Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's portico. None of the others dared to join them, but the people esteemed them. Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. A large number of people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem also gathered, bringing the sick and those disturbed by unclean spirits, and they were all cured. (Acts 5:12-16)

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED Who Can Offer Anointing of the Sick?

Question: Can anyone offer the Anointing of the Sick to a sick or dying person, or is that only something a priest can do?

Answer: The Letter of James speaks to us of the ancient tradition of a special anointing and blessing of those who are sick: "Is there anyone sick among you? Let him send for the presbyters of the Church and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord ... If he has committed any sins, they will be forgiven him" (5:14, 15b). This passage forms the foundation for the theology of the sacrament that we call "Anointing of the Sick." In keeping with what we read in the Letter of James and the ancient tradition of the Church, the anointing of a person of who sick or dying many only be performed by a priest or bishop.

Although deacons and other members of the Church are not able to celebrate the sacrament with a person who is sick, we can read Sacred Scripture and pray with and for those who are ill. Resources like the Book of Blessings also contain special blessings that can be celebrated by deacons or lay ministers. In the end, we want to be sure that we show a special care and concern for the sick, helping them to always experience God's loving comfort through made tangible through our acts of charity and service. ©LPi

April, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal focus is "Strengthening the Church at Home." The Appeal supports Dioceses in the United States and its territories that are unable to offer their people the basic pastoral ministries and service without outside help. The thrust of this program is to provide assistance for religious education, seminary formation, lay ministry training and other programs that both assist in evangelizing and build vibrant faith communities.

Further, through your contributions this Appeal helps schools in the poorest communities. These children face the challenges of poverty, violence and crime. Despite the challenges endured, many children from these schools successfully complete high school and later enroll in college or university.

The 2022 Catholic Home Missions Appeal is scheduled in the Diocese of Venice the weekend of April 23 and 24, 2022. You are invited to learn more about the appeal and those who benefit from it by visiting www.usccb.org/home-missions. On behalf of your brothers and sisters whom you will be helping, thank you for your support and generosity!

I take this opportunity to assure you and your family of my continued consideration as well as my prayers in this Easter Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 + Frank J. Dewane
 Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

He served at schools and Parishes in India before coming to the United States in 2007. Here he served in the Diocese of Memphis before coming to the Diocese of Venice in 2017. In Father Saji's words: "I really love being a priest and thank the good Lord for trusting me with this divine call to minister to the spiritual needs of the faithful. The most important inspiration for me to be happy is my devotion to the Holy Eucharist and seeking the intercessions of Our Heavenly Mother Mary." SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Pedro de San José Betancur | April 25

Central America's first saint, St. Pedro de San José Betancur (1626-1667) was born a poor shepherd in the Canary Islands. His family lands were seized because of debt, and he worked as an indentured servant until his early adult life when Pedro left his home to travel to Guatemala. His money for the journey ran out long before he arrived. He was destitute when he did arrive and was forced to join the bread line the Franciscan Friars had for the poor.

In 1655, he joined the Third Order of St Francis. Pedro began to serve the poor, the enslaved, immigrants, abandoned children, anyone that needed him. In 1658 he was given a hut which he made into a hospital for the poor. This small start grew into a shelter for the homeless, a school for the poor, an inn for priests, and several small chapels in poor areas. He was supported by many patrons and was joined in his work by both men and women, who became the Bethlehemite Brothers and the Bethlehemite Sisters.

Pedro prayed for the souls of those in purgatory, walked through the streets of rich neighborhoods ringing a bell and calling the wealthy to repent, and ministered to prisoners. Most accounts credit him with beginning the tradition of posadas, a procession in which people representing Mary and Joseph ask for lodging from their neighbors. This tradition continues today in Mexico and Central America. Because of his work with the poor and marginalized Pedro is often referred to as the "Saint Frances of the Americas". St. Pedro was canonized on July 30, 2002, in Guatemala City, Guatemala by Pope John Paul II. ©LPi

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA - RECONOCER A DIOS EN LOS MOMENTOS ORDINARIOS

El mundo está observando

Si eres padre, sabes que esto es cierto: el mundo está observando. Todo lo que se necesita es un desliz: una mala palabra, una acción egoísta, un comentario poco caritativo, y eso es lo que tu hijo parece notar.

Cuando él o ella te lo hace notar, lo único que puedes hacer es confesarlo. "Sí, hice eso," tienes que decir. "Soy un trabajador en progreso, pero afortunadamente, Dios nunca deja de trabajar."

Creo que es justo decir que no pensamos lo suficiente en las heridas de Cristo. Es un poco comprensible, por supuesto. Nuestros cuerpos humanos se estremecen al ver tanto dolor y mortificación. Es mucho para manejar, el trauma físico de una crucifixión. Lleva una calificación R en un mundo PG.

Pero las heridas de Cristo son lo único que podía hacer creer a Tomás. Literalmente, nada más era tan poderoso, ni siquiera el testimonio de sus amigos de más confianza. Solo mirando y sintiendo la carne desgarrada, al contemplar esa realidad complicada, este Apóstol, este verdadero compañero de Cristo, llegó a creer en la Resurrección.

"Ahora, Cristo no tiene más cuerpo que el tuyo," dice la famosa cita atribuida a santa Teresa de Ávila. Lo que ella está diciendo es que nos hemos convertido en el medio a través del cual Dios elige para cumplir Su voluntad en el mundo. Nosotros, los rotos. Nosotros, los cansados. Nosotros, los imperfectos. Sí, eventos milagrosos y apariciones todavía ocurren de vez en cuando, pero en general, si una persona va a llegar a creer en Jesucristo en esta época, será por algo por lo que los cristianos hacemos o decimos.

Ahora, Cristo no tiene más heridas que las nuestras. Nuestro quebrantamiento, nuestro cansancio, nuestra imperfección, nuestra realidad. Todo le pertenece a él y el mundo está observando.

Abril del 2022

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

El enfoque de la Campaña para las Misiones Católicas Domésticas es "Fortalecer la Iglesia en el Hogar". La Campaña apoya a las Diócesis en los Estados Unidos y sus territorios que no pueden ofrecer sin ayuda externa a su gente los ministerios pastorales básicos y el servicio. El objetivo de este programa es proporcionar asistencia para la educación religiosa, la formación de los seminaristas, la capacitación en el ministerio laico y otros programas que ayudan a evangelizar y construir comunidades de fe vibrantes.

Además, a través de sus contribuciones, esta Campaña ayuda a las escuelas de las comunidades más pobres. Estos niños se enfrentan a los desafíos de la pobreza, la violencia y la delincuencia. A pesar de los desafíos soportados, muchos niños de estas escuelas completan con éxito la escuela secundaria y luego se inscriben en la universidad o colegio.

La Campaña para las Misiones Católicas Domésticas 2022 está programada en la Diócesis de Venice el fin de semana del 23 y 24 de abril del 2022. Le invitamos a aprender más sobre la Campaña y aquellos que se benefician de ella visitando www.usccb.org/home-missions. ¡En nombre de sus hermanos y hermanas a quienes estarán ayudando, le damos las gracias por su apoyo y generosidad!

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para asegurarles a ustedes y a sus familias mi consideración continua, así como mis oraciones en este tiempo de Pascua.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Obispo de la Diócesis de
Venice en Florida

REFLEXION SUR LA RESURRECTION DU SEIGNEUR:

Vivre en confinement la fête de Pâques, sommet de la vie liturgique chrétienne, est inédit et bien particulier, il faut le reconnaître ! Cette année, c'est chez soi ou sur un lit de souffrance, dans la solitude d'un appartement ou enfermés en famille à la maison, ou encore au front, au service des plus démunis ou de la gestion de crise que nous entendrons résonner cet évangile. Écoutons-le donc à frais nouveaux, se déroulant non pas dans nos seules églises, mais dans chacune de nos vies et dans le Corps ecclésial que nous formons, réunis dans une même communion spirituelle. Pâques est en effet le surgissement de la Vie dans le plus terrible des confinements : celui du sépulcre. C'est là que Jésus, le Christ Notre Seigneur, a voulu reposer : tout au long de ce carême, cette nuit et encore aujourd'hui, Il est venu saisir à bras le corps tous nos enfermements, toutes nos morts, tous nos désespoirs et tous nos échecs, ainsi que cette situation mondiale si rude que nous vivons.
