9 de enero de 2022 El Bautismo del Señor

Con la celebración del Bautismo del Señor se da por terminado el tiempo de Navidad. El Bautismo de Jesús es como una nueva epifanía, es decir, una nueva manifestación de Dios por medio de Jesús ahora en el Jordán. "El Espíritu Santo bajó sobre él y se manifestó exteriormente en forma de paloma, y del cielo vino una voz: Tú eres mi Hijo, hoy te he dado la vida" (Lucas 3,22). La revelación del Padre se manifiesta proclamando a Jesús como su Hijo.

El Papa Francisco en una de sus catequesis lo muestra en tres puntos muy importantes para todos los que hemos sido bautizados en Cristo Jesús: "Jesús quiso recibir el bautismo predicado y administrado por Juan el Bautista en el Jordán. ¡Cuánta humildad tiene Jesús! Y al hacerlo, manifestó lo que hemos celebrado en Navidad: sumergirse en el río de la humanidad". Jesús, va con todo a lo que refiere la cuestión humana, menos en el pecado. "El Evangelio subraya que Jesús, apenas salió del agua vio rasgarse los cielos y el Espíritu que bajaba hacia él como una paloma. El Espíritu Santo descende en plenitud sobre Jesús para darle la fortaleza de cumplir su misión". Por medio de nuestra vocación es que tenemos nuestra misión en la vida. ¿Cómo la estamos cumpliendo? "La fiesta del bautismo de Jesús invita a cada cristiano a recordar su bautismo". ¿Sabes, o recuerdas la fecha de tu bautismo? Hay que preguntar sobre ese día y de cómo se celebró la fiesta de hacernos hijos e hijas de Dios. (Papa Francisco 1/7/2018).

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

The Catholic tradition uses holy water in a variety of ways. Upon entering a church or worship it is customary to bless oneself with water as a reminder of baptism. For many centuries baptismal pools were located at the entrance to a church. One had to enter the waters of baptism before they could enter into the communion of the church. Over time the placement of the font and the size of the font made it impractical to be used for the blessing before entering church. The small holy water bowls at the entrances of a church copy the one font used for baptism. In our age many churches that are being built or renovated do allow for the possibility once again of blessing directly from the baptismal font. Our parish however, has a relatively small baptismal font which is generally covered apart from when we are administering the sacrament of Baptism.

The water of baptism cleanses us from Original Sin. The blessing of ourselves upon entering a church in the holy water font reminds us of our baptism and washes away venial sins. It prepares us for being in the presence of God. However, it is not necessary to bless oneself upon leaving church. Why, you might ask? When we have worshipped and received Communion we have a far greater blessing than that provided by holy water. You are now a tabernacle with Christ within you.

Most people are amazed today when they go to a Catholic Church and see a font large enough for immersion of infants and children and even large enough for adults to enter. That was the common form of baptism in the early centuries of the Church, but faded away when infant baptism became the norm after the 5th century.

Today when an unbaptized adult seeks to enter the Catholic Church they are baptized at the Easter Vigil. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the common form of preparation for those who are unbaptized. The RCIA includes teaching in the tradition and history of the Church, rituals throughout the year celebrated publicly, the dismissal from the assembly each Sunday, and full initiation at Easter. For those who have been baptized in another tradition, they are not rebaptized, but confirmed after making a profession of faith in the Catholic Church. Most Christians hold to the ancient practice that one baptism is sufficient to become a Christian and wipe away sin.

We also are sprinkled at the end of our life too. At a Catholic funeral it is the norm for the casket or cremated remains to be sprinkled with holy water. As we were baptized into life we are now sprinkled with holy water for eternal life.

We use holy water to bless objects as well as people. It is most commonly used to bless homes, cars, and objects used for devotion. While this blessing can be repeated it reminds the user that the object should be used for service to God's people. All things on this earth were given to us in stewardship. At the final judgment we will have to answer to God on how well we have used the things that He gave us. If one needs to dispose of a blessed object it can be buried or burned. If something becomes unusable and no longer appears like it was when blessed (like a book that has gotten singed in a fire or soaked in a flood) it may be discarded directly.

Peace,

Fr. Chris

Question to ponder: How do you think Jesus reacted to hearing God's voice at His baptism?

GOD CLAIMS US AS HIS OWN

January 9, 2022
The Baptism of the Lord

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

– Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of knee-jerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

I Hope I Am Like Him

"Who is this Christ? Is he like you?"

Perhaps you've heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

"He is nothing like me," the saint is said to have answered. "But I hope I am like him."

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist – a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power – a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ – and this is exactly as he wanted it. "One worthier than I is coming," he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God's will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament – he baptizes the Son of God.

Let's examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God's plan?

– Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
