Fr. John Britto's Weekly Message

Sunday, May 14, 2023

Dear Friends,

Today we take time to offer special honor to mothers on this Mother's Day weekend.

The month of May invites us to dwell on the feminine genius. This genius was made visible in particular in Mother Mary. Her feminine genius is seen in how she collaborated with God to bring forth her Son Jesus Christ into the world and to raise and support him in life, in death, and through the new life of the Spirit.

What is the feminine genius?

It is the unique capacity women have to uphold the primacy of love in human life. Written into a woman's physiology, even if she never physically carries a child, is "room for another" and an innate sensitivity to the goodness of the human person. Man, John Paul II taught, always stands in some sense outside the life process, learning a significant part of his role as son, husband, and father from woman. Woman, then, has a great service to render humanity as custodian of the person and of the family—some women as literal mothers, and all women as spiritual mothers, by seeing persons from the heart and bringing the truth about the human person to the fore wherever they work and serve.

The month of May also affords us an opportunity to think of our own mother's feminine genius, how this is revealed in the way they bring us into the world, care for us along our journey, and nurture our growth. On this Mother's Day, let us honor our mothers, living or deceased.

It is very difficult to understand what a mother goes through in her heart as she struggles to keep everyone in the family together and focused on the life to be lived. It breaks my heart to know that there are many mothers who are neglected and unappreciated and simply ignored by their own children. This must be like a sword piercing their hearts each time it happens. Have you felt your mother's heart as it beat for you every moment of her life? A mother's tender and compassionate love for her children are indeed a reflection of Christ's sacrificial love for each one of us.

Let us not only think of our mothers but honor them some way this month. If you have not spoken to your mother in a while, for whatever reason, please stop everything you are doing, pick up your phone, and call her or visit her or do something to show that you care for her. "A mother is the only person to have felt your heartbeat from inside, who has a love that is unbreakable, and who is your friend for life." Thank you, Mothers, for your love and, most especially, for passing on your faith to your children.

We also say a big thanks to our Church for being acutely motherly in the way she accompanies us from birth until death and paves the way for our forever life with God.

In addition, we take this day to think of, thank, and honor all the special woman in our lives with the gift of prayer.

On behalf of Fr. Vincent, the Deacons, and the Staff, I wish you our mothers

A Very Happy Mother's Day!

On the 6th Sunday of Easter, we continue to reflect on readings from the Book of the Acts of the Apostles. We hear how the disciples are busy spreading the good news of Jesus Christ. Philip has done a great ministry in Samaria, and Peter and John are sent as a reinforcement to strengthen those who had been baptized by Philip by laying their hands on them. There is a great joy when the people accept Jesus.

St. Peter in his first letter says something spectacular about what accepting Jesus does to us. We are filled with hope. We do not live like before, without hope. This is Peter's famous statement: "Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope." How lovely it would be if people noticed the gift of hope in our lives.

Are we people who bring hope to others? Pope Benedict XVI, in his masterpiece Spe Salvi (2), describes those who live in hope: "The one who has hope lives differently; the one who hopes has been granted the gift of a new life."

Every Christian receives the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity at Baptism. Hope is rooted in these truths:

- ⊕ Our Creator loved us into being — God first loved us (1 John 4:19)
- ⊕ He continually sustains us by His love — God is love (1 John 4:8)
- ⊕ By His death and resurrection, we have been saved and restored to God's friendship — For God so loved the world (John 3:16-17).

The Constitutions of the Congregation of Holy Cross boldly and eloquently invite the men of Holy Cross to be men with hope to bring. Jesus, in the Gospel of John (14: 21), gives us a clue as to what could give us this hope. He asserts: "whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him." If we live in intimate relationship with the Father and the Son, the Holy Spirit will fill us with hope.

I pray that all of you will be filled with that priceless hope, so that you may spread the Good News that Jesus is Risen!

Have a Blessed Week!

With love,
Fr. John

Message from St. John's Art and Environment Ministry

We are honoring and praying for our mothers, living or deceased, during our Mother's Day weekend masses. There are tables in the narthex with strips of paper and baskets. Please write your mother's name on the strip and place it in any of the baskets. They will be brought up during the Presentation of the Gifts.

Loving God, Bless and care for our mothers always. May they always be beloved and cherished. Help us to be grateful and helpful, not just on Mother's Day, but every day. We make this prayer in the name of Jesus who loved His mother very much.

AN RCIA JOURNEY

As told by Bob Ward

I was raised in a mostly secular home, except for attending Sunday school at the Lutheran Church until I was about 8. I was married in the Catholic church over 35 years ago and have attended Mass with my wife many times over the years, but mostly on holidays. Initially through my wife's insistence, I began attending weekly mass at St. John's about 5 years ago, but it wasn't until recently that I became interested in RCIA and began the process.

Through God's calling, my prayer life went from nonexistent to praying daily, and I began seeing the world around me very differently. At Mass I listen more intently to the Word of God and think about how my life has changed. And finally at the Easter Vigil, I became part of the church family, God's family, in a ceremony that was so peaceful and so beautiful, words cannot adequately describe it. From the candles, readings, singing, and prayers, leading up to the Baptism, Confirmation, and finally, the Body and Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, I knew I belonged.

All through the RCIA process, and after the Easter Vigil, my fellow parishioners were so kind in welcoming me to the family. I know that God has put me on this faith journey, and that this is just the beginning.

Are you one of the faithful people who attends Mass with a spouse or friend even though you are not Catholic? Could you be one of the people God is calling to become Catholic yourself? Or are you the faithful one who has encouraged another to consider joining the Church? You are invited to attend a one-hour session on most Mondays at 6:30 p.m. in room 5 (We don't meet on long weekend holidays). There is no commitment. Come. Ask questions. Meet the RCIA Team. We look forward to meeting you.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Moreau

Lord Jesus, source of all that is good, you inspired Basile Moreau to found the religious family of Holy Cross to continue your mission among the People of God. May he be for us a model of apostolic life, an example of fidelity, and an inspiration as we strive to follow you. Lord Jesus, you said, "Ask and you shall receive." We come to ask you that you hear our prayer. It is through the intercession of Basile Moreau that we ask (state your intention). May we learn to imitate his holiness and service and look to him confidently in times of need. Amen.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

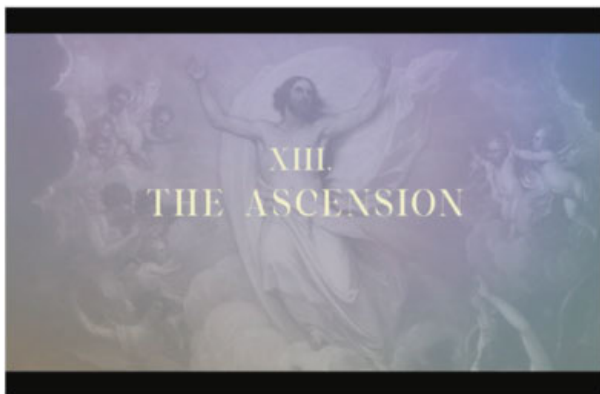

My dad was adopted as a baby. It's a big part of my family's story. His birth mother placed him in a Catholic orphanage not long after birth. A young couple longing for a baby strolled among the bassinets. My father, then only a few months old, looked at the husband and smiled. The man said, "That's my son." They took him home and the family grew. This moment of adoption was a wonderful truth they celebrated even when my dad was a young boy. They told him, "You're even more special than the other children, because we chose you to be our son." My dad's eyes well up with tears of gratitude whenever he tells the story, even eighty-three years later.

What is your story? Do we think or act like unwanted orphans? Who do we believe ourselves to be? As we continue to ponder Jesus' resurrection, we hear him say to us this Sunday, "I will not leave you orphans." God doesn't leave us alone like spiritual orphans. The power that raised Jesus from the dead is the Holy Spirit, who is also called the Spirit of Adoption. He chooses us to be His children, to share God's life forever. He gives us a future filled with hope.

We are not orphans anymore! This Easter, that's the story we should share with others. It's the true story we are living right now.
