From Fr. West:

Dear Sacred Heart Family,

As our country observes Labor Day, it is good for us to remember the great dignity and supernatural purpose of work. God created the first man and placed him in the garden “to cultivate it and to protect it” (Genesis 2:15). From the beginning, God wanted us to use the gifts He has given us in order to build up His creation and His Kingdom. No matter our state in life, we are called to grow in holiness and bring others closer to the Lord through our work. St Joseph is the patron of all workers, and as we are still in the Year of St Joseph, I offer the following prayer for your devotion this Labor Day. It may also be used every day, as a way to offer your daily work to God.

O Blessed Joseph, patron of all workers, I give thanks for the opportunity to build up God’s Kingdom through my labors. Help me to be conscientious in my work, so that I may give as full a measure as I have received

May I do all things in a spirit of thankfulness and joy, ever mindful of the gifts I have received from God that enable me to perform these tasks. Permit me to work in peace, patience, and moderation, keeping in mind the account I must one day give of time lost, talents unused, good omitted, and vanity of success, so fatal to the work of God. Glorious St Joseph, may my labors be all for Jesus, all through Mary, and all after your holy example in life and in death. Amen.

Fr West
