My Dear People,

Jesus initiates a very personal dialogue with Simon Peter, which focuses on the way Peter will bear witness to the risen Lord. It takes place after breakfast, which was prepared on “a charcoal fire” (21:19)—a detail that recalls Peter’s threefold denial of Jesus in Anna’s courtyard, where he stood warming himself by “a charcoal fire” (18:18). Peter denied Jesus three times, thereby rejecting Jesus and his own status as a Disciple. Jesus does not address him as “Peter” but as Simon, son of John, which was his name before becoming Jesus’ Disciple and the “rock.” Moreover, when Jesus asks Peter if he loves Him more than these, He reminds Peter about his solitary boast to be willing to lay down his life for Jesus and Jesus’ prophecy of Peter’s threefold denial (13:37-38). Jesus now invites Peter to repent and profess his love for Him three times and, in so doing, restore their relationship.

Jesus asks Simon three times: “Do you love me?” and three times Peter answers: “You know that I love you.” After each profession of love from Peter, Jesus assigns him a responsibility as the shepherd of His sheep. “Feed my lambs. . . Tend my Sheep. . . Feed my sheep.” Throughout the Bible, people appointed by God to lead and govern His people are often spoken of as shepherds (e. g. 2 Sam 5:2; Ezek. 34:2; 1 Pet 5:2). In the Fourth Gospel, this scene recalls the Good Shepherd discourse (10:1-18). Jesus is the good shepherd and He gives Peter a unique share in His work of shepherding. As shepherd of Christ’s sheep, Peter has a special role as leader and custodian of Jesus’ disciples (See Matt 16:17-19; Luke 22:32). Modeled on the good shepherd, Peter’s office as shepherd is one of self-sacrificial service and care for the sheep (10:11-15). It is built upon Peter’s own discipleship and personal love for Jesus, for in 21:19, Jesus gives Peter the command that applies to all disciples: “Follow me.” At the heart of both discipleships in the church is personal love for Jesus.

The good shepherd “will lay down his life for his sheep” (10:15). Like Jesus, Peter’s role as the shepherd of Jesus’ sheep extends to the laying down of his own life, culminating in his martyrdom. Peter previously professed his willingness to lay down his life for Jesus (13:37) and Jesus said that Peter “Will follow later” (13:36). Now Jesus tells Peter: “When you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted.” As the shepherd, Peter will have to lay down both his will and his life for Christ. “But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hand, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go.” The phrase “stretch out your hand” refers to crucifixion, and Peter was martyred by crucifixion during the persecution of Christians in Rome around A.D. 65. The Evangelist clarifies that Jesus had been talking about Peter’s death by which he would glorify God. Peter, therefore, will bear witness to the Lord by serving as a leader of Christ’s disciples and by laying down his life as martyr. Recall the term “martyr” is from the Greek word “witness.”

With the command “Follow me,” Jesus emphasizes that Peter’s own leadership with Him as a Disciple lies at the heart of his role as shepherd. When speaking about His own death, Jesus said, “Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be” (12:26). For Peter to serve as the shepherd of Jesus’ sheep, he must follow Jesus completely, even to the point of laying down his life (13:37). He must carry out his role as shepherd, imitating Christ the good shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep (10:15), and thus performs the greatest act of love (15:13). Yours in Christ,

Fr. Vincent Clemente

SYNOD 2021—2023 MARK YOUR CALENDARS

Our listening session for the area of St. James

Church will be May 9, 2022 from 6:30 PM to 8:00 PM at St. Catherine Catholic Church Parish Hall

The entire Catholic Church is called to participate in the upcoming Synod of Bishops! This Synod is entitled: "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission."

Pope Francis has called the entire People of God to journey together! This Synod is not just another meeting with oral presentations and written reports. This Synod is a process of journeying together by listening, dialoguing, praying, discerning, and making decisions together for the purpose of proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Pope Francis is asking each local diocese to gather - clergy, religious and laity together- to listen to each other's joys and hopes, and griefs and anxieties (c.f. Gaudium et Spes no. 1). The "goal" of this journeying together is not to create a new vision or pastoral plan with objectives. Rather, the goal of our journeying together is to be present with one another, to listen and learn with each other, and to grow closer to the Lord and His Church.

The most important aspect of the 2021-2023 Synod of Bishops is listening. While each diocese is required to submit a report to the episcopal conference based on listening sessions held in the diocese, this report is secondary to the listening sessions where members of the local Church community can gather in order to pray, listen and dialogue together.

In this listening phase we encourage people to gather, respond to stimulus questions/images/scenarios together, listen to each other, and provide individual and group feedback, ideas, reactions, and suggestions.

For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission

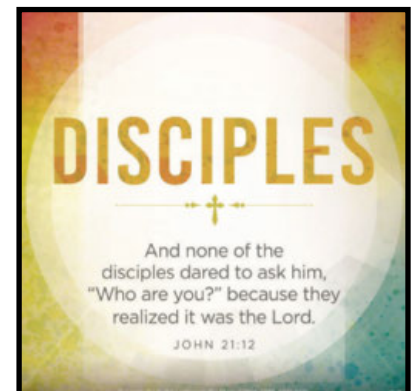

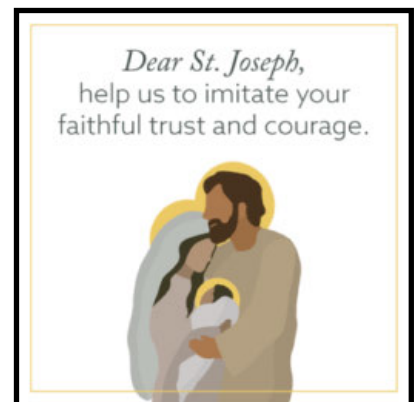

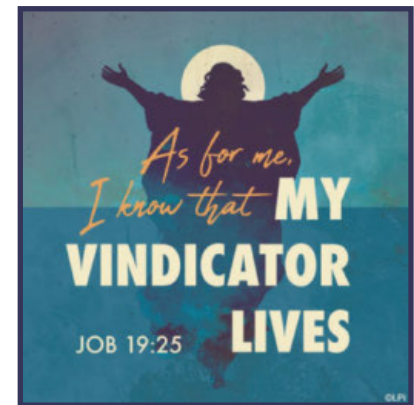

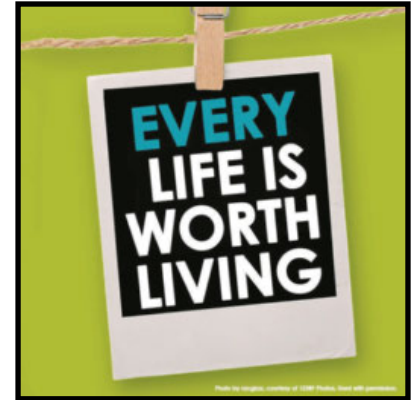

Remember, we are trying to answer one key question: What is the Holy Spirit saying to the Church today?

Our goal is to discern what the Holy Spirit is calling us to do, so we may learn how to become the Church that God calls us to be.

1. JOY: What brings you joy about the Catholic Church?
2. VOICE: How is your voice heard by the Church?
3. HOPE What are the hopes and dreams you have for the Catholic Church? What would you change if you could?
4. OPPORTUNITY What could be done to make your relationship with the Church better?

Register for our session on May 9 here: https://

La alegría de la resurrección sigue en nuestras asambleas litúrgicas. Las oraciones y alabanzas, junto con la antifona de entrada, nos ayudan a reflexionar en ello: “Aclamen al Señor, habitantes todos de la tierra, canten un himno a su nombre, denle gracias y alábenlo. Aleluya”. Se apareció resucitado a sus discípulos en Galilea. Les preparó un suculento desayuno y les invitó diciendo: “Vengan a desayunar. Ninguno de los discípulos se atrevió a preguntarle quien era, pues sabían que era el Señor. Jesús se acercó, tomó el pan y se lo repartió. Lo mismo hizo con los pescados” (Juan 21:12-13).

“Esta fue la tercera vez que Jesús se apareció a sus discípulos después de resucitar de entre los muertos” (Juan 21:14). Tres veces les saluda brindándoles su paz, y les prepara el desayuno. Luego de desayunar, Jesús le pregunta a Pedro si lo ama. Tres veces fue la pregunta y Pedro responde tres veces la misma respuesta: “Si, Señor, tú sabes que te quiero”. A lo que Jesús agrega como respuesta: “Cuida, y apacienta a mis ovejas”. Cada domingo en la Eucaristía, el Señor nos hace la misma invitación. Vengan, vengan católicos al banquete celestial. No sean sordos a mi invitación. Cuiden y apacienten a su familia, a sus amigos y a las personas sin voz. El Evangelio del resucitado es acción, y movimiento repleto de justicia y esperanza. Seamos como Pedro que lloró amargamente el haberle negado tres veces el Viernes Santo. Y ahora, en este episodio, su compromiso filial es amar al Señor hasta el martirio. ¿De qué forma profesamos nuestro amor a Jesucristo? ¿Cuál será el compromiso para toda la vida? ©LPi
