ALL ARE WELCOME

We are guided by the words of St. Vincent de Paul as we meet with those requesting help. "Deal with neighbors in a gentle, humble, and loving manner, even with the most hardened of sinners, and never employ a vehement accusation or reproaches or harsh language toward anyone whomsoever. "Certainly the words in Luke 6:32 -37 must have guided him as we hope they do us: "Be merciful, just as also your Father is merciful. Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven."

We hope as we do our work in St. Vincent de Paul we are guided by our founder and of course, the words in the Holy Bible. Pray for us that we always do what is best for those we serve. We will continue to pray for you, the supporters of our efforts.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

"Love is patient, love is kind ..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire.

But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe.

Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?).

A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window.

As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS©LPi

Pray without ceasing for the Born & Unborn

"If indeed "the just ordering of society and of the state is a central responsibility of politics," the Church, "cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice."

Evangelii Gaudium, no. 183

Little things do mean a lot!

QUESTIONS of the WEEK:
FACING REJECTION

Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19 (prophet consecrated to God)
1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13 (love never fails)
Luke 4:21-30 (beginning of preaching; rejection by the towns people)
They got up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they might hurl him off the cliff. But he passed through the midst of them and went on his way.

Sponsored by the Office of Advocacy and Justice

Each year, Catholics from across the state gather in Tallahassee to participate in Catholic Days at the Capitol (400 S. Monroe St, Tallahassee). This two-day event provides an opportunity for the faithful to put a call to political responsibility into action and to strengthen the presence of Catholic values in the public square. By joining together to advocate for laws that protect and defend human life and dignity, Catholic Floridians can give a voice to some of the most vulnerable and marginalized populations in our state and help promote the common good for all Florida residents. Activities include:

- A legislative briefing on policy issues affecting human life and dignity
- Pre-scheduled meetings with lawmakers
- A luncheon for Catholic Days participants, Florida's bishops and legislators
- Group photos of each diocesan delegation with their bishop
- Tours of the current and historic capitol buildings
- The opportunity to view the legislative process in action
- Annual Red Mass of the Holy Spirit concelebrated by the bishops of Florida to pray for those working in the legislative, judicial and executive branches of government. For additional information for the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee, visit <https://www.flaccb.org/cdac>.

BIBLE Study

MATTHEW The King and His Kingdom

Join us for an Adult Faith Formation Bible Study at St Sylvester. Beginning 21 Feb., meeting in Conference Room 1, every Monday from 6:00-8:00pm.

Matthew portrays Jesus as the true King who fulfills the Law the people of Israel have failed to keep and who introduces the new law that will accompany the New Covenant. In this 24-part study of Matthew's Gospel, Jeff Cavins explains how Jesus is challenging and empowering us to a new level of holiness and shows how we must be thoroughly immersed in the kingdom of heaven on earth, the Church, to live it. Contact Bob Gambera for more information (850) 206-4325.
