It is only the hand that is open to give that is open to receive. God cannot give us what we refuse to take and God cannot give to us when our hands and hearts cling to things.

You are encouraged to have your daughter join us for a Sodality meeting in the school hall after this Sunday's 10 am Mass (7/11) We welcome all girls that have received their First Communion and have not yet graduated from high school! This will be an important meeting as we assign roles and prepare for participation in the celebration of the Mass of the Feast of the Assumption next month. This meeting will last approximately one hour.

From Fr. West:

Dear Sacred Heart Family,

Did you know, that out of the 196 dioceses and archdioceses in the United States, the Diocese of Charleston is the 7th-oldest? The history of the Church in South Carolina is fascinating, with the first Mass celebrated on what is now Parris Island in 1526 (before the Spanish founding of St Augustine), St Mary’s in Charleston becoming the first Catholic Church in the Carolinas and Georgia in 1789, and a booming and diverse Catholic population that has grown from 3% to 10% of the total population in just the past 20 years.

Today, July 11, the Diocese of Charleston celebrates its 201st anniversary, and the closing of the observance of its bicentennial. Cardinal Timothy Dolan of New York will celebrate Holy Mass later this evening at the Cathedral in observance of this milestone. Let us pray for all in our diocese this week, that through us, the Lord Jesus may continue to grow His Kingdom in South Carolina for another 100 years!

In the Heart of Jesus,

Fr West
