Fr. John Britto's Weekly Message

Sunday August 29, 2021

Dear friends,

We have spent the last five weekends reflecting on Chapter 6 of John's Gospel, "The Bread of Life" discourse, ending with that poignant question Jesus poses to his disciples: "Do you also want to leave?" By this time, many of those who had been following Christ had already left him; they found his teachings too difficult to accept, most especially his assertion that those who would eat his flesh and drink his blood would have eternal life. But Peter responded without hesitation, "Master, to whom shall we go?" How privileged we are to be counted among those who continue to follow Christ, even today!

Beginning this weekend, we return to Mark who narrates the incident of the Pharisees and Scribes and their preoccupation with the external observances of the law, such as cleaning one's hands before meals. Jesus wants us to go deeper, asking us to honor God not only with our lips but, more importantly, with our hearts.

Let us continue our reflection on the Eucharist found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

ARTICLE 3: THE SACRAMENT OF THE EUCHARIST

V. THE SACRAMENTAL SACRIFICE THANKSGIVING, MEMORIAL, PRESENCE

1356 If from the beginning Christians have celebrated the Eucharist and in a form whose substance has not changed despite the great diversity of times and liturgies, it is because we know ourselves to be bound by the command the Lord gave on the eve of his Passion: "Do this in remembrance of me" (1 Cor 11:24-25).

1357 We carry out this command of the Lord by celebrating the memorial of his sacrifice. In so doing, we offer to the Father what he has himself given us: the gifts of his creation, bread and wine which, by the power of the Holy Spirit and by the words of Christ, have become the body and blood of Christ. Christ is thus really and mysteriously made present.

1358 We must therefore consider the Eucharist as:

- thanksgiving and praise to the Father;

- the sacrificial memorial of Christ and his Body;

- the presence of Christ by the power of his word and of his Spirit.

Thanksgiving and praise to the Father

1359 The Eucharist, the sacrament of our salvation accomplished by Christ on the cross, is also a sacrifice of praise in thanksgiving for the work of creation. In the Eucharistic sacrifice the whole of creation loved by God is presented to the Father through the death and the Resurrection of Christ. Through Christ the Church can offer the sacrifice of praise in thanksgiving for all that God has made good, beautiful, and just in creation and in humanity.

1360 The Eucharist is a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Father, a blessing by which the Church expresses her gratitude to God for all his benefits, for all that he has accomplished through creation, redemption, and sanctification. Eucharist means first of all "thanksgiving."

1361 The Eucharist is also the sacrifice of praise by which the Church sings the glory of God in the name of all creation. This sacrifice of praise is possible only through Christ: he unites the faithful to his person, to his praise, and to his intercession, so that the sacrifice of praise to the Father is offered through Christ and with him, to be accepted in him.

Be Blessed!

With love,

Fr. John

SUNDAY'S READINGS—August 29 , 2021

Diaconate Candidates for the Diocese of Orlando

Can you find our own Tom Buddington?

Congratulations, Tom!

Prayers on your journey.

Weekly Offertory Online

Thank you for your continued support of our Parish. Weekly offertory can be mailed, dropped at the office, or donated online at stjohnviera.weshareonline.org.

Contributions to the Weekly Offertory are used to offset the costs associated with day-to-day operations of the parish and its programs. These costs include Masses, liturgical programs, religious education, sacramental preparation, adult education programs, maintenance and cleaning of the buildings, utilities, supplies and payroll.

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Are you or someone you know having a difficult time because of a loss of someone close? True healing comes from support of friends, family, community and God. If you are experiencing grief from such a loss, St. John the Evangelist invites you to join our grief support group. We will be following the GriefShare program - "Your Journey from Mourning to Joy"- a video-based program covering topics such as: Is this Normal, Guilt and Anger. Being Stuck in Grief, and other practical information that will help you recover from the pain of grief and loss.

Session dates: Tuesdays (weekly)
Starts Sept.7 to Nov. 30, 2021
12:30pm – 2:15pm in classrooms 1 & 2

CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER GROUP

"Contemplative prayer . . . is nothing else than a close sharing between friends . . . taking time frequently to be alone with Him who we know loves us." St. Teresa of Avila

After a hiatus, St. John's Contemplative Prayer Group is meeting again and you are warmly invited to join us. We will meet every Fridays beginning September 17 at 2:00 PM in the Adoration Chapel for 20 minutes of silent prayer. We then walk to classroom 5 for Scripture reflection and study of books and videos related to contemplation. We finish with time to share joys and concerns and to pray as a group. We are an open group, and we welcome you to come and see. For more information please contact Karen Donahoe at 321-241-6345.

Becoming Catholic
RCIA
Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

There are a number of steps that an individual is led through during the process of becoming Catholic. The first is called Inquiry. Inquiry is a time for the individual to ask questions. Often those include asking about what Catholics believe, questioning things that you may have heard about the church in the past, and wondering what the process is like.

Inquiry does not require a commitment. The team is available every Monday, 6:30-7:30 PM, except for holiday weekends, in room 5 of the parish center. A person can come and go as they choose, as together we and they attempt to discern where God is leading them.

It is helpful for a friend or relative to accompany the Inquirer. If you have been praying for another to consider joining the Church, reach out, invite, accompany, be a friend. It is a challenge to be bold! Go out and dare to share the good news and be courageous enough to bring your friend to Mass. You never know! God may be inviting you to be the disciple who is a companion on the journey. We look forward to meeting you both. Further info: Terri Tagye 321-258-6383 or territagye@aol.com .

Baptism Classes

Baptism classes are held on the 3rd Sunday of each month at 12:00 noon in the parish center, room 6. Sign up for the class is not necessary.

Bulletin Announcement Deadlines

Please note: To have your information published in the bulletin, you must email your information in an editable file no later than the Monday two weeks prior to the Sunday you would like it to appear in the bulletin.
Send your notice to mhuff@stjohnviera.org.
Thank you for your cooperation.

Catholicism Registration Form

Fr. John, Bernie, and Mary would like to invite you to attend a 10-week series on our faith. Bishop Robert Barron is the creator and host of CATHOLICISM, a groundbreaking, award-winning documentary series about the Catholic faith.

The series has aired on hundreds of PBS stations across the world and has been used by parishes, universities, and schools as an essential spiritual resource.

This "Do-It-Yourself-Program" will take us on a journey around the world and deep into the Catholic Faith.

Each of the ten series will take your breath away at the sites we will see and the depth at which the beauty of our faith will be exposed in a new and challenging way.

Each week, we will watch a DVD, produced by Bishop Barron, and then breakup into small discussion groups. We will reconvene for summary, homework reading assignment, and closing prayer.

Our first session start date is: Thursday, September 30 ending on date is December 9, 2021.

For your convenience we have two session times:

12:30-2:00pm___ or 6:30-8:00 pm___.

Weekly Gospel Reflection 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Albert Einstein said that the "true measure of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination." Being a disciple of Jesus Christ requires a great deal of imagination. It is not enough to simply attend to facts, rules and rituals and consider the job done. Quite contrarily, the Gospels demands creativity, of trying to discern how to put flesh on the Beatitudes and properly serve God's children. Jesus never doled out a top down agenda. Not once did he ever demand conformity over conversion or sacrifice over mercy. The Gospel is always about putting people in touch with their compassionate, forgiving, and unconditionally loving God and meeting them where they are.

For Jesus, it often meant breaking a few rules. Well respected and time-honored traditions had to be set aside in order to attend to what really mattered. God's compassion, mercy and true conversion were always the trump cards. The story of the Good Samaritan, healing on the Sabbath, and bypassing of purification rituals all display this theme. Human beings can get too hung up on protocol and tradition. This is so much so that often preserving all of these things is of greater concern than the beggar knocking on our door or the sinner looking for mercy. It is no wonder, then, that we can easily become hypocritical. Many can see us on our knees in prayer while our true heart and actions, rooted in judgment and self-preservation, are hidden from others. It is a trap into which we can easily fall. Who cares how we live our lives as long as our hands are properly washed!

Here enters the need for imagination and the distinction of truly being a wise and intelligent person. It takes a good measure of creativity and a lot of guts to really be a doer of God's word and not merely a hearer. Being a person who doesn't just tell people about God but shows people God requires courage and ingenuity. That's why people like St. Francis of Assisi and St. Teresa of Calcutta are timeless. Their genuineness speaks volumes generation to generation. It's risky business taking the step to allow God into our hearts. Permitting God to release us from the grip of our evil thoughts, infidelity, greed, malice, sexual improprieties, licentiousness, envy, arrogance, folly, and the like takes courage. That's why we prefer to spend our energy rearranging the future rather than take measures to secure a foundation that is most certainly crumbling.
