CHILDREN FAITH FORMATION - REGISTER TODAY!

Sacred Heart is launching a new family catechesis program for children and their parents. The Catholic Catechism (CCC 2223 and 2226) instructs us that parents have the first responsibility for the education and faith formation of their children. Our mission is to help families grow in holiness and Truth in order to live out our Baptismal promises and strengthen our virtues of faith, hope, and charity. In doing so, our family-based program will also strengthen our parish community as we worship together at Mass and bear witness to the gifts of the Holy Spirit. We will provide all relevant catechesis materials and be available to support all efforts in your family's faith formation.

Mandatory Kick-off Meeting All catechesis program materials will be provided to families at our kick-off gathering on Wednesday, September 8 at 6:30PM in the Charleston Catholic School hall. This meeting is mandatory if you plan to enroll in Sacred Heart's catechesis program.

Program Structure Parents will be given the resources for guidance and instruction of their child(ren) at home with further support provided through monthly meetings to be held on the first Wednesday of each month. Children will also attend the monthly meetings with their parents. If your child is planning to receive a sacrament of initiation (First Confession, First Holy Communion, and/or Confirmation), the Diocese of Charleston requires two years of structured faith formation. The catechesis program will also foster sacramental preparation in a family setting. Sandy Funk, a parishioner and member of the Marian Catechesis Institute, will coordinate our program. She and her husband, David, have three children and have followed a family-centered model of faith formation since their oldest child was born. Registration forms are available after Mass the weekends of Aug. 21/22 and Aug. 28/29. Please stop by the registration table in the entryway as you depart Mass. Or, please email Sandy Funk at sandyfunk1126@gmail.com for a registration form. Please call her at 843.469.3377 if you have questions. She's happy to further explain the program details.

Program Cost - $35 for 1 set of materials per grade per household.

Sacred Heart Charleston

From Fr. West:

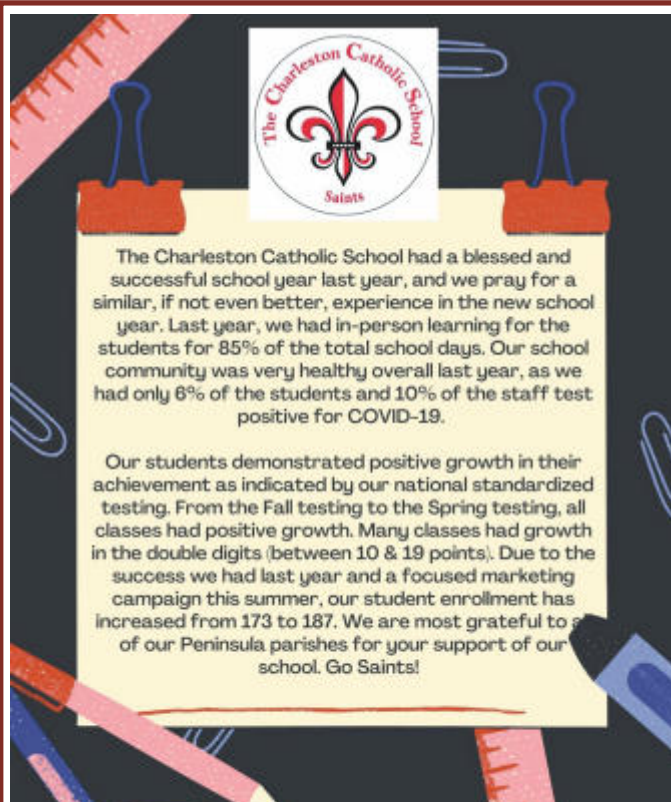

Dear Sacred Heart Family,

As school is just starting back, particularly for our children at Charleston Catholic, we are grateful to our faculty and staff for fulfilling their role of helping to form future generations in the Catholic Faith. At the same time, we are also beginning registration for religious education for children not enrolled in a Catholic school. This year, we will begin an approach of family catechesis, given the Biblical principle that parents are the primary educators of their children, especially in the Faith. Indeed, parents make a solemn promise to do this on the day of their children's baptism. Below are two excerpts from the Catechism of the Catholic Church:

“Parents have the first responsibility for the education of their children. They bear witness to this responsibility first by creating a home where tenderness, forgiveness, respect, fidelity, and disinterested service are the rule. The home is well suited for education in the virtues. This requires an apprenticeship in self-denial, sound judgment, and self-mastery—the preconditions of all true freedom. Parents should teach their children to subordinate the ‘material and instinctual dimensions to interior and spiritual ones.’ Parents have a grave responsibility to give good example to their children. By knowing how to acknowledge their own failings to their children, parents will be better able to guide and correct them.” (CCC 2223)

“Education in the faith by the parents should begin in the child's earliest years. This already happens when family members help one another to grow in faith by the witness of a Christian life in keeping with the Gospel. Family catechesis precedes, accompanies, and enriches other forms of instruction in the faith. Parents have the mission of teaching their children to pray and to discover their vocation as children of God.” (CCC 2226)

In the Heart of Jesus,
Fr West
