COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Luke 5:1-11

GOSPEL

Jesus was powerful enough to control the fish in the sea! Peter caught no fish by himself one night. With Jesus' help, Peter caught more fish than his boat could carry. When Peter saw what Jesus did, he was afraid. How would you feel?

PRAYER

Dear God, your power is so amazing!

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Let your nets down to catch some fish.

MISSION

With your parents, try turning on a lamp while it isn't plugged in. It doesn't work, does it? That's how we need to be plugged in to God, to do his work. Without him, what we try will never work.

PUZZLE

Circle the group in each row that has more. Then color in all the pictures.

MISSION

I will remind my family to ask God for answers to their problems.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

The gift of the Mission

Early on in my work in parish ministry, I had to deal with a tough human resources situation, letting some staff members go and stepping into a role that demanded more of my time and energy.

In moments like this, stewardship can feel burdensome. Things take a turn we didn't expect, perhaps in spite of our best efforts. Maybe more is asked of us than we want or feel prepared to give.

But that's when we need to remember that stewardship isn't a job that we apply for. It's a gift bestowed directly from God, the Creator of all, and that can be scary all on its own, if we are preoccupied with our own unworthiness. What we might want to do is fall on our knees like Simon Peter and announce, "Depart from me, Lord — I am sinful."

But what if we stop looking in the mirror and look instead to God?

All those years ago, when I was faced with that ministerial challenge, I asked my wife to join me. What started as a tough situation turned into a decade of shared ministry with her — an experience I wouldn't trade for anything. It was a burden that became a gift.

We must remember that God knows what He is about. In His mercy, He gives us what we need as everyday stewards. When God calls out, "Whom shall we send?" we — in all our sinfulness — are allowed to cry out "Send me, Lord!" And He sends us out and behold — our nets tear with the bounty we harvest in His name. Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

2022 CSA Prayer

Lord, hear our prayer as we seek to be good stewards of the many gifts You have bestowed on us. Give us wisdom to discern Your will for us, strength to meet the challenge, and the grace to be steadfast in our commitment to You. Let us use our time, talent, and treasure for Your greater honor and glory. In Your name we pray. Amen

We have our new Breaking Bread Missalettes. PLEASE HELP keep these in good shape by placing them in the pews the proper way before you leave. You can help by simply putting them back like the Picture shows. Please also take any tissues you brought/used out with you. Thank you so very much for your help!
Little things do mean a lot!

Continuing SVDP retreat topics;

We as just parishioners or as SVDP members need to focus on three big things in our lives FRIENDSHIP, SERVICE, AND SPIRITUALITY.

Friendship: whether with each other, our fellow parishioners, or our neighbors in the greater community. With friendship we learn about each other, with those around us, then we can learn to work together, to accept each other and to carry this friendship to our neighbors in need.

Service: where we learn to be servants to each other.

Just as Jesus was servant to God's will and to the needs of his fellow man, whether washing disciples feet or feeding the 4000 or healing the sick or bringing God's word to the people of not only Israel but to the whole world. When we humble ourselves to serve, God is honored.

Spirituality: As Christians we share Christ through physical help, in prayer in church and meetings, as well as prayer with our neighbors.

Physical help: you cannot get people to listen to you when they are consumed with pain, or worry about how they are going to survive for the next week.

Prayer start whatever you do with prayer asking Gods guidance. This will help us to listen to each other and act accordingly with God's plans. Just as we start with prayer we need to finish what ever we are doing with prayer.

When we bring friendship, service and spirituality into our lives then we will bring Christ to all.
