The Good News

Jesus is praying for us in today's Gospel. We are those who have come to believe in Him through the Word of the Apostles, handed on in His Church. Jesus showed the Apostles His glory, made known the Father's name and the love He has had for us from "before the foundation of the world." He revealed that He and the Father are one (see John 14:9). Jesus is the "first and the last" (see Isaiah 44:6), the root of David (see Isaiah 11:10; 2 Samuel 7:12), as today's Second Reading declares.

Wrapped in clouds and darkness as God was at Sinai (see Exodus 19:16), He is "the king . . . the Most High over all the earth," as we sing in today's Psalm. Exalted at God's right hand, as Stephen sees in the First Reading, the Lord calls to us through the Church, His Bride. He calls us to "the tree of life," to communion with God.

This is the goal of His love, His saving purpose from all eternity—that each of us enter into the life of the Blessed Trinity and be "brought to perfection as one" with the Father and Son in the Spirit. The story of Stephen, the first martyr, shows us how we are to answer His call.

Listen for the echoes of the Crucifixion: Stephen, like Jesus, sees the Son of Man in glory and dies with words of forgiveness and self-offering on his lips (compare Acts 7:56–60; Matthew 26:64–65; Luke 23:24,46). We, too, are to commend our spirits to the Father, to pray and offer our lives in love for our brethren, awaiting His coming in judgment. We renew our vows in every Mass, coming forward to receive the gift of His life.

We answer His call by crying out a call of our own: "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!" And in our communion we answer our Lord's prayer: "That they may all be one, as You, Father are in Me and I in You."

VOLUNTEERS AT MASS

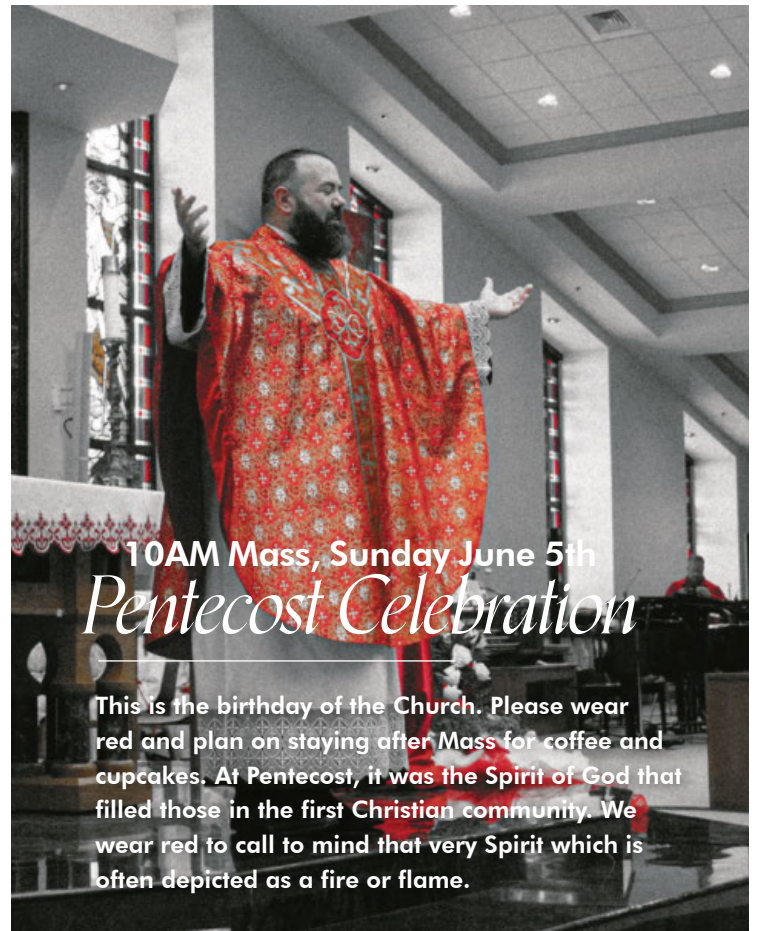

We are filled with the Holy Spirit through the sacraments of the Church. God touches us and enters into us in a profound way, just like in that upper room at Pentecost. That first powerful movement of the Spirit led to a Church that grew and flourished and remains alive today.

What is the movement of the Spirit within you calling you to do?

Do we allow God to move us and do great things through us?

We need more Ushers! Ushers are a welcoming presence for visitors and provide organization and security. Ushers also take care of the offertory baskets. By church law, this job is for parishioners, not staff, because this is your church. Please email Beverly at baviles@stelizabethseton.org to receive more information about this ministry. Then you can decide. Thank you!

We need more Readers (lectors)! This is a pivotal ministry of the church. Requirements of a reader: Desire to be closer to Jesus, practice in advance, modest dress, and come to Mass early to check-in. No experience required, and you will receive training. This is a ministry of surprising blessings. We need readers especially for Daily Mass and 8am on Sundays. Please email Hector at hsalazar@stelizabethseton.org to receive more information about this ministry. Then you can decide. Thank you!

10AM Mass, Sunday June 5th Pentecost Celebration

This is the birthday of the Church. Please wear red and plan on staying after Mass for coffee and cupcakes. At Pentecost, it was the Spirit of God that filled those in the first Christian community. We wear red to call to mind that very Spirit which is often depicted as a fire or flame.

MISSING RELIC

A RELIC HAS BEEN REMOVED FROM OUR CHURCH.

This relic is important to our faith community, and we desire its safe return. To that end, if the relic is returned, no questions will be asked of the person returning it. If you know something about this missing relic, please contact the Parish Office.

GIVE ONLINE?

Let the parish know if you no longer need offertory envelopes mailed to you. You can save our parish the expense of sending these envelopes if you are giving online instead. Please just call the parish office (455-3900) or email to cancel envelopes (info@stelizabethseton.org) Thank you!

Life is shared moments.
