Brothers and sisters:
 Do you not know that you are the temple of God,
 and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?
 If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy.

Let no one deceive himself.
 If any one among you considers himself wise in this age, let him become a fool, so as to become wise.
 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God, for it is written:
 God catches the wise in their own ruses,
 and again:
 The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise,
 that they are vain.

So let no one boast about human beings, for everything belongs to you, Paul or Apollos or Cephas, or the world or life or death, or the present or the future:
 all belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to
 God. (1 Corinthians 3:16-23)

INSPIRATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Are you interested in joining a "network of friends?"

Do you want to be "inspired by Gospel values?"
Would you like to "grow in holiness?"

Do you want to help "build a more just world?"

Would you like to "serve people in need," knowing that what you do for the least of Christ's brethren you do for him?

The Mission Statement of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is dedicated to these values:

"A network of friends, inspired by Gospel values, growing in holiness and building a more just world through personal relationships with and service to people in need."

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Is Gossip a Sin?

Question:

Is gossip a mortal sin?

Answer:

To really ask this question, we must consider the Eighth Commandment: "You shall not bear false witness." In its reflections on this commandment, The Catechism of the Catholic Church invites us to not only think about what bearing "false witness" means, but to also consider how we understand the truth and how we communicate more broadly. This is why so much of this section of the Catechism has to do with the gift of language. With this in mind, we will notice that the word "gossip" isn't used by the Catechism. Instead, we find the words "detraction" and "calumny," which are actually two forms that gossip can take, and both can be quite serious.

First, detraction is the of revealing "another's faults and failings to persons who did not know them," without morally valid reasons. Calumny, by extension, is saying something about another person that is untrue, and it is sinful because it "harms the reputation of others and gives occasion for false judgements" (see no. 2477).

In all of our communication, we have to always recognize that we have a moral obligation to the truth and to always work to protect the reputation and honor of our neighbors (see no. 2479).

Gossip can, in fact, prove to be a very serious sin. After all, the Catechism reminds us: "No one is bound to reveal the truth to someone who does not have the right to know it" (no. 2489). When we have gossiped, especially if we are aware we have damaged another person's good name or reputation, we want to make every effort to undo the damage we have done, including seeking the grace and forgiveness offered in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. ©LPi

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On Ash Wednesday each year, Dioceses throughout the United States take up a Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. This important collection offers vital support to pastoral and charitable initiatives throughout this region and, with the war in the Ukraine, it is indeed in need of support and assistance.

Although Soviet communism ended in the early 1990s, its destructive effects linger in the societies where communism once ruled. Under the communist system, cultural values of charity and volunteerism disappeared. Rapid, sometimes harsh, transitions to market economies led to ongoing attitudes of materialism that have left poor and dependent people - such as children, seniors, and people with disabilities—particularly vulnerable.

Your support of this collection helps renew aspects of Church life in a number of countries. One example of your generosity at work is in the Diocese of Chişinău in Moldova. There, funds from the Collection have helped a network of care and support centers, where children and youth benefit from informal education programs in a safe, caring environment, and mothers and fathers are able to strengthen their parenting skills. These funds further make available an environment supporting catechesis, pastoral outreach, and basic assistance to those in need. The Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe will be held on Ash Wednesday, February 22, 2023, in the Diocese of Venice. Your participation helps express care and support for the people of this region and their families due to the spillover from the war in the Ukraine. Thank you for your generosity and may God continue to bless you for your goodness.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration, as well as my prayers as we begin the Lenten Journey.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo,

El Miercoles de Ceniza de cada aña, las Diocesis de los Estados Unidos realizan una Colecta para la Iglesia en Europa Central y Oriental. Esta importante colecta ofrece un apoyo vital a las iniciativas pastorales y caritativas en toda esta region y con la guerra en Ucrania, ciertamente necesitan apoyo y asistencia. Aunque el comunismo Sovietico termino a principios de la decada de las 1990s, sus efectos destructivos persisten en las sociedades donde una vez gobierno el comunismo. Baja el sistema comunista, desaparecieron los valores culturales de la caridad y el voluntariado. Las transiciones rapidas, a veces violentas, a las economias de mercado llevaron a actitudes constantes de materialismo que han dejado particularmente dependientes a las personas pobres y vulnerables, coma a los ninos, a los ancianos y a las personas con discapacidades.

Su apoyo a esta colecta ayuda a renovar aspectos de la vida de la Iglesia en varios paises. Un ejemplo de su generosidad en el trabajo esta en la Diocesis de Chiocin en Moldavia. Alli, los fondos de la Colecta han ayudado a una red de centros de atencion y apoyo, donde los ninos y jovenes se benefician de programas de educacion informal en un ambiente seguro y afectuoso, y las madres y los padres pueden fortalecer sus habilidades de paternidad y maternidad. Estos fondos facilitan un entorno que apoya la catequesis, el alcance pastoral y la asistencia basica para los necesitados.

La Colecta para la Iglesia en Europa Central y Oriental se llevara a cabo el Miercoles de Ceniza, 22 de Febrero del 2023, en la Diocesis de Venice. Su participacion ayuda a expresar la preocupacion y apoyo por la gente de esta region y sus familias debido a los efectos secundarios de la guerra en Ucrania. Gracias por su generosidad y que Dios le siga bendiciendo por su bondad.

Aprovecho esta oportunidad para extenderles mi continua consideracion, asi coma mis oraciones al comenzar el Camino de Cuaresma.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Francis J. Dewane
Obispo de la Diocesis de Venice en Florida
