Fr. John Britto's Weekly Message.

Sunday April 18, 2021

Dear Friends,

We are ecstatic to see many of our parishioners coming back to worship with us. Praise God for the mysterious ways in which he has led us along these stormy days of the pandemic. In order to heartily welcome our brothers and sisters in their return, we intend to gradually open up more seats in the church. Starting this weekend, we will have the pews on the extreme right side open without any barrier. Please continue to wear a mask while at the church and make the community a safe place to worship.

Starting this weekend, we will also have the normal 8 stations for the distribution of Holy Communion; we will also resume the crucially important act of bringing up the gifts of Bread and Wine during the offertory. If everyone is cautious and is faithful in practicing the pandemic related safety protocols, we should all be safe. Thank you all for making so many sacrifices in the past year. May your love for others shine on.

I am deeply indebted to our longstanding ministry leaders and volunteers who have served and still continue to serve our parish with such joy that we know they are filled with the Holy Spirit. Without each and every one of them and their dedication and commitment, we cannot be who we are today. I have long admired the serving culture of our community. Thank you for your generous participation in the life of the parish. In view of bringing back normalcy to our life in the parish, we will be needing more volunteers for several of our ministries. Please take time to pray and see in what ways you can volunteer for ministries.

Volunteering for ministries is totally different from volunteering for many other things in the community outside. To be a ministry volunteer needs a total change of mindset and attitude where the work we do is not about ME but is given in love of God and our brothers and sisters; it means adhering to a completely different norm and dress codes; it means that we observe reverence and silence most of the time; it means we take time to spiritually prepare and pray before coming to serve; it means to have a deeply nourished desire to be a disciple of Christ the servant; it means not looking for recognition for the ministry we do but, in humility, offer back to God who has given us such wonderful gifts; it means to serve with a smile that comes from the joy of knowing the love God has for you; it means you are open to an ongoing review of how to grow closer to Christ putting on the virtues of Christ. All of these might seem daunting but to be frank, there is no one who is perfect. Let this not intimidate you but take this as a personal invitation from the Lord to begin to be a person of action. As Catholics we cannot be merely spectators. We come to worship a living God who has outlined to us how he wants to be worshipped.

This weekend we enter into the third Sunday of Easter and we continue to read and reflect on the many different ways the Risen Christ had emboldened the nascent church through the bold preaching of the apostles. Jesus continues to strengthen the shattered and shaken and fear filled disciples with his post resurrection appearances and commissioning them to bear witness to his resurrection. John challenges us with these thought-provoking words: "Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him" (1 John 2: 5a). Give the love of God the opportunity to be perfected in you.

Hence, let us be bold witnesses and disciples of our Risen Lord by beginning to serve St. John's Community by stepping into several ministries each according to his or her talents and gifts. If you are so inclined please meet me for a chat and we will together discern which ministry might be more suitable for you.

Be Blessed!
With love,
Fr. John

PATRIS CORDE 18 April 2021

Dear Friends,

I invite you to read a portion of the Apostolic Letter by Pope Francis on St. Joseph titled: Patris Corde. In this simple but beautiful and timely letter, he presents St. Joseph as a model of fatherhood and a key intercessor and source of support and guidance in these difficult times of fear, frailties and depression. Let us take the time to continue to delve into the heart of St. Joseph and pray that we may imitate his faithfulness to God in our lives as we meditate on the personal reflections of Pope Francis on St. Joseph.

APOSTOLIC LETTER PATRIS CORDE OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS ON THE 150th ANNIVERSARY OF THE PROCLAMATION OF SAINT JOSEPH AS PATRON OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

5. A creatively courageous father

If the first stage of all true interior healing is to accept our personal history and embrace even the things in life that we did not choose, we must now add another important element: creative courage. This emerges especially in the way we deal with difficulties. In the face of difficulty, we can either give up and walk away, or somehow engage with it. At times, difficulties bring out resources we did not even think we had.

As we read the infancy narratives, we may often wonder why God did not act in a more direct and clear way. Yet God acts through events and people. Joseph was the man chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true "miracle" by which God saves the child and his mother. God acted by trusting in Joseph's creative courage. Arriving in Bethlehem and finding no lodging where Mary could give birth, Joseph took a stable and, as best he could, turned it into a welcoming home for the Son of God come into the world (cf. Lk 2:6-7). Faced with imminent danger from Herod, who wanted to kill the child, Joseph was warned once again in a dream to protect the child, and rose in the middle of the night to prepare the flight into Egypt (cf. Mt 2:13-14).

A superficial reading of these stories can often give the impression that the world is at the mercy of the strong and mighty, but the "good news" of the Gospel consists in showing that, for all the arrogance and violence of worldly powers, God always finds a way to carry out his saving plan. So too, our lives may at times seem to be at the mercy of the powerful, but the Gospel shows us what counts. God always finds a way to save us, provided we show the same creative courage as the carpenter of Nazareth, who was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence.
If at times God seems not to help us, surely this does not mean that we have been abandoned, but instead are being trusted to plan, to be creative, and to find solutions ourselves.

That kind of creative courage was shown by the friends of the paralytic, who lowered him from the roof in order to bring him to Jesus (cf. Lk 5:17-26). Difficulties did not stand in the way of those friends' boldness and persistence. They were convinced that Jesus could heal the man, and "finding no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the middle of the crowd in front of Jesus. When he saw their faith, he said, 'Friend, your sins are forgiven you'" (vv. 19-20). Jesus recognized the creative faith with which they sought to bring their sick friend to him.
The Gospel does not tell us how long Mary, Joseph and the child remained in Egypt. Yet they certainly needed to eat, to find a home and employment. It does not take much imagination to fill in those details. The Holy Family had to face concrete problems like every other family, like so many of our migrant brothers and sisters who, today too, risk their lives to escape misfortune and hunger. In this regard, I consider Saint Joseph the special patron of all those forced to leave their native lands because of war, hatred, persecution and poverty.

At the end of every account in which Joseph plays a role, the Gospel tells us that he gets up, takes the child and his mother, and does what God commanded him (cf. Mt 1:24; 2:14.21). Indeed, Jesus and Mary his Mother are the most precious treasure of our faith [Cf. S. RITUUM CONGREGATIO, Quemadmodum Deus (8 December 1870): ASS 6 (1870- 1871), 193; BLESSED PIUS IX, Apostolic Letter Inclytum Patriarcham (7 July 1871): l.c., 324-327].

In the divine plan of salvation, the Son is inseparable from his Mother, from Mary, who "advanced in her pilgrimage of faith, and faithfully persevered in her union with her Son until she stood at the cross" [SECOND VATICAN ECUMENICAL COUNCIL, Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium, 58].

We should always consider whether we ourselves are protecting Jesus and Mary, for they are also mysteriously entrusted to our own responsibility, care and safekeeping. The Son of the Almighty came into our world in a state of great vulnerability. He needed to be defended, protected, cared for and raised by Joseph. God trusted Joseph, as did Mary, who found in him someone who would not only save her life, but would always provide for her and her child. In this sense, Saint Joseph could not be other than the Guardian of the Church, for the Church is the continuation of the Body of Christ in history, even as Mary's motherhood is reflected in the motherhood of the Church [Catechism of the Catholic Church, 963-970]. In his continued protection of the Church, Joseph continues to protect the child and his mother, and we too, by our love for the Church, continue to love the child and his mother.

That child would go on to say: "As you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me" (Mt 25:40). Consequently, every poor, needy, suffering or dying person, every stranger, every prisoner, every infirm person is "the child" whom Joseph continues to protect. For this reason, Saint Joseph is invoked as protector of the unfortunate, the needy, exiles, the afflicted, the poor and the dying. Consequently, the Church cannot fail to show a special love for the least of our brothers and sisters, for Jesus showed a particular concern for them and personally identified with them. From Saint Joseph, we must learn that same care and responsibility. We must learn to love the child and his mother, to love the sacraments and charity, to love the Church and the poor. Each of these realities is always the child and his mother.

SUNDAY'S READINGS—April 18, 2021

First Reading:
The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. (Acts 3:15)

Psalm:
Lord, let your face shine on us. (Ps 4)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:
He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. (1 Jn 2:2)

Gospel:
"Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name." (Lk 24:46-47)

Becoming Catholic

RCIA

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

The first step in the process of becoming Catholic is called Inquiry. It's purpose is to answer questions people may have about the Church, God , or Christian life. There is no commitment to attend Inquiry, and there is no registration. Just show up. Bring a friend. Just listen. See if this is where God is calling you.

While we are currently meeting with individuals who are considering becoming Catholic on Zoom, we will return to meeting in Room 5 of the Parish Center beginning on Monday, April 19th at 6:30 p.m. In the meantime, those wanting more information or who want to meet with us on Zoom are welcome to by contacting Terri Tagye at 321-258-6383 or territagye@aol.com.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in the Adoration Chapel

Monday through Friday
8:30am until 4:00pm
Saturday 3:00pm to 5:30pm

Adult Confirmation

Adult baptized Catholics 18 years and older who were never confirmed can be prepared for the Sacrament of Confirmation. The first step would be a meeting with Fr. John. Please call the office at 321-637-9650 and ask for Misty to schedule an appointment.

Volunteer Opportunities

Our volunteers are very important to us and vital to the life of the parish. If you would like to volunteer for any of these ministries or would like to become involved in another one, please call the office and Fr. John or Misty can make an appointment to meet with Fr. John.

33 Days to Merciful Love

You are invited to attend a six week retreat by Fr. Michael Gaitley. This retreat will introduce us to a great modern day doctor of the church: "St. Therese, of the Little Way".

The retreat delves deeply into God's mercy, and how he wants to give it to us, through his self-giving love. Each day of the retreat, we will be drawn deeper into knowing how God is reaching out to us, in hope that we will trust his love.

Start Date: Thursday, April 22

End Date: Thursday, May 27

Two sessions are offered:

12:30pm—2:00pm or

6:30pm—8:00 p.m.

If you would like to attend the retreat, registration forms are available on the table in the narthex of the church.

For more information contact: Mary Adams at mtmadams@gmail.com or Bernie Yandura at bfyandura1@cfl.rr.com

Weekly Gospel Reflection

Third Sunday of Easter

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News. ©LPi
