GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

The Rite of Election and Call to Continuing

The Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion took place on Sunday, March 6, 2022, at Epiphany Cathedral Parish in Venice, Florida. These combined RCIA and Sacramental Preparation Rites are celebrated each year on the First Sunday of Lent and are for all the catechumens (unbaptized) and candidates (those needing First Eucharist and Confirmation) throughout the Diocese of Venice. This year our catechumens and candidates from the Church of St. Patrick were just a few of the over 400 who will be receiving their Sacraments at the Easter Vigil. Congratulations to our catechumen, Christopher Estevez, and our candidate, Lynn Temme-Butler!

As we start on our Lenten journey,
the concept of forgiveness is what Lent is about.

The high price of forgiveness was paid by the Son of God
by dying on the cross for us.

Forgiving is not only physically healthy but can be spiritually healthy as well.

Forgiving is not an easy thing to do.

Forgetting is part of forgiving and that is hard to do.

It is dwelling on forgetting that is unhealthy.

It is in the act of forgiveness that we are healed. How?
When the body experiences anger, resentment,
anxiety towards someone, it may produce
peptic ulcers increased blood pressure, anxiety and/or gastritis.

Research studies show that in forgiving,
these disorders may
be able to be reduced.

This Week On FORMED®

"Catholic Heroes of the Faith-St. Patrick"

Find out how St. Patrick used his six years as a slave in Ireland to grow in his relationship with Jesus and through the Holy Spirit's guidance allowed him to escape. After returning home and becoming a priest, then a bishop, St. Patrick returns to Ireland to be a missionary to the same people who enslaved him. Discover how St. Patrick brought the Gospel to Ireland.

"St. Patrick Pilgrimage to Peace"

St. Patrick may be the most popular but least know figure in Christian history. Although many celebrate St. Patrick's feast day with parties and parades, the average person has no idea who he was. This video helps us to understand this 5th century Christian who came to Ireland a slave but used this trial to follow Christ and eventually brought the gospel message to the Irish people and by his life call us to the peace of Christ.

2022 CATHOLIC FAITH APPEAL HIGHLIGHTS

Faith Formation and Sacramental preparation are at the center of the Office of Religious Education.

Catechists at the primary school level focus on weekly faith formation through which students deepen their understanding of Christ, the Catholic Church and their relationship with Our Lord. Sacramental preparation ensures that children gain a solid understanding of the Church's teaching and liturgy, allowing them to participate and appreciate the grace received in the Church's sacramental life.

A variety of learning opportunities are provided for our men and women who are our catechists; this is geared toward enhancing the knowledge of Church teaching, enriching their faith and equipping them to better educate the next generation of Catholics.

GROWING WITH THE Gospel

CYCLE C

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

Sharing the Gospel

One night when Jesus prayed, Jesus showed Peter, James and John what he would look like in heaven. Jesus' face changed and his clothes glowed brightly. Jesus even talked to Moses and Elijah, who had gone to heaven many years earlier. Jesus was different. He was from God!

Prayer

Dear Jesus, I can hardly wait to see what you really look like in heaven.

Mission for the Week

Find something that glows in the dark. As you see it in a dark room, imagine how brightly Jesus must have glowed.
