29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But it shall not be so among you. Rather, whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." - Mk 10:43-45

Boxes of Joy

The Parish Council of Catholic Women (PCCW) is supporting the Cross Catholic Outreach Christmas Program, “Boxes of Joy”, for children in need. Through your continued compassionate support, children from Guatemala and Haiti will experience the excitement and love of Christmas. These children’s parents are too poor to provide anything but the basic needs of their children. Participating is easy:

- Pick up a box after Mass from PCCW members on Sunday.
- Pray for the mission and the children who will receive the boxes.
- Fill with gifts to bring joy (suggested item list included).
- Include a $donation—$7 covers shipping, and $2 supports the life-saving ministries of the priests, nun, and lay missionaries working with the children.
- A new way to donate: You can choose to have Cross Catholic Outreach put together a box for you—$25 for the gifts and $9 for the shipping for a total of $34. Go to crosscatholic.org/box-of-joy to donate.
- Drop off the “Box of Joy” to St. Matthew Catholic Church by Sunday, October 31, 2021.

All Saints Festival Wednesday, October 27, 2021 6 pm—7 pm-ish

Join us for OUTDOOR Saints games, the Goodie Bag Zip-line, Sweet Saints Cupcake Station, and a hot dog and hamburger supper! Children of all ages welcome!

It’s the positions of power and great authority that people often admire. We equate success with six figure incomes, high positions, management, and influence. We even go above and beyond to find favor with our bosses so that we can get a little extra recognition and maybe the next promotion when it comes up. This is the way of the world. Those who have their values set on earthly things are going to work by earthly rules. We forget that it doesn’t work that way in the Kingdom of God.

Success is measured not from the place of status, influence, or prestige but from the place of humility, service, and sacrifice. The authority that one hopes to achieve is not an authority over others but an authority that comes from wisdom and developing one’s relationship with God. Jesus flips the tables on our priorities. Even the first disciples had a tough time understanding this.

They really thought that they would somehow receive a privilege or bonus from being faithful. We often operate under that same illusion. ©LPi

Our growth in Christian perfection takes a long time. At the time of our death, many of us might not be saints yet. However God, in His mercy, allows for those who love Him to experience purification after death. Our word for that state is Purgatory. ©LPI Join us on Wednesday, October 27 for hot dogs/hamburgers at 6 pm followed by an adult faith formation talk on Purgatory. Invite a non-Catholic friend and/or take notes so you can answer all the questions people ask you about Purgatory!

Condolences
