father takes the children to church, chances are over 70 percent of the children will practice the faith when they grow up.

This shows the importance of fathers in a family. When the father is present in the home for the child, children do a lot better practicing their faith, and perform better in society.

One individual who tried to tackle this problem over a century ago was St. John Bosco. He saw a number of street children leading a life of crime and whose lives did not have direction or value.

He began providing time for them and a place to be creative, to be able to do sports, and enjoy themselves.

In time, he established a home atmosphere, where the children could live, be comfortable, were fed and learned principles of faith and values. He taught them skills, such as carpentry, working with tools, etc., so that they would feel better about themselves, and helped them develop life skills. This proved to be very successful.

Later St. John Bosco founded a religious society to continue his work after he was gone. The Society was in honor of St. Francis de Sales and came to be known as The Salesians. To this day, the Salesians still do this work worldwide. Their work has been very successful.

Let us pray today that there will be more people like St. John Bosco in our society to help us with fatherless youth; so that when the young boys grow up, they will become responsible fathers and be a good influence on their children and families.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Vincent Clemente

Over 40 parishioners attended the final Lenten Soup Supper. The Knights of Columbus would like to express its appreciation to all who attended and to those who helped prepare and serve the meal. A special thanks goes to the members of the CCW who, along with Knights' wives, provided a variety of tasty soups and breads. The Knights wish each and every parishioner a blessed Easter season.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Carol Muir was called home to be with her Lord on April 8th, 2022. It's hard to imagine St. James without her. From Bible Study to Emmaus, RCIA, CCW, and the prayer group, she was always there. Carol, you will be greatly missed by your St. James family. ❤️

The Pope's Prayer Intention for May

We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary's life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

Thank you to the Knights of Columbus and all of the men who helped set up for the Easter Sunrise Service! Every chair was filled!

What About Mary? Explaining Catholic Devotion to Mary

Is Mary The Mother of God?
Is She Our Mother?
Can We Expect Her to Help Us?
Does Honoring Mary give Glory to God?
Next weekend, the Knights of Columbus will distribute a free brochure concerning these questions. The month of May is a graced time to call to mind the mysteries of our Blessed Virgin. Please accept this brochure, read it and pass it along.

La Liturgia de este II Domingo de Pascua celebra el Domingo de la Misericordia. El Evangelio nos dice que ocho días después se les apareció Jesús. Bridándoles su paz entonces y ahora a nosotros. Esa paz que no se va, la que se queda en el corazón y se brinda a los hermanos y hermanas que están a nuestro alrededor. “¡La paz este con ustedes!” (Juan 20:21). Esas hermosas palabras de Jesús hacen eco en nuestro mundo, roto por el sufrimiento, en palabras del Papa Francisco en la actualidad.

“En el centro de este domingo, con el que se termina la octava de pascua, y que san Juan Pablo II quiso dedicar a la Divina Misericordia, están las llagas gloriosas de Cristo resucitado. Él ya las enseñó la primera vez que se apareció a los apóstoles la misma tarde del primer día de la semana, el día de la resurrección. Pero Tomás aquella tarde no estaba. Ocho días después, Jesús se apareció de nuevo en el cenáculo, en medio de los discípulos: Tomás también estaba; se dirigió a él y lo invitó a tocar sus llagas. Y entonces, aquel hombre sincero se arrodilló delante de Jesús y dijo: ‘Señor mío y Dios mío’” (Juan 20:28). En el cuerpo de Cristo resucitado las llagas permanecen, porque son el signo permanente del amor de Dios por nosotros, y son indispensables para creer que Dios es amor, misericordia, fidelidad”. Sus heridas son medicina que nos curan (1 Pedro 2:24 ver Isaías 53:5). La misión de Cristo Resucitado continúa en mí. ¿Qué hago para llevarla a cabo? ©LPi
