Holy Spirit Sent

The first Church council, the Council of Jerusalem we hear about in today's First Reading, decided the shape of the Church as we know it. Some Jewish Christians had wanted Gentile converts to be circumcised and obey all the complex ritual and purity laws of the Jews. The council called this a heresy, again showing us that the Church in the divine plan is meant to be a worldwide family of God, no longer a covenant with just one nation. Today's Liturgy gives us a profound meditation on the nature and meaning of the Church. The Church is One, as we see in the First Reading: "the Apostles [bishops] and presbyters [priests], in agreement with the whole Church [laity]." The Church is Holy, taught and guided by the Spirit that Jesus promises the Apostles in the Gospel.

The Church is Catholic, or universal, making known God's ways of salvation to all peoples, ruling all in equity, as we sing in today's Psalm. And the Church, as John sees in the Second Reading, is Apostolic—founded on the twelve Apostles of the Lamb. All these marks of the Church are underscored in the story of the council.

Notice that everybody, including Paul, looks to "Jerusalem [and] . . . the Apostles" to decide the Church's true teaching. The Apostles, too, presume that Christian teachers need a "mandate from us." And we see the Spirit guiding the Apostles in all truth. Notice how they describe their ruling: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us."

Knowing these truths about the Church, our hearts should never be troubled. The Liturgy's message today is that the Church is the Lord's, watched over and guarded by the Advocate, the Holy Spirit sent by the Father in the name of the Son.

VOLUNTEERS AT MASS

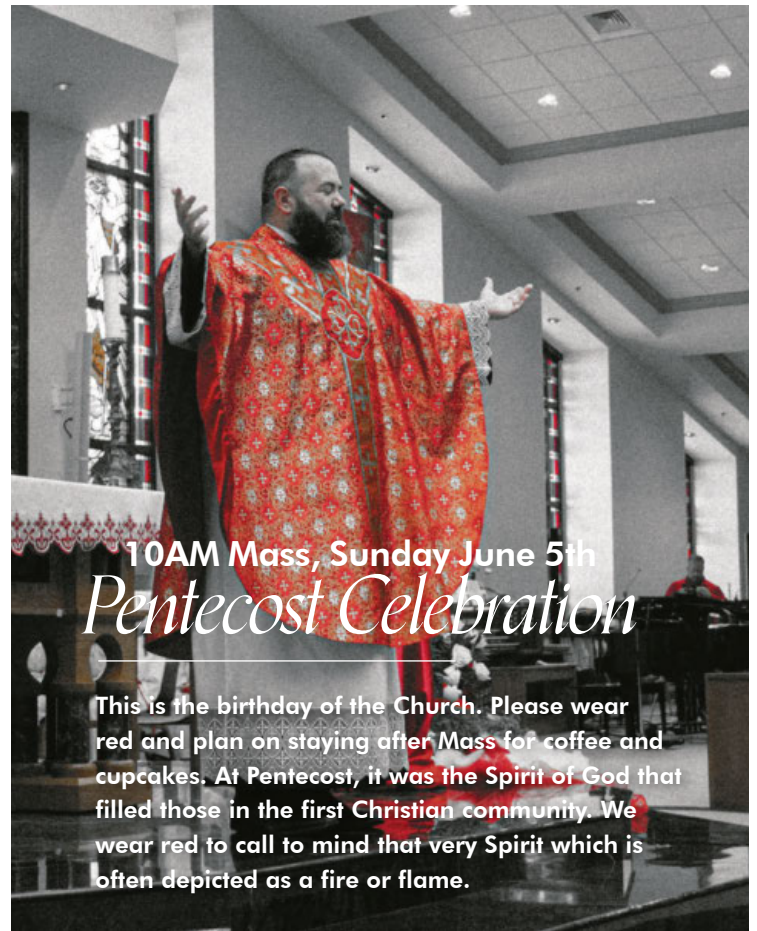

We are filled with the Holy Spirit through the sacraments of the Church. God touches us and enters into us in a profound way, just like in that upper room at Pentecost. That first powerful movement of the Spirit led to a Church that grew and flourished and remains alive today.

What is the movement of the Spirit within you calling you to do?

Do we allow God to move us and do great things through us?

We need more Ushers! Ushers are a welcoming presence for visitors and provide organization and security. Ushers also take care of the offertory baskets. By church law, this job is for parishioners, not staff, because this is your church. Please email Beverly at baviles@stelizabethseton.org to receive more information about this ministry. Then you can decide. Thank you!

We need more Readers (lectors)! This is a pivotal ministry of the church. Requirements of a reader: Desire to be closer to Jesus, practice in advance, modest dress, and come to Mass early to check-in. No experience required, and you will receive training. This is a ministry of surprising blessings. We need readers especially for Daily Mass and 8am on Sundays. Please email Hector at hsalazar@stelizabethseton.org to receive more information about this ministry. Then you can decide. Thank you!

10AM Mass, Sunday June 5th Pentecost Celebration

This is the birthday of the Church. Please wear red and plan on staying after Mass for coffee and cupcakes. At Pentecost, it was the Spirit of God that filled those in the first Christian community. We wear red to call to mind that very Spirit which is often depicted as a fire or flame.

MISSING RELIC

A RELIC HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM OUR CHURCH.

This relic is important to our faith community, and we desire its safe return. To that end, if the relic is returned, no questions will be asked of the person returning it. If you know something about this missing relic, please contact the Parish Office.

GIVE ONLINE?

Let the parish know if you no longer need offertory envelopes mailed to you. You can save our parish the expense of sending these envelopes if you are giving online instead. Please just call the parish office (455-3900) or email to cancel envelopes (info@stelizabethseton.org) Thank you!

Life is shared moments.
