2º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Con la fiesta de la Epifanía y el Bautismo del Señor se cierra el Tiempo de Navidad, que siempre es precedido por el Adviento. Ahora, comenzamos el Tiempo Ordinario. Serán siete domingos de este corto periodo, que termina el día anterior al Miércoles de Ceniza. La segunda etapa de este Tiempo es más larga, da comienzo después del domingo de Pentecostés y termina hasta el sábado antes del primer domingo de Adviento. ¿Para qué sirve a los cristianos este Tiempo Ordinario? ¿Qué nos pide la Liturgia de este tiempo? Pues, es muy sencillo, nos pide meditar en el misterio de Cristo. En su invitación de participar en su Reino con alegría y compromiso verdadero. La Iglesia tiene diversidad de carismas, donde podemos entregarnos al servicio de los demás.

Por ejemplo, hoy el Evangelio nos invita a participar junto con María y Jesús en las bodas de Caná. Y es ahí en esa boda, donde Jesús hace su primer milagro a petición de su Madre María. El diálogo de ambos viene a ser a causa de la falta de vino. Por lo tanto, los novios estaban en apuros por esta razón. Este relato es muy profundo, el hecho de que Jesús participa en la boda, tiene como significado la boda de Dios con la humanidad, que más adelante será la Sangre de Jesús derramada para la salvación de la humanidad. "Alegrémonos, regocijémonos démosle honor y gloria, porque han llegado las bodas del Cordero" (Apocalipsis 19,7). También, el profeta en la primera lectura lo pone claro: "No te llamen más 'Abandonada', ni a tu tierra 'Desolada', sino que te llamen 'Mi Preferida' y a tu tierra 'Desposada'. Porque Yavé se complacerá en ti y tu tierra tendrá un esposo" (Isaías 62,4).

"Injustice anywhere is threat to justice everywhere."

VISIT OF THE THREE KINGS TO LITTLE BLESSINGS ON JANUARY 6

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Friends,

Many people believe that the US Supreme Court will hear at least one abortion case this year and they may overturn Roe v Wade. If that would occur, it would mean that states then could decide through the legislative process what if any restrictions on abortion would be allowed. Many constitutional scholars think that is what should have happened in 1973 when Roe v Wade made it legal in all 50 states against the will of many Americans.

Despite the claims that Planned Parenthood will do adoption referrals as well as abortions, in 2019 they reported that they performed 355,000 abortions against 2700 adoption referrals. We know, however that when a woman who is uncertain whether she will keep her child or abort it will overwhelmingly bring the baby to term if she views an ultrasound picture.

As Catholics we know that abortion is the taking of an innocent life and it is a mortal sin. Yet, that doesn't tell the whole story. I have heard confessions of women who are elderly and still mention that they had an abortion 30 or 40 years ago. I will ask if that had ever been confessed. They say, "many times." What these women are saying is that for whatever reasons they chose abortion back then, they regret it even today.

While it certainly is difficult for a family to welcome a child that is handicapped or has some other birth defect most families discover that child is a gift more than a burden. Yet, how many women will lament, "If only one person had encouraged me to keep my baby...."

Whatever the Supreme Court decides abortion will not end in the United States until every person believes it is as abhorrent to kill their child as it would be to own a slave. We Catholics must continue to support life, educate what abortion is, and support those who have given their babies life. We also provide mercy to those who have had abortions and counseling as necessary. Our Diocese is once again offering Project Rachel support for those who have had abortions or materially cooperated in one.

In addition, our parish supports the Central Florida Pregnancy Center here in Deltona. As a parish we have helped provide baby food and diapers, financial support, and our Knights of Columbus have been raising funds over the last 15 years to buy ultrasound machines for clinics to help pregnant women see their unborn babies and choose life. Catholic Charities provides adoption services as well.

Every child may not be conceived in love or even born in love. But I believe every child can be received in love. Our Church stands ready to assist anyone who is pregnant and believes they are unable to take care of that child. It no longer is a stigma to be pregnant outside of marriage. Yet ironically enough, some women still believe that they would feel worse if they gave their child up for adoption rather than aborting it. I can tell you nothing is further from the truth!

We can and must do everything possible to educate our young to abstain from sex before marriage. We can and must do all that is necessary to assist those who become pregnant by rape and incest. But mostly we must let it be known that we will do everything in our power to encourage pregnant women not to abort. There are always alternatives. We want to help.

Peace,

Fr. Chris

Question to ponder: Why do you believe Jesus chose to turn 150 gallons of water into wine?

January 16, 2022
2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus.
