Worship Guide

Processional Hymn On Jordan's Bank

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry
Announces that the Lord is nigh;
Awake and hearken, for he brings
Glad tidings of the King of kings.

For you are our salvation, Lord,
Our refuge, and our great reward;
Without your grace we waste away
Like flow'rs that wither and decay.

All praise the Son eternally,
Whose advent sets his people free;
Whom with the Father we adore
And Spirit blest for evermore.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking their breast, they say) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore, I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Readings may be found at #498 in the pew hymnal.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Is 42:1-4, 6-7

Psalm: The Lord will bless his people with his peace.

Michael Guimont, © 1994, GIA Publications, Inc. Reprinted and Broadcast under OneLicense.net #A-715698.

Second Reading: Acts 10:34-38

Gospel: Lk 3:15-16, 21-22

Profession of Faith (Nicene Creed)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father, through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, (all bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord Jesus, thank you for calling us to be your disciples. Help us to love you and follow you with all our heart. May our parish bear fruit in many vocations to the priesthood and religious life; touch the hearts of our young people and help them to respond to your call. Work through us to serve those in need and to share your good news, that we may be a light for Beaufort. Amen.

Offertory Hymn

Baptized in Water

Baptized in water,
Sealed by the Spirit,
Cleansed by the blood of Christ our King:
Heirs of salvation,
Trusting his promise,
Faithfully now God's praise we sing.

Baptized in water,
Sealed by the Spirit,
Dead in the tomb with Christ our King:
One with his rising,
Freed and forgiven,
Thankfully now God's praise we sing.

Baptized in water,
Sealed by the Spirit,
Marked with the sign of Christ our King:
Born of one Father,
We are his children,
Joyfully now God's praise we sing.

All hail the pow'r of Jesus' name!

And crown him Lord of all.

Bring forth the royal diadem,

And crown him Lord of all.

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,

A remnant weak and small,

We Thank God This Week:

For the Grounds Clean Up Crew

Pastor's Post

Thank You, May!

Many of you know May Hoffman, who has served faithfully as the pastor's assistant since 2003. Last spring, she let me know that she would be retiring at the end of this month, after helping me through the busy Christmas season.

All In For Jesus!

I have loved working with May these last four and a half years. I rely so much on her support and her advice! The rest of the staff and I are very sad to see her go, but we are happy that she will be able to kick back and spend lots of time with her children and grandchildren. She plans to remain active at Saint Peter's and to continue to help parishioners discern their charisms through Called and Gifted.

May's role will be in good hands with a new staff member, Valerie Shealy. She will begin as my assistant this week, with May on hand for several weeks to show her the tricks of the trade. I will introduce Valerie more in an upcoming bulletin.

When you see May, please join me in thanking her for her hard work and dedication these many years, and wish her well in her retirement! Thank you, May, for all you have done for me and for our previous pastors! You are such a blessing!

— Father Andrew

Prayer for God's Help in Daily Actions

Our Father, may everything I do begin with your inspiration, continue with your help, and reach perfection under your guidance. With Your loving care guide me in my daily actions. Help me to persevere with love and sincerity. Teach me to judge wisely the things of earth and to love the things of Heaven. Keep me in Your presence and never let me be separated from You.

Your Spirit made me Your child, confident to call you Father. Make your love the foundation of my life. Teach me to long for Heaven. May its promise and hope guide my way on earth until I reach eternal life with You.

Living Our Mission

Giving To Those Who've Given a Lifetime

In December, from our tithes to serve those in need, we made a gift of $3,000 to the Retirement Fund for Religious.

Those who've attended Catholic schools and universities, who've been involved in certain Catholic ministries, or who've visited monasteries, abbeys, and holy sites around the world surely have encountered men and women of the Catholic religious orders. These men and women typically have devoted their lives to following in Jesus' footsteps, to work in education, helping the poor, and preserving Catholic culture. Some of these orders include the Franciscans, Jesuits, Benedictines, and Carmelites.

In 1988, the Catholic bishops of the United States launched the Retirement Fund for Religious to provide for these Catholic sisters, brothers, and priests in the twilight of their careers. For most of their lives, the elder religious worked for little to no pay, and many took a vow of poverty. There are no 401(k) plans or pensions for them to live on in retirement. In most parishes, a second collection is taken, but at Saint Peter's we give as a parish through our tithing.

While the religious communities are financially responsible for the support and care of all members, these operate separately from the parish and diocesan structures of the Catholic Church, and there is a severe shortage of funding for this purpose.

Currently about two-thirds of the members of religious orders are age 70 or older, and they number more than 32,000 in the United States. The average annual cost for their care was more than $42,000 per person, while the average annual security benefit for a religious is $6,116.22.

St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta, who was one of the most famous members and founders of a religious order, once said, "We cannot all do great things, but we can do small things with great love." Those interested can learn more about the Retirement Fund for the Religious at www.retiredreligious.org.
