ROMAN CATHOLIC
DIOCESE OF CHARLESTON
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). Please prayerfully consider supporting the collection this year. Half of the collected funds stay right here in the Diocese of Charleston, and the other half supports the collective communication work of the bishops and other national projects in the United States and around the world.

Radio Pio XII is one of the oldest Catholic radio stations in Bolivia, founded in 1959 by priests of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate near the tin mines at Siglo XX. Rooted in the Gospel and in solidarity with Indigenous people and others who are poor and marginalized, Radio Pio XII expanded its reach by adding two more stations in the early 2000s.

One of those stations, in Cochabamba, reaches out to the nearby community with programming in both Spanish and the Quechua language of the local Indigenous people. With an emphasis on discussing human rights for marginalized people in the context of the Church and Catholic social action, the programming gives voice to those on the margins. But for that voice to be heard, Radio Pio XII needed to replace outdated transmission equipment. With help from the CCC, Radio Pio XII was able to make the necessary upgrades to its FM radio transmitter and editing equipment that will extend its reach and bring the Gospel to a wider audience.

Your support for the CCC helps the Church to modernize how it communicates the joy of the Gospel in developing nations worldwide. Not only does it help spread the Gospel, but it also helps form young disciples and gives them the practical skills they need to navigate today's digital media environment. For more information about the collection and the projects it supports, visit www.usccb.org/ccc.

Support the collection and build community.

In Christ's love,

Most Rev. Jacques Fabre-Jeune, CS
Bishop of Charleston

12 noon on TUESDAY, May 30!

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I cannot express the amount of gratitude I have for the people of South Carolina as I celebrate my first anniversary as Bishop of the Diocese of Charleston. I wish to share a few observations of the good work that has taken place over the past year and where we are today.

First, I have discovered that beauty abounds in South Carolina. Beyond the physical wonder of this state, the beauty shines brightest in our parishes. I visited and celebrated Mass at 93 of them in the past year. Our pews are filled with children and babies, the future of our Church, and our priests, deacons, and men and women religious, are ministering to the flock of Christ. In short, I can see the image and likeness of God in the people here.

Second, I want to take a moment to recognize the accomplishments of all students in our Catholic schools across the state. I'm proud to report that our projected graduation numbers for the high school classes of 2023 are nearly 400 students.

And finally, we are building new sanctuaries, working to expand our network of schools, and creating a plan to transform our state through our various ministries.

As I move into my second year as bishop, I ask you to love one another — especially our families, the poor, and vulnerable. As we know from the Book of Matthew, "Whatever you do to the least of my children, you do to me." Let us work together to build up something sweeter and greater than ourselves. May God bless you all.

Bishop Jacques Fabre-Jeune
